RE: Modification of Groundwater Sampling and Analysis Plan (GWSAP)
Hidalgo County Precinct 4 Closed Landfill, MSW Permit No. 1593-A
CN 600753990/RN102120763 Hidalgo County, Texas

Dear Mr. Goodin,

Please find enclosed the permit modification form TCEQ-20650 and the required attachments. The modification (with public notice) is submitted to update the facility GWSAP to meet the requirements of 30 TAC 330.401(b). Because the existing GWSAP is very dated, it has been completely stricken and replaced with an entirely new document. The format and principle content of the new document have been through review for the 2006 rule revision and is used on several facilities.

Please contact me at the address/phone below or by email at: mitch@mtmetex.com if we can provide any additional information that will aid in your review.

Respectfully submitted,
Modern Technology – Modern Environment

1.0 Introduction

In accordance with the Agreed Order (Docket No. 1999-0695-MSW-E) and applicable Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission (TNRCC) regulations, the Ground Water Sampling and Analysis Plan (GWSAP) presented herein was prepared to describe procedures and methodologies associated with the collection, handling and laboratory testing of ground water samples at the Hidalgo County Precinct No. 4 Landfill (Permit No. MSW-1593A) located in Edinburg, Hidalgo County, Texas. The purpose of the GWSAP is to define site-specific standards and practices for ground water sampling and analysis within the context of a stand-alone document that provides a concise set of instructions to sampling and analytical personnel conducting a ground water sampling program. The GWSAP was developed in accordance with 30 TAC §330.233 and TNRCC guidance document RG 74 entitled Guidelines for Preparing a ground-Water Sampling and Analysis Plan to ensure that representative ground water data are obtained at the subject landfill. Figures, tables, and supplemental information referenced herein are provided in respective "Figures", "Tables", and "Appendices" sections immediately following the narrative portion of the GWSAP.

The ground water sampling program will be conducted in accordance with the procedures established herein. Although the GWSAP addresses the collection, handling, storage, and treatment of the samples, both in the field and at the testing laboratory, the contract laboratory that performs analyses of ground water samples will submit a Laboratory Standard Operating Procedures (LSOP) document to the TNRCC prior to the implementation of the sampling program. The LSOP will describe specific laboratory protocols used to provide data of stated quality with a stated probability of being correct including all procedures to handle and analyze samples from receipt until results are officially reported.

Deleted Page

Ground water samples will be collected from the ground water monitoring wells installed as part of landfill closure activities (see Figure II.1: Proposed Ground Water Monitor Well Locations). As presented on Figure II.1, a network comprised of ten (10) ground water monitoring wells will be installed along the periphery of buried municipal solid waste (MSW) at the subject landfill.

2.0 Monitoring Well Inspection

The location of each monitoring well will be initially verified using a current site map to ensure that appropriate monitoring wells are identified for sampling. The unique monitoring well identification numbers will be verified with the identification markers shown on well installations and recorded on a well inspection and sampling (WIS) form (see Appendix II.1). The WIS form will accompany field personnel performing ground water monitoring to the subject landfill during all monitoring events.

Prior to the commencement of monitoring well gauging or purging activities, the condition of all site wells will be visually inspected. The well casing and concrete pads will be checked for the presence of cracks or fissures that could compromise the integrity of the surface completion. Each well will be additionally inspected for damage due to vandalism, animals or insects, and/or heavy equipment operations. Descriptions of apparent well damage or conditions conducive to the transmission of surface runoff along monitoring well installations will be noted in the 'Comments' section of the WIS form.

3.0 Gas Monitoring / Water-Level Measurements

The presence of explosive gases within the well casing at respective monitoring well/piezometer locations will be evaluated utilizing a properly calibrated landfill gas monitor. Measurements will consist of gas temperature, pressure and concentration. Well casings will be screened during each monitoring event to verify that the concentration of methane gas does not exceed 25 percent of the lower explosive limit (LEL) for methane. In the event that methane is detected at concentrations that exceed 25 percent of the LEL, steps will be immediately taken to ensure the protection of human health and safety pursuant to contingencies described in the accompanying Landfill Gas Management Plan (LFGMP) and 30 TAC §330.56(n). A record of field methane measurements will be recorded on the WIS form.

Prior to purging site monitoring wells, depth to water and total well depth measurements will be gauged at each well location from a permanent, clearly marked reference point located at the TOC. All measurements will be recorded to the nearest hundredth of a foot utilizing an electronic water-level indicator (e-line). To ensure that potential contaminants are not introduced to site monitoring wells as the result of gauging activities, the e-line probe and measurement tape will be decontaminated before and after each use. Decontamination procedures are further described in Section 4.0 of this plan. All decontamination fluids will be containerized pending the results of ground water sampling and analyses.

4.0 Well Purging

Delete Full Page

In order to secure representative ground water samples, monitoring wells will be purged in order to remove water from the well casing that may not be chemically representative of the formation ground water. Well purging will be accomplished utilizing either a properly decontaminated electric pump or a dedicated Teflon® or polyethylene bailer. In the event that an electric pump is used to purge monitoring wells, purging equipment including pump, tubing, and connectors will be decontaminated according to the following procedure: 1) an initial wash in a mild solution containing a biodegradable, phosphate-free detergent such as Alconox®; 2) a second wash utilizing clean drinking-grade water; and 3) final rinse with reagent-grade water obtained from the contract analytical laboratory. In order to prevent cross-contamination of purging equipment by field personnel, clean, disposable, powder-free, nitrile gloves will be used when handling the decontaminated purging equipment. Prior to purging and sampling, clean, disposable plastic sheeting will be placed around respective wells in order to prevent clean equipment from coming into contact with the ground.

During purging, a minimum of three (3) casing volumes of ground water will be removed from respective monitoring wells. As indicated on the attached WIS form (see Attachment II.2), the volume of water to be removed at each well location will be calculated based on the respective height of the water column in the monitoring well and the well casing diameter. If sufficient ground water is available, purging will continue until field parameters including pH, temperature, turbidity, and conductivity have stabilized and the ground water is clear. A description of measurement protocols for field parameters is provided in Section 6.2 of this plan.

In the event that monitoring wells recharge very slowly, wells will be purged to dryness in order to remove stagnant water from well casings. Wells will be allowed sufficient time (maximum of 72 hours) to recover such that ground water samples can be collected. Whenever possible, the ground water level shall be allowed to recover to within 90 percent of the original water level measurement prior to purging. Based upon a review of historical ground water monitoring data available for the subject landfill, it is anticipated that ground water levels will recover to the 90 percent pre-purging elevations within 12 to 24 hours of purging. In the event that sufficient well volume for sampling is not available within 72 hours of purging, respective wells will be reported as "purged dry with insufficient sampling volume after 72 hours" on the WIS form and in the corresponding Ground Water Sampling and Analyses Report submitted to the TNRCC.

All data collected prior to sampling will be recorded on the WIS form and will include the following at a minimum:

- initial depth to water,
- measured depth to the bottom of the well,
- height of the water column inside the well,
- well volume,
- purging discharge rate,
- well purging time,
- volume purged from the well,
- a record of pH, conductivity, temperature, turbidity readings, and
- information from the well inspection and other pertinent information.

All ground water removed from site monitoring wells during the purging activities will be stored in labeled 55-gallon drums or similar containers. The ground water containers will be temporarily stored at a secured site location until analytical results are received from the contract laboratory. If the report of laboratory analyses indicate that the concentrations of contaminants do not exceed levels of concern as determined by the TNRCC, the water will be applied to the unsaturated soil on-site. In the event that analytical results indicate concentrations of contaminants that are above levels of concern or classified as hazardous by the TNRCC, the water will be properly disposed of at a waste-water treatment facility, other authorized facility, or hazardous waste facility in accordance with applicable TNRCC and Federal regulations.

5.0 Timing and Order of Sampling

In association with each monitoring event, ground water sampling will be accomplished as soon as practicable subsequent to the completion of purging activities to avoid temporal variations in water levels and water chemistry. When possible, sampling activities will be conducted within twenty-four (24) hours of well purging. As described in Section 4.0 of this plan, a maximum of 72 hours will be allowed subsequent to purging in the event that monitoring wells recharge slowly and sufficient water volume is not available for sampling at a lesser duration. In general, the time interval between purging and sampling activities will be kept to a minimum, particularly when the analysis of volatile organic compounds (VOCs) is required.

In an effort to avoid cross-contamination of samples between monitoring wells during respective monitoring events, sampling will commence at the monitoring well which is known to be the least contaminated and conclude with the most contaminated well. In the absence of contamination data for newly installed monitoring wells during initial background monitoring events, the order of sampling will be from the well with the highest water-level elevation to the well with the lowest elevation (upgradient to downgradient) for each group of wells completed within a discrete water bearing interval.

6.0 Sample Collection, Preservation, and Shipment

In an effort to maximize the validity of ground water samples and protect sample integrity, the following procedures for sample collection, preservation and shipment will be implemented. The methods and procedures described herein will be consistently applied at all site monitoring wells and throughout subsequent ground water monitoring events.

6.1 Sample Collection

Ground water samples will be collected at each well location utilizing a new, clean, disposable bailer suspended from new, clean nylon string. In order to minimize turbulence and aeration and associated potential volatilization of organic compounds during sampling, bailers will be equipped with a bottom-emptying device allowing water to be discharged slowly from the bottom directly into sample containers. Field personnel will wear new, clean, disposable nitrile gloves throughout the duration of sampling at each well location. Soiled sample bottles, bailers, nylon string, and filtration media will not be reused at subsequent well sampling locations.

In the event that ground water samples are collected immediately subsequent to purging activities (6 to 12 hours), it is not anticipated that ground water present at the top of the water column will be oxidized to an extent that could potentially affect the collection representative ground water samples. In the event that sufficient sample volume recharges into monitoring wells and sampling is conducted within 24 hours of purging the first portion of collected water (approximately 2 liters) will be discarded to eliminate potentially oxidized water prior to filling sample containers. In the event that site wells recharge slowly and must be sampled 24 to 72 hours subsequent to purging, a lesser volume may be initially discarded in order to preserve sufficient sampling volume for analytical chemistry assignments.

6.2 Field Measurements

An unfiltered portion of the ground water will be poured into a clean container for field measurement of temperature, specific conductance, and pH. The temperature readings will be measured immediately upon collection. Subsequently, measurements of specific conductance will be accomplished to avoid any effect on the sample from salts on the pH probe. The specific conductance readings will be followed by the pH measurements. In addition to recording ground water parameter measurements, observations regarding the ground water color, odor, foaming, presence of more than one phase of liquid, and turbidity will be recorded on the WIS form.

Equipment utilized for the field measurements will be calibrated each day that the equipment is used in the field. Copies of the daily calibration logs will be kept on file and presented in the Ground Water Sampling and Analyses Report. Provisions will be made for backup equipment in the event of a primary equipment failure during the course of a monitoring event.

6.3 Sample Containers

The volume of samples and the types of sample containers depends on the parameters to be analyzed during respective monitoring events and will be consistent with recommendations provided by the TNRCC in RG-74, Attachment A, which are based upon EPA guidance. Sampling, preservation, and storage procedures for potential ground water monitoring parameters are presented in Table II-1.

As recommended in RG-74, sample containers will be filled in the following order according to volatilization sensitivity:

1. VOCs (volatile organic compounds)
2. SVOCs (semi-volatile organic compounds)
3. NPOC (non-purgeable organic carbon, also called TOC or total organic carbon)
4. Metals
5. Other Inorganic Parameters

Although volatilization is of primary concern during VOC sampling, designated VOC vials will additionally be sampled from the same bailer in order to prevent inhomogeneity in the samples resulting from the presence of suspended sediments. As referenced in Section 6.3 and 7.0 of RG-74, inhomogeneity of samples owing to the presence of suspended sediments is additionally of concern when collecting samples with a bailer to the extent that VOCs adsorbed to sediment particles can influence measured concentrations in ground water. However, as wells will be properly designed, constructed, and installed, it is not anticipated that appreciable suspended sediments will be encountered during sampling activities.

The contract analytical laboratory will supply appropriate pre-preserved sampling containers, labeled by analyte, prior to the mobilization of sampling personnel to the subject landfill. Sample containers will be subsequently labeled in the field for identification purposes and will include the following information at a minimum: site identification, monitoring well number, date and time of sample collection, type of preservatives used, analyses to be performed (in accordance with laboratory designation), and the name of the sampler. Information will be written on laboratory-supplied sample labels using indelible ink and covered with transparent tape to protect written data.

6.4 Types of Sample Containers

As referenced in Table II.1 of this plan, the following sample containers and protocols will be utilized during ground water monitoring at the subject landfill.

- VOCs: Two (2) 40-ml glass vials with special caps containing Teflon septa will be used per analysis. Containers will be pre-preserved with HCL by the contract laboratory. Prior to filling, the septum of each vial will be placed with the Teflon side toward the sample. During filling, water will be allowed to stream down the inner wall of the vial to minimize formation of air bubbles. The vials will be slightly overfilled in order to create a positive meniscus. Upon completion of filling, caps will be carefully screwed on to avoid leaving any airspace within the vials. In the event that an air bubble forms in a vial subsequent to capping, an additional separate 40-ml sample will be collected.

- SVOCS: One (1) glass one-liter bottle with Teflon-lined cap will be used per analysis. Containers will be completely filled and capped.

- Metals: One (1) polyethylene one-liter bottle, pre-preserved with HNO_3 by the contract laboratory, will be used per analyses for total metals. Containers will be completely filled and capped. In the event that dissolved metals are to be tested, samples will be field filtered prior to adding the preservative in accordance with the procedure described in Section 7.0 of this plan.

- Other Inorganic Parameters: Depending on the specific parameters to be analyzed, one or more glass/plastic one-liter containers will be used per analyses of the suite of inorganic parameters including those listed on Table II.1. With the exception of ammonia (in the event that it is assigned for analysis), preservatives will not be used on samples collected for other inorganic parameter analyses.

- NPOC (TOC): In the event that NPOC analyses are assigned, quadruplicate 100-ml amber glass bottles with Teflon-lined caps will be used per analyses. Sample containers will be filled to capacity (no airspace) to minimize the possibility of volatilization of organics, if present. In the event that samples cannot be analyzed within 48 hours of collection, containers pre-preserved with HCL by the contract laboratory will be used.

6.5 Sample Preservation and Holding Times

As described in RG-74, sample preservation is intended to 1) retard biological action, 2) retard hydrolysis, and 3) reduce sorption effects. Preservation methods are generally limited to pH control, chemical addition, refrigeration, and protection from light. Specific preservation methods for analytes that may be assigned in association with ground water monitoring at the subject landfill are presented in Table II.1 of this plan.

Deleted Page

Specific sample volumes required for each analysis and associated sample holding times will be reviewed with the contract analytical laboratory prior to sampling. In general, these requirements will be consistent with those presented in Table II.1.

6.6 Sample Storage and Transport

In accordance with preservation requirements presented in Table II.1, sample containers will be placed into a clean, insulated cooler and kept on ice following sample collection. Adequate ice will be kept on the samples to maintain a maximum temperature of 4°C (39.2°F) during transport to the contract analytical laboratory. The samples will be kept in the sampler's possession at all times and will be submitted to the laboratory via proper chain-of-custody protocol within forty-eight (48) hours of sampling.

6.7 Chain-of-Custody Documentation

Appropriate Chain-of-Custody (COC) procedures will be implemented to ensure sample integrity and to provide technically and legally defensible ground water quality data. At any time that a ground water monitoring event is conducted, a COC form will be completed, placed in a sealable plastic bag, and placed in the cooler with the samples collected. The completed COC form will accompany the samples at every step from the field to the laboratory and will be signed by each party handling the samples, from sampler, through transporter to the laboratory to document the possession of the samples at all times. An example COC form is provided as Appendix II.2 of this plan.

In the event that samples are sent by mail to the contract analytical laboratory, packages containing samples will be certified with return receipt requested to document shipment. If the samples are shipped via overnight courier, the bill of lading will be retained to document shipment. Copies of the return receipt/bill of lading will be subsequently attached to the COC at the completion of each stage of shipment.

6.8 Documentation of Sampling

As described in Sections 2.0 through 4.0 of this plan, information related to a sampling event will be recorded on the WIS form (see Appendix II.1). All entries will be legible and made in indelible black ink. Entry errors will be crossed out with a single line, dated, and initialed by the person making the corrections. Sufficient information including sample location, date, time, weather, name and affiliation of field personnel, field measurements including the numerical values and units, the integrity of the well, methane gas measurements, etc. will be recorded on WIS forms such that the monitoring event can be reconstructed without relying on the sampler's memory. Completed forms will be maintained in project files as a permanent record of ground water monitoring activities.

7.0 Sample Filtration

As described in RG-74, samples are typically filtered to remove sediments that can cause interferences during analysis. Filtering is essential in determining the concentration of dissolved constituents in ground water because suspended sediments in the sample can react and change the concentration of some of the dissolved constituents. In the event that samples are filtered, acid preservatives are added to the sample subsequent to filtering to avoid breaking down clay molecules or placing absorbed ions into solution, which may result in artificially high concentrations of metals.

Pursuant to 30 TAC §330.233 and discussed in RG-74, samples that are to be analyzed for organic constituents listed in 30 TAC §330.241, Table 1 will not be field-filtered. In accordance with recommendations provided by the TNRCC ground water samples will be analyzed for dissolved metals as these are often better indicators of potential contamination than analyses for total metals. Field filtering will be conducted on samples to be submitted for analyses of dissolved metals according to the following protocol:

1. Upon collection, ground water samples will be extracted from bailers utilizing a field-portable peristaltic pump fitted with dedicated silicon tubing. The outflow reach of silicon tubing will be fitted with a new, disposable in-line filter capsule. Commercially available filter capsules utilized for sampling will generally consist of polypropylene housing containing a 20 cm^2 effective filtration area comprised of a 0.45µm nylon-supported membrane. Filter capsules will not be reused following sample collection.

2. Sample volumes discharging through the filter capsule will be directed into non-preserved polyethylene sampling containers. Samples will be subsequently acidified in the field to pH<2 by adding 5 ml of laboratory-supplied HNO_3 to one-liter sampling containers.

3 Filled and capped containers containing field-filtered sample will be subsequently submitted for analyses of dissolved metals.

8.0 Analytical Parameters

Pursuant to 30 TAC §330.241, Table 1 and RG-74, Attachment B, organic and metals constituents that will be monitored as part of the facility background and detection sampling programs are listed on Table II.2.

As discussed in RG-74, inorganic parameters other than heavy metals are useful indicators of contamination because of their relative abundance in waste, mobility, and lack of reactivity in ground water. In order to successfully characterize the ground water chemistry at each well, the following inorganic parameters listed in Table II.3 will additionally be analyzed during facility background and detection monitoring events.

As referenced in RG-74, it is not considered likely that metals including antimony, beryllium, thallium, and vanadium will be present in ground water present beneath a municipal solid waste landfill (MSWLF). After the completion of the background monitoring program, it is anticipated that the omission of some heavy metals will be proposed to the TNRCC. Changes and/or modifications to the list of analytes provided in Tables II.2 and II.3, if necessary, will be submitted to the TNRCC in the form of a permit modification request.

9.0 Analytical Methods

Do Not Fill Page

As stipulated in RG-74, the ground water monitoring program described herein will include the application of appropriate analytical methods in order to accurately measure concentrations of hazardous constituents or other monitoring parameters that may be present in the ground water samples. EPA-approved methods will be utilized for analyses of ground water samples obtained at the subject landfill in accordance with procedures described in the following published references:

- EPA 600/4-79-020, Methods for Chemical Analysis of Water and Wastes, March 1983
- EPA SW-846, Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste, Third Edition, September 1986, and Updates I, II, IIA, IIB, and III.
- Standard Methods for the Examination of Water and Wastewater, 18th Edition, 1992.

As stipulated previously in Section 1.0 of this plan, the contract laboratory that performs analyses of ground water samples will submit a LSOP document to the TNRCC prior to the implementation of the sampling program described herein. The LSOP will describe specific laboratory protocols used to provide data of stated quality with a stated probability of being correct including all procedures to handle and analyze samples from receipt until results are officially reported.

Pursuant to Drinking Water Standards adopted by the TNRCC on March 25, 1944 (provided in RG-74, Attachment E), the contract laboratory will demonstrate as part of the LSOP that analytical methods, instruments, and procedures used are capable of attaining PQLs at or below established maximum contaminant levels (MCLs) for respective analytes. In the event that PQL's greater than those presented in Attachment C are reported, any quantifiable amount below the PQL will be flagged to indicate that the compound is present but below the PQL. In these instances, documentation regarding the two lowest calibration points and MDL for the flagged compounds will accompany the analytical results.

Laboratory methods, method detection limits (MDLs), and practical quantitation limits (PQLs) for organic, metals, and inorganic constituents that will be monitored as part of the facility background and detection sampling programs are presented in Tables II.4 and II.5. As it is anticipated that chemical analyses of water samples will be performed by Severn Trent Laboratories, Inc. (STL) of Corpus Christi, Texas, the values presented in the referenced tables are laboratory-specific based on recent quality assurance data provided by STL. As presented in Tables II.4 and II.5, PQLs reported by STL are consistent with PQLs for organic constituents set forth in RG-74, Attachment C, as established by the Texas Department of Health (TDH) Laboratory. PQLs reported by STL are typically a factor of three times the MDL with regard to organic constituents. Chemical analyses of water samples will be performed by STL or other qualified laboratory capable of achieving MDLs and PQLs presented in the referenced tables.

In the event that PQLs in excess of those presented in RG-74, Attachment C are reported for organic compounds that have extremely low MCLs, such as DBCP and EDB, procedures described above for flagging will be followed.

10.0 Background Samples

As defined in RG-74, "background" refers to the chemical characteristics of ground water comprising a data set to which the chemical characteristics of the current samples are compared to determine if the current samples show statistically significant changes (SSCs) in those characteristics. Background water quality will be established for the 15 metals and 47 VOCs listed in Table II.2 of this plan pursuant to 30 TAC §330.241, Table 1. As per recommendations provided in RG-74, a minimum of eight (8) background monitoring events will be conducted such that a statistical approach may be subsequently applied involving intrawell and/or interwell comparisons.

The spacing of background monitoring events will be adequate to facilitate the hydraulic and chemical stabilization of ground water such that consecutive samples are statistically independent. Based upon limited historical site data, it is initially proposed that background monitoring events be conducted quarterly over the duration of two years to incorporate seasonal variations in water chemistry into the background data set. In the event results of initial background monitoring indicate that a quarterly frequency will not likely produce statistically independent samples based upon the calculated ground water gradient, an alternate background monitoring frequency will be proposed to the TNRCC as a permit modification. The specific methodology for determining ground water sampling frequency is further discussed in Section 14.2 of this plan.

Background samples will be taken from all existing site monitoring wells that are included as part of the ground water monitoring system (see Figure II.1). After background analyses have been completed, data will be treated statistically and background concentrations established for each parameter. Although these analyses will be used to obtain background data for subsequent statistical analysis during detection monitoring, calculated background concentrations will be subject to review by the TNRCC for indications of historical ground water contamination based upon available site information.

Do Not Duplicate

A general discussion and flow chart describing the application of statistical methods to background and detection monitoring are presented in Section 14.0 and Figure II.2, respectively. Subsequent to the completion of background monitoring, a plan outlining the statistical approach to be applied to background and detection monitoring data will be submitted to the TNRCC. The statistical plan will compliment the GWSAP, utilize site specific analytical data, and present a more detailed approach than described herein.

11.0 Detection Monitoring

Subsequent to the completion of background monitoring, detection monitoring will be conducted on a semi-annual basis. The first detection monitoring sampling event will occur approximately six (6) months after completion of background sampling pending the reduction of background sampling data. It is anticipated that this frequency will continue throughout the duration of the closure and post/closure care period unless site ground water flow velocities are sufficiently low such that an annual monitoring frequency will suffice. In the event that a SSC occurs in ground water chemistry data, or if deemed necessary by the TNRCC, an alternate monitoring frequency may be adopted. Pursuant to RG-74, it is understood that the adoption of an alternate monitoring frequency will require TNRCC concurrence. If warranted, an alternate detection monitoring frequency will be proposed as a permit modification request.

Site wells comprising the ground water monitoring network will be sampled during each detection monitoring event in accordance with the methodologies and procedures described herein. As previously stipulated, it is anticipated that the omission of some heavy metals will be proposed to the TNRCC following the completion of the background monitoring program. If warranted, proposed changes and/or modifications to the list of analytes provided in Tables II.2 and II.3 will be submitted to the TNRCC as a permit modification request.

Delete Until Page

12.0 Assessment Monitoring

The occurrence of a confirmed SSC from background for a specific detection monitoring constituent (see Table II.2) during a sampling event will result in the implementation of assessment monitoring. In the event that a SSC is determined as the result of a detection monitoring event, site monitoring wells exhibiting statistically anomalous analytical results will be immediately re-sampled in order to confirm the SSC. Unless it can be demonstrated to the satisfaction of TNRCC that the SSC is the result of an error, seasonal variation, or cause other than the subject landfill, an assessment monitoring program will be initiated no more than ninety (90) days from the report of the SSC to the TNRCC.

Assessment monitoring will be performed on a site-specific basis in accordance with 30 TAC §330.235. Although the initiation of assessment monitoring does not require TNRCC concurrence, these activities will be coordinated with the TNRCC to ensure adequate characterization of potential ground water contamination.

13.0 Quality Assurance and Quality Control (QA/QC)

The assessment of data reliability is essential to determine if the analytical parameters detected by the contract laboratory are truly present in the ground water at the reported concentrations and to confirm that all compounds of interest in the sample have been detected. A good QA/QC program ensures that the data generated are accurate, precise and legally defensible and enhances consistency in data analysis.

Quality-assurance/ quality control (QA/QC) procedures address both the field and laboratory activities. In order to provide good QA/QC for field data generated during background and detection monitoring at the subject landfill, project documentation for each monitoring event will include descriptions of the following areas and activities at a minimum. Specific discussions pertaining to items listed below are provided in preceding sections of this work plan.

- The location where decontamination of sampling equipment is to be performed, the method, solvents, and purity of water used for decontamination purposes, and the method and storage location for purged ground water generated as a result of sampling activities.
- Sample management procedures including the container types, volume of samples, preservatives, labeling, holding times, chain-of-custody documentation, and shipping methods
- Field equipment and instrumentation used in the field including calibration and maintenance procedures.
- Sample collection information including the names of field personnel, sample numbers, dates and times, climatic conditions, and documentation QC samples including trip and equipment blanks, and duplicate samples.

Delete Full Page

Laboratory QA/QC procedures will be established and followed for the analyses of samples from the subject landfill in order to reduce the frequency of random and systematic errors and maintain such errors within tolerable limits. As referenced in Section 1.0 of this plan, the contract analytical laboratory will provide an LSOP for TNRCC review prior to the implementation of the background monitoring program in partial fulfillment of QA/QC requirements. The LSOP will describe a detailed program of how the laboratory will proceed to provide data of stated quality with stated probability of being correct including all procedures to handle and analyze samples from receipt until results are reported. At a minimum, the laboratory QA/QC program described in the LSOP will address the following items:

- Procedures will be in place for demonstrating proficiency with each analytical method used in the laboratory including documentation of precision, bias, methods and frequency of the determinations of method detection limits (MDLs), checks on reagent purity and glassware purity, and checks on spike and surrogate recoveries.
- The laboratory will have methods in place for establishing control limits for analysis, documenting the effect of the matrix on analytical results, and reviewing, approving, and revising laboratory records.
- The laboratory will maintain equipment records documenting the frequency of equipment maintenance, standards used, calibration history, and verification of all working standards against appropriate primary grade standards.

- The laboratory will maintain records including descriptions of samples received, steps of sample handling, assigned personnel responsibilities, chain-of-custody, and reagents used and date of purchase.
- The laboratory will maintain in permanent records the raw data and calculated results for all QC, field samples, and standards.

13.1 Trip Blanks

Trip blanks are used to determine whether sample bottles or collected samples may have been contaminated before or during sampling, or whether sample shipment, handling and storage may have had an impact on sample integrity. Trip blanks, supplied by the contract laboratory containing laboratory-grade distilled water, will be prepared and sent from and to the laboratory in the same manner as actual ground water samples. One properly preserved trip blank will accompany sampling personnel into the field during each sampling event and subsequently analyzed for parameters specified in Table II.2.

13.2 Field Blanks

Field blanks are used to check sampling procedures and evaluate potential airborne contaminants. Field blanks will be prepared by sampling personnel in the field by placing laboratory-grade distilled water, supplied by the contract laboratory, into clean sample containers. Pending the initial determination of ground water gradient at the site, field blanks will be collected when sampling downgradient wells. At a minimum, one field blank per day or per every 10 wells, whichever is greater, will be collected and analyzed for parameters listed in Table II.2 for each monitoring event.

Delete Double Page

13.3 Equipment Blanks

Equipment blanks are used to check the effectiveness of decontamination procedures for sampling equipment. Equipment blanks will be prepared by sampling personnel by processing laboratory-grade distilled water trough the sampling equipment (i.e. bailer or pump) in the same manner as the actual ground water samples obtained from site monitoring wells. One equipment blank per day will be collected and analyzed for parameters listed in Table II.2 during each monitoring event.

13.4 Field Duplicates

Field duplicates will be collected in order to check the precision of laboratory techniques. Duplicates will be prepared by collecting two ground water samples from the same well, preferably from the same bailer, but labeled differently, so that the analytical laboratory is unaware that the samples are duplicate. One field duplicate will be collected per 10 wells sampled, or per sampling event for fewer than 10 wells and analyzed for parameters listed in Tables II.2 and II.3 of this plan.

14.0 Statistical Methods

Pursuant to 30 TAC §330.233, statistical treatment of analytical data is required as part of the ground water sampling and analyses plan. The purpose of the statistical evaluation of ground water data is to determine whether "there is evidence of a SSC from background values for each detection/monitoring constituent required as part of the ground water monitoring program". As discussed in RG-74, the rules provide for the use of a wide variety of statistical methods but require that the method chosen for a constituent be appropriate for the constituent, for the data available, and for the site. It is crucial to select appropriate statistical methods for a variety of reasons: the necessity of being able to detect a release from the subject landfill in a timely way, the ability to evaluate data clearly and quickly, and the intent to detect SSCs that may indicate contamination.

Appropriate statistical methods cannot be chosen in advance of sampling as specific methods depend upon the distribution of data although it is possible to establish guidelines for the application of statistical methods to analytical data prior to sampling. Therefore, a general discussion pertaining to the application of statistical methods to background and detection monitoring is presented in Section 4.1 of this plan. Information provided in Section 4.1 is based to a large extent upon recommendations set forth in the following publications:

- American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM), 1998; Standard Guide for Developing Appropriate Statistical Approaches for Ground Water Detection Monitoring Programs, (Designation: D 6312-98).
- EPA, Office of Solid Waste, Waste Management Division, 1989; Statistical Analysis of Ground-Water Monitoring Data at RCRA Facilities, Interim Final Guidance, April 1989.
- EPA, Office of Solid Waste, Waste Management Division, 1992; Statistical Analysis of Ground-Water Monitoring Data at RCRA Facilities, Draft Addendum to Interim Final Guidance, July 1992.

Subsequent to the completion of background monitoring, a plan outlining the statistical approach to be applied to background and detection monitoring data will be submitted to the TNRCC. The statistical plan will compliment the GWSAP, utilize site specific analytical data, and present a more detailed approach than described herein.

14.1 Statistical Comparisons

As discussed in RG-74, three types of statistical comparisons are possible at a site with more than one monitoring well for background and detection monitoring: (1) the current data for a well may be compared to the historical data for that same well (intrawell comparison); (2) one downgradient well may be compared to one or a group of upgradient wells (interwell comparison); and (3) a variation of the second type, a group of downgradient wells may be compared to a group of upgradient wells. In the event that a SSC is detected and assessment monitoring conducted, a fourth type of statistical comparison may be employed involving the comparison of well data to a constant limit such as a maximum concentration limit (MCL).

As discussed in RG-74, a serious difficulty associated with the comparison of downgradient water quality with upgradient water quality is the underlying assumption that the two sets of data are from water that has everywhere had an identical history. This assumption would imply that the upgradient and downgradient water would have the same infiltration time, period of contact with water-bearing sediments, chemical reactions with passing constituents, and no other significant differences from one part of the water-bearing zone to another. Although such assumptions are often necessary to make comparisons, they are generally not realistic with regard to natural ground water systems.

Therefore, based upon recommendations set forth in RG-74 and the above-referenced ASTM publication D 6312-98, intrawell comparisons, involving the comparison of current data from a well with historical data from the same well, may be better suited to the treatment of data generated at the subject landfill. Intrawell comparisons are generally preferable to their interwell counterparts because they completely eliminate the spatial component of variability in samples. Due to the absence of spatial variability, the uncertainty associated with measured concentrations is decreased, making intrawell comparisons more sensitive to real releases (that is, false statistical negatives), and false positives. For sites where the hydraulic gradient is indefinite, the intrawell comparison is probably the most useful treatment of ground water sampling data. As per the above discussion, it is anticipated that intrawell comparisons will be applied to sampling data generated at the subject landfill following the completion of eight background monitoring events.

Flow charts can be valuable tools, aiding in the selection of appropriate statistical methods. As set forth in RG-74, it is recommended that a flow chart depicting methods likely to be used along with decision points or basis for making selections be included in the GWSAP. It is anticipated that this format will allow for future flexibility contingent upon analytical data and minimize potential future changes to this plan. A generalized flow chart depicting the conceptual development of the statistical detection monitoring plan for the subject landfill is provided as Figure II.2 of this plan. Information provided in the referenced figure was adapted from the example provided in ASTM publication D 6312-98.

Detailed descriptions of the selected statistical comparison method(s), decision points, and specific statistical treatments presented in the attached flow chart will be provided to the TNRCC in a statistical plan subsequent to the completion of background monitoring. Descriptions of specific methods presented in the statistical plan will include appropriate information pertaining to normality of data, statistical intervals, and the handling on non-detects. A description of graphical methods to be applied to monitoring data will additionally be discussed in the statistical plan.

14.2 Independent Samples

Statistical methods generally used in ground water monitoring require that data be statistically independent for the results to be strictly valid. The sampling frequency must be established such that sufficient elapsed time occurs between monitoring events ensuring that consecutive samples are not taken from the "same" water. In general, the more permeable the water-bearing zone and the steeper the hydraulic gradient, the less time is necessary between monitoring events to facilitate the collection of statistically independent samples.

As discussed briefly in Section 8.0 of this plan, it is anticipated that background monitoring events will be conducted quarterly for a duration of two years in order to construct a background database consisting of eight statistically independent samples per well. In order to confirm the adequacy of a quarterly monitoring program, site-specific lithologic and depth-to-water information including measurements/estimations of effective porosity, ground water gradient, and hydraulic conductivity will be used to calculate the horizontal ground water flow velocity according to the procedure described in RG-74. Given the diameter of site monitoring wells, it will be possible to determine whether flow velocities are such that water within the well casing will completely change within the three-month duration between monitoring events.

In the event that the site-specific determination of ground water flow velocity indicates that an alternate monitoring frequency is warranted (i.e. semi-annual as opposed to quarterly), a revised frequency will be proposed to the TNRCC for remaining background and detection monitoring events as a permit modification request.

14.3 Seasonal Variation

Seasonal variation of ground water chemistry is well known in the state of Texas. Determination of seasonal influences requires adequate data, that is, data collected over a full range of seasons, in order to make proper adjustments. Therefore, as described in section 8.0 of this plan, a total of eight background sampling event will be conducted quarterly over a duration of two years in order to obtain data that reflects seasonal variations in ground water chemistry. By incorporating such data into the background monitoring database, it is anticipated that seasonal influences on the statistical treatment of data collected during detection monitoring events can be minimized.

15.0 Reporting and Submittals

As stipulated in RG-74, analytical results for background and detection monitoring events will be submitted to the TNRCC within 45 days of respective events. Monitoring event submittals will consist of a narrative description of site conditions and analytical results, appropriate graphical illustrations and tables, and the completed 4-page Ground-Water Sampling Report (TNRCC-0312) form (see Appendix II.3) or other format designated by the TNRCC. It is anticipated that the text discussion of monitoring results will include the results of statistical analysis of well data pursuant to the approved statistical plan.

The submittal package will additionally contain the signed laboratory report of analysis, appropriate laboratory QA/QC data, and copies of associated chain-of-custody documentation. As described in Section 9.0, if PQL's greater than those presented in Attachment C are reported by the contract laboratory for any of the specified constituents, any quantifiable amount below the PQL will be flagged to indicate that the compound is present but below the PQL. In these instances, documentation regarding the two lowest calibration points and MDL for the flagged compounds will accompany the analytical results. Each submittal package (including the cover letter) will be produced in triplicate, including one original and two copies.

If it is determined that a SSC has occurred from background of any tested constituent, the TNRCC will be notified in writing within 60 days of the sampling event. A description of the statistical data used to make the determination will be provided with the notification in order to facilitate a TNRCC review of data and statistical procedures. In the event that a SSC has occurred and it is believed that the change resulted from a source other than the MSWLF unit, evidence to support this view will be provided. Pending a review of laboratory analytical methods and results, statistical methods and results, and re-sampling of monitoring wells if necessary, information demonstrating the basis for the SSC will be submitted to the TNRCC within 90 days of the notification that a SSC has occurred.

In the event that it is not possible to substantiate the basis of statistical change in monitoring data, an appropriate assessment monitoring program will be initiated within 90 days of the notification of the SSC. As stipulated in RG-74, TNRCC approval of the assessment monitoring program will be obtained prior to implementation.

16.0 Health and Safety

Pursuant to 30 TAC §330.156, a site-specific health and safety plan will be maintained independent of GWSAP due to the potential changes and updates of information such as emergency contacts and telephone numbers. This plan will include a summary of work tasks, site conditions, parties involved, and assigned responsibilities. The plan will describe emergency communications and response procedures with emphasis on the types of potential and existing hazards, exposure routes, MSDS information, escape routes, personal protective equipment, first aid, and routes to the nearest hospital. A general site location map and detailed facility map will be included as part of the health and safety plan.
In summary, the permittee and/or subcontractors performing functions specific to activities associated with, and identified in the GWSAP, will establish and implement, and maintain appropriate health and safety plans.

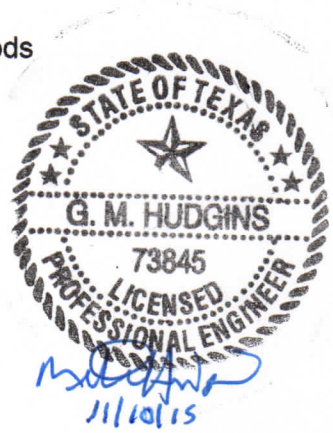
MODERN TECHNOLOGY - MODERN ENVIRONMENT F-10265



1.0 INTRODUCTION

This plan is prepared to meet the requirements in Title 30 of the Texas Administrative Code (TAC), Chapter 330. Subchapter J, Section 405. This section requires that the owners or operators of Municipal Solid Waste Landfills (MSWLFs) prepare and submit a Ground-Water Sampling and Analysis Plan (GWSAP) to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ). The purpose of this document is to satisfy the requirements of the above listed regulations as they pertain to the Hidalgo County, Precinct 4 (HCPCT4) closed landfill (MSW Permit No. 1593-A) and provide groundwater sampling procedures, frequencies, analytical parameters, monitoring data evaluation, and reporting requirements.

In accordance with TCEQ regulations, this GWSAP contains the procedures and techniques to be used to establish Background Groundwater Quality and conduct Detection Monitoring and when necessary, Assessment Monitoring and Corrective Action in accordance with 30 TAC § 330.405 through 415.

1.1 Facility Description

The HCPCT4 closed landfill is located north of the City of Edinburg, approximately 3.1 miles east of U.S. Highway 281 on Davis Road in Hidalgo County, Texas. The closed landfill includes an area of approximately 18 acres. The total permitted property is approximately 29.7 acres.

2.0 HEALTH AND SAFETY

Personnel performing water level measurements, well purging, or sampling, at a minimum, will wear latex or nitrile gloves. The gloves will be changed when they become damaged and when activities begin at a different well location. All personnel that are associated with the purging and sample collections from monitor wells will wear other appropriate PPE such as eye protection, chemical resistant clothing and/or aprons, and air purifying respirators, as necessary.

3.0 GROUNDWATER SAMPLING FREQUENCY

3.1 Background Water Quality Sampling

At least eight (8) statistically independent background groundwater samples will be obtained prior to commencing with Detection Monitoring for each groundwater monitor well at the facility. A minimum of 90 days will be provided between background monitoring events to allow the collection of groundwater data over the different seasons of the year. At least two events will be conducted per year.

3.2 Detection Monitoring Sampling

After establishment of the background groundwater quality, detection monitoring will be performed on a semi-annual basis at approximately 6-month intervals during the remaining operational life and post-closure care period. Detection monitoring will begin 6 months after completion of the background groundwater-quality sampling.

4.0 GROUNDWATER ANALYTICAL PARAMETERS

The sampling parameters for both background groundwater quality and detection monitoring sampling and the analytical methods to be used are included in Appendix A. In accordance with 30 TAC § 330.419 the sampling parameters consists of the constituents listed in Appendix I of 40 CFR Part 258. The monitoring wells will also be sampled for the water quality parameters, including pH, temperature, and conductivity. Water quality parameters will not be included in the statistical analyses.

At the conclusion of the background groundwater-sampling period, all the detection monitoring constituents will be thoroughly reviewed. At the conclusion of this review, the HCPCT4 may request that the Executive Director eliminate subsequent monitoring for those constituents that were consistently below the method detection limits (MDL) throughout this period and are not expected to originate from the MSWLF unit (30 TAC §330.419(b)).

5.0 GROUNDWATER PURGING AND SAMPLING

The following subsections summarize specific tasks involved in the purging and sampling of the groundwater monitoring wells at the facility.

5.1 Well Inspection

Prior to performing any purging or sampling, each monitoring well will be inspected to assess its integrity. The visual inspection will include the well lock, static water level measuring mark, protective steel casing, concrete pad, and monitor well casing for signs of damage by vandalism, animals, heavy equipment, or other causes. The objective of the visual inspection is to confirm that no outside constituents or other conditions exist that may affect the quality of the sampling. All necessary repairs or maintenance that can be accomplished without a TCEQ modification request will be conducted immediately by HCPCT4 and documented on the Field Sampling Data Sheet for that well. If it is determined that the integrity of the well has been, or may have been, compromised the necessary information will be documented and the Executive Director of the TCEQ notified. No additional actions will be taken without the approval of the TCEQ.

The inspection will include monitoring for landfill gas within the upper portion of each well casing. The gas readings will be documented on the Field Data Sheet and/or on the monitoring data sheet used in monitoring of the facility gas probes. The criteria for the maximum gas concentration and actions to be taken if the limiting concentration is exceeded are in cluded in the Landfill Gas Management Plan.

5.2 Equipment Decontamination

All equipment used for water-level measurement, purging, and/or the collection of groundwater samples will be decontaminated prior to use at each well location, unless the equipment is dedicated to a specific well. An appropriate decontamination procedure consists of scrubbing all equipment with a solution of Alconox or equivalent laboratory-grade detergent and deionized, tap, or distilled water, then triple rinsing with deionized or distilled water. Separate containers for each rinsate will be individually set up at each monitor well. At the conclusion of the sampling all the rinsate will be properly disposed with the water generated during purging.

5.3 Water-Level Measurements

Immediately prior to purging a well, the static water level below the top of well casing and the total depth of the well will be measured and recorded in the field logbook. Depth measurements will be to the nearest 0.01 foot (ft). The measurements will generally proceed from the most upgradient to the most downgradient wells. Depth measurements will be taken from the north side, top of the well casing at the "permanent measurement mark" each time a measurement is taken. All measurements will be taken within a 48 hour period to minimize potential temporal variations. Prior to use, the functionality of the water level depth probe will be checked by dipping the probe into deionized or distilled water to see if the alarm sounds at the appropriate time. The depth measurement probe will be decontaminated prior to use in each well. A visual check of the probe's condition and the condition of the tape and handle will be made when the measurements are being taken. Notation will be made of any minor damage or irregularities on the water level measurement device. If the tape appears to be elongated, kinked, or twisted, then the tape will be checked against a functional tape to determine if there are any discrepancies in the measurements. If the tape is determined to be non-functional due to elongation and/or damage, it will be replaced.

Using the surveyed elevation of the Top of Casing (referenced to mean sea level (msl)), depth to water measurements can be converted to water-level elevations by subtracting the depth to static water from Top of Casing (TOC) elevation.

Water-Level Elevation (ft msl) = TOC (ft msl) - Depth to Static Water (ft)

5.4 Instrumentation Calibration

Prior to use, portable field measurement instrumentation used or measuring conductivity and pH will be accurately calibrated on-site according to manufacturer's specifications. The probes will first be decontaminated to remove foreign material that may have accumulated on their components since their previous use. As recommended by the manufacturer, the probe's accuracy should first be verified and adjusted accordingly. Typically, conductivity probes are factory calibrated, but the accuracy should be confirmed in the field with a solution of known conductance, preferably in the range anticipated in the samples. The pH meter will first be standardized in the field by placing its probe in a neutral reference buffer solution (pH=7), adjusting as necessary, and then rinsed with deionized water. The probe will then be placed in a pH reference buffer solution of either 4 or 10, depending on the pH range anticipated in the samples to be collected, and adjusted accordingly.

Prior to each sampling event, the water depth indicator probe shall be inspected for any damage and for proper operation. In addition, it should be periodically verified for accuracy by a comparison to a calibrated tape.

5.5 Field Sampling Data Sheets and Groundwater Sampling Field Report

A summary of all field activities including date, project name, weather conditions, sampling personnel, purpose of sampling, and site observations will be recorded on the Field Data Sheet. Information from this form will facilitate completion of the Groundwater Sampling Report. All forms can be found in Appendix B.

5.6 Purging/Bailing

Personnel performing water level measurements, well purging, or sampling will wear latex or nitrile gloves. The gloves will be changed when they become damaged and when activities begin at a different well location.

The following procedures will be followed for purging or bailing each monitor well prior to sampling:

- Prior to purging the wells, the volume of water in the well casing will be calculated based on the static water level, well casing diameter, and total depth measurements.

- The area around the well will be set-up to provide an area that will minimize potential contamination from the surroundings. If sampling equipment is to be set down, it should be placed on polyethylene sheeting to prevent contamination.

- The monitor well will be purged of a minimum of three well casing volumes of water using a manual hand bailer; electric or air-operated pump; or disposable or dedicated PVC bailer. The purging will continue until the field parameters of temperature, pH, and specific conductivity of the water have stabilized or the well is pumped dry. The field parameters of temperature, pH, and specific conductivity will be considered stable when three consecutive field measurements, taken at least 3-5 minutes apart, are within 10% of each reading. When using a pump to purge the well, the pump intake should be located below, but near the static groundwater depth to allow for the collection of all potential types of contaminates that may exist in the groundwater. Non-dedicated pumps (if used) will be completely decontaminated before using it in another well.

• Purged effluent will be stored, transported, and disposed of appropriately. The purged water removed from each well will be containerized until the results of the analysis are known. If analytical results indicate contaminants are below the Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) for constituents that have an MCL and below detection limits for constituents without MCL's, then the water may be discharged into the site's storm water management system. If levels of contamination are above the MCL's or detection limits, the water will be managed as leachate and handled in accordance with the facility's leachate management plan.

If required, due to a hazardous classification, the water will be transported and disposed of at a permitted hazardous waste facility.

• Extremely slow recharging wells will be purged dry. The total amount of purged water will be measured and recorded.

The following purging information for each well be noted and recorded on the sampling field logbook:

1. Well number;
2. Well casing diameter;
3. Current outside temperature and weather conditions;
4. Well inspection information;

5. Date and time;

6. Static water level and total depth of well;

7. Height of water column and well casing volume;

8. Purging discharge rate, well purging time, volume of water purged; and

9. In situ water quality measurements (temperature, pH, and specific conductivity);

5.7 Groundwater Static Depth Stabilization

Prior to sample collection, the water surface should be allowed to stabilize, after purging, to within a minimum of ninety percent (90%) of the initial static groundwater depth. This provides for a representative and adequate volume of the aquifer's water to enter the well casing for sampling.

5.8 Well Sampling

Sampling personnel will wear nitrile, latex, or other equivalent non-powdered gloves during sampling to avoid contamination of the samples. Generally, wells should be sampled within 48 hours of purging or when the well has recovered to within 90% of the initial static water level. All sampling will be performed in a manner to minimize the possibility of sample aeration or agitation. Samplinq of wells will proceed from the least contaminated well to the most contaminated well if the degree of contamination is known. If the degree of contamination is unknown, then the sampling will proceed from the most upgradient to the downgradient wells. Precautions for avoidance of dust and exhaust generated by vehicles and sampling equipment should be taken. All sampling equipment and containers will be protected to prevent cross-contamination of the samples.

Sampling may be conducted using dedicated. or disposable PVC, stainless steel, or Teflon bailers. Additionally, electric or air-operated pumps can also be used if the flow rate can be adjusted to less than 100 ml per minute to minimize turbulence and aeration of the sample during the collection of VOCs.

If hand bailers are used to collect the sample then the bailer will be rinsed once with well water prior to sample collection (first bail is discarded into the purged water containers). The bailer will be slowly lowered into the water to minimize turbulence and aeration of the sample. The bailer will then be slowly withdrawn and removed from the well and the sample containers filled from the bottom of the bailer using an appropriate bailer-discharging device. VOC samples will be obtained from a single bailer volume. The bailer will be equipped with a bottom valve apparatus/spigot to minimize turbulence and aeration of the sample.

The following parameter samples are to be collected from each monitor well in the exact order specified:

- VOCs are to be collected in two 40-milliliter (ml) glass vials that utilize Teflon-lined lids (septa), preserved with HCl, and immediately chilled to four degrees Celsius (4°C). The sampling personnel will minimize the introduction of air bubbles by allowing the water to flow down the inside of the container until a positive meniscus forms. If an air bubble exists after closing the lid, do not attempt to remove it, but collect another sample. For the collection of the VOCs, the pump flow rate will be adjusted to less than 100 ml per minute.

- Metals are to be collected in a high density polyethylene (HDPE) or glass container that is preserved with nitric acid (HNO_3) to a pH < 2, and immediately chilled to four degrees Celsius (4°C).

- Other constituents are to be collected in polyethylene or glass containers, and immediately chilled to four degrees Celsius (4°C) as specified in Appendix A, which details preservation, container type, and holding time requirements.

As each sample container is filled, the sampling time will be recorded on the sampling field log and the container will be labeled with the following information:

- Facility name and/or owner (i.e., HCPCT4);
- Monitoring well name and\or number (i.e., MW-1);

- Sample date and time;
- Preservatives utilized;
- Sampler's signature or initials.

5.9 Low-flow Purging and Sampling

As an alternative to the purging and sampling procedures described in Sections 5.6, 5.7, and 5.8, low-flow purging and sampling methods may be employed. The facility has an approved low-flow demonstration. In the event the facility elects to use low-flow purging and sampling techniques, all procedures and recommendations involved in the approved low-flow demonstration will be followed for sample purging and collection.

5.10 Field Sampling QA/QC

After purging the monitoring wells, samples shall be collected to document that sample collection and handling procedures have not affected the quality of the groundwater samples, QA/QC samples shall be prepared and analyzed as detailed below:

- Equipment Blank: Following decontamination of all non-dedicated or disposable sampling equipment, and prior to sample collection, reagent-grade water will be run over the sampling equipment and the rinsate collected in a clean container labeled as an Equipment Blank. A minimum of one equipment blank will be collected each day. This sample will be analyzed for all detection monitoring constituents, to measure the effectiveness of the decontamination procedure in removing contaminants from one sample collection point to another.

- Field Blank: A field blank will be prepared in the field by pouring reagent-grade water into empty sample containers. This procedure shall be conducted on the downwind side of the facility or in another appropriate location that is the most representative of site sampling conditions. A minimum of one field blank will be collected per day. The sample will be analyzed for VOCs only and will verify field sampling procedures and check for the presence of airborne contaminants that may be present at the well site.

- Trip Blank: A minimum of one Trip Blank per sampling event and/or number of coolers containing VOC samples (whichever is greater) will be prepared by the laboratory with reagent-grade water, and shall accompany the VOC sample container coolers during site activities, but never opened. This blank will be analyzed for VOCs only to determine if any of the samples and/or containers have become contaminated before, during, or subsequent to the sampling event prior to laboratory analysis.

- Field Duplicates: One (1) Field Duplicate will be collected per day. The duplicate samples are prepared by collecting two samples from the same monitor well during the same sample collection period. One of the samples will be labeled only as "duplicate" so that the laboratory is unaware of the relationship between the two samples. The field personnel will note which well was duplicated on their field forms. The duplicate will be analyzed for all detection monitoring constituents. The purpose of these samples is to check the reliability (precision and accuracy) of the laboratory's techniques.

5.11 Sample Preservation and Holding Times

The proper container, preservation technique, and maximum holding times shall be in accordance with the requirements identified in the U.S. EPA Publication No., SW-846 (Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste, Physical/Chemical Methods). This information is provided in Appendix A. Preservation of samples may be conducted in the field immediately after the container is filled or the sample container can be pre-preserved by the laboratory in advance of the sampling event based on the specific testing required. The only exception will be for the analyses of volatile organic compounds, in which case the sample containers will always be pre-preserved by the laboratory.

6.0 SAMPLE CHAIN-OF-CUSTODY

The primary objective of the chain-of-custody is to create an accurate written verified record that can be used to trace the possession and handling of the samples from the moment of collection until receipt by the laboratory. Adequate sample custody will be achieved by proper completion of a Chain-of-Custody (COC) Form. Each party handling the samples will sign the COC and provide the date and.time when the samples were relinquished or received. A sample of the type of COC that will be used with each sampling event is included in Appendix B.

The COC form includes:

1. The unique sample number as obtained from the sample label;
2. Source of the sample;
3. Date and time of sample collection;
4. Name of person taking samples;
5. Analysis name and analytical method requested (or reference to list) ;
6. Signature of persons involved in the chain-of-custody; and
7. Inclusive dates of possession.

7.0 SAMPLE SHIPMENT AND HANDLING PROCEDURES

Subsequent to field activities, all samples collected shall be preserved as appropriate, and immediately transported to the laboratory within the required holding times, dictated by the specific analytical methods. To maintain sample integrity, the samples shall be kept in appropriate portable coolers that have a constant interior temperature of 4°C, protect samples from sunliqht, and minimize the risk of sample container breakage. Under no circumstances shall dry ice be used as the chilling agent for sample preservation; dry ice has the potential to freeze samples, which can result in container breakage (i.e., glass containers may shatter). Custody seals will be placed on the coolers and will not be broken until the samples arrive in the analytical laboratory and are checked in by the laboratory personnel.

If samples are shipped by common carrier, the COC form will be completed with the signature of the relinquisher and the date and time relinquished. The COC is then placed in a sealable plastic storage bag and placed in the sample cooler. At the time and place of receipt of the samples, the receiving party will attach a copy of the bill of lading to the COC document.

8.0 LABORATORY REQUIREMENTS

The analysis of groundwater samples, along with the reports, evaluations, reviews, and checklists required of the laboratory will be completed by an environmental testing laboratory that is accredited by TCEQ. All work will be conducted in accordance with the standards of the National Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Conference (NELAC) or other standards acceptable to TCEQ.

8.1 Laboratory Precision and Accuracy

The precision and accuracy targets shown below have been established by TCEQ through published guidance and may be changed through revised guidance.

The practical quantitation limit (PQL) is defined in §330.405(f)(5) as the lowest concentration level that can be reliably achieved within specified limits of precision and accuracy during routine laboratory operating conditions and is analogous to:

- the limit of quantitation (LOQ) definition in the 2003 NELAC Standard (National Environmental Laboratory Accreditation Conference),
- the detectability check sample (DCS), as defined in the TRRP guidance Review and Reporting of COC Concentration Data (RG366/TRRP-13).

PQL "check sample" measurements will be acquired with a "performance approach" as defined by the USEPA, at the lower limit of quantitation-whose levels are the lowest expected results for the smallest detectable concentrations, greater than the detection limit, where the required sensitivity (precision and accuracy) is achieved. The method and source used by the MSW owner/operator to assess the lowest expected result must be provided.

Sensitivity measurements of the PQL check sample shall be estimated from eight (8) method and analyte specific data points whose calculated precision and accuracy meet the specified limits of the table below. At a minimum, PQL check sample analyses will continue to be conducted quarterly in order to demonstrate that the PQL estimate continues to meet the precision and accuracy data quality objectives defined in the table below.

Some analytes (poor performers) specified in 40 CFR (Code of Federal Regulations) Part 258 Appendix I and II will not meet the specified limits for precision and accuracy. In those instances, the MSW facility owner/operator shall submit sufficient information to establish alternate precision and accuracy limits to be evaluated on a case by case basis.

QC Specification Limits for PQL Check Samples at Lower Limit of Quantitation

Chemical of Concern	Precision (% RSD)	Accuracy (% Recovery)
Metals	10	70-130
Volatiles	20	50-150
Semi-Volatiles	30	50-150

Note: Non-detected results will be reported as less than the PQL (lower limit of detection) that meets these precision and accuracy requirements.

8.2 Data Examination and Laboratory Case Narrative

All analytical data submitted under the requirements of this permit will be examined by the owner or operator to ensure that the data quality objectives are considered and met prior to submitting the data to the TCEQ for review. The owner or operator will determine if the results representing the sample are accurate and complete. The quality control results, supporting data, and the results of the laboratory's review of the data must be included in the owner/operator's review of the data. Any potential impacts will be reported such as the bias on the quality of the data, footnotes in the report, and anything of concern that was identified in the laboratory case narrative summary.

The owner or operator will ensure that the laboratory documents and reports all problems and observed anomalies associated with the analysis. If analysis of the data indicates that the data fails to meet the quality control goals for the laboratory's analytical data analysis program, the owner or operator will determine if the data is usable. If the owner and/or operator determines the analytical data may be utilized, any and all problems and corrective action that the laboratory identified during the analysis will be included in the report submitted to the TCEQ.
A Laboratory Case Narrative (LCN) report for all problems and anomalies observed must be submitted by the owner or operator. The LCN will report the following information:

1. The exact number of samples, testing parameters, and sample matrix.

2. The name of the laboratory involved in the analysis. If more than one laboratory is used, all laboratories shall be identified in the case narrative.

3. The test objective regarding samples.

4. Explanation of each failed precision and accuracy measurement determined to be outside of the laboratory and/or method control limits

5. Explanation if the effect of the failed precision and accuracy measurements on the results induces a positive or negative bias.

6. Identification and explanation of problems associated with the sample results, along with the limitations these problems have on data usability.

7. A statement on the estimated uncertainty of reported results when appropriate and/or when requested.

8. A statement of compliance and/or noncompliance with the requirements and specifications. Exceedance of holding times and identification of matrix interferences must be identified. Dilutions shall be identified and if dilutions are necessary, they must be done to the smallest dilution necessary to minimize matrix interferences and bring the sample into control for analysis.

9. Identification of any and all applicable quality assurance and quality control samples that will require special attention by the reviewer.

10. A statement on the quality control of the analytical method and information on the analytical recoveries shall be provided when appropriate and/or when requested.

In addition to the LCN, the following information must be submitted for all analytical data:

1. A table associating the field sample name with the sample identification in the laboratory report if the association is not made in the report.

2. Chain of custody.

3. An analytical report that documents the results and methods for each sample and analyte for each analytical testing event. These test reports must document the reporting limit and method detection limit the laboratory used.

4. A release statement from the laboratory. This statement must state “I am responsible for the release of this laboratory data package. This data package has been reviewed by the laboratory and is complete and technically compliant with the requirements of the methods used, except where noted by the laboratory in the attached exception reports. By my signature below, I affirm to the best of my knowledge, all problems/anomalies, observed by the laboratory as having the potential to affect the quality of the data, have been identified by the laboratory in the Laboratory Review Checklist, and no information or data have been knowingly withheld that would affect the quality of the data."

a. If an in-house laboratory is used, the following statement must also be included: "This laboratory is an in-house laboratory controlled by the person responding to rule. The official signing the cover page of the rule-required report in which these data are used is responsible for releasing this data package and is by signature affirming the above release statement is true."

5. If the data are from soil and/or sediment samples, they must be reported on a dry weight basis with the percent solids and the percent moisture reported so that back calculations of the wet analysis may be performed.

6. A laboratory checklist. For every response of "No" or "NR" that is reported on the checklist, the permittee will ensure the laboratory provides a detailed description of the reason for each in an "Exception Report." The permittee will require that the laboratory use the checklist. The laboratory will use the current versions of the Laboratory Package Cover Page and Data Review Checklist, including the Exception Report. The permittee will evaluate the data and write a narrative of the problems identified by the laboratory in the checklist.

9.0 DATA EVALUATION

9.1 Background Data Statistical Evaluation

Background groundwater quality for all monitoring wells in the groundwater monitoring system will be determined in accordance with 30 TAC §330.405 (e) & (f). The goal of the statistical evaluation is to identify evidence of a Statistical Significant Increase (SSI) in constituents listed in Appendix A as required by30 TAC §330. 419. Eight (8) background groundwater samples will be collected from each monitoring well in the groundwater monitoring system. Background data sets may be updated once ever two years with semiannual detection monitoring results that are demonstrated to be representative of background groundwater quality.

Intrawell statistical "upper prediction limits" for inorganic constituents listed in 30 TAC §330. 419 in each monitoring well in the groundwater monitoring system will be established utilizing Sanitas™ statistical software. Non-filtered background analytical results will be utilized to establish the upper prediction limits. Future semiannual detection monitoring results will be compared with the upper prediction limits (inorganics) or reporting limits (organics) to determine if a SSI has occurred.
Non-statistical analysis will be used for evaluation of the VOC's identified in Appendix A for each monitoring well in the Detection Monitoring program. Any VOC detected above the reporting limit will be considered an SSI.

9.2 Detection Monitoring Data Evaluation

Upon receiving the groundwater sampling data from the laboratory, it shall be organized in a format that it can be clearly understood and analyzed. For each sampling event, HCPCT4 will make a selection of at least one or more of the following data presentation formats:

• Tables: provide an overall summary of the data in a neat, clearly understood format that allows straightforward analysis and comparison to other data points and standards;

• Contour Maps: placement of contaminant concentrations in contours on a map assist in conveying a clearer picture of contamination distribution. Contaminant distribution and associated concentrations will dictate whether this format can be easily utilized;

• Time Series Displays (X and Y Line Graphs): assist in the display of single or multiple contaminant concentration variations over time for a single data point or for multiple point comparison; and/or • Histograms (X and Y Bar Graphs): allows comparisons of the magnitudes of single or multiple data point contaminant concentrations.

The data will be evaluated not later than 60 days after each monitoring event to determine whether the landfill has released contaminants to the uppermost aquifer. The evaluation will consist of a determination of whether a Statistically Significant Increase (SSI) has occurred as described in Section 9.3 below. If the facility is found to be contaminating the uppermost aquifer, the TCEQ may order corrective action appropriate to protect human health and the environment up to and including that in §§330.411, 330.413, and 330.415 relating to Assessment of Corrective Measures; Selection of Remedy; and Implementation of the Corrective Action Program.

9.3 Determination of Statistically Significant Increase

A determination will be made as to whether an SSI has occurred in the concentration of any constituents listed in 30 TAC §330. 419 within 60 days of each groundwater sampling event. If an SSI is observed, HCPCT4 will notify the Executive Director, in writing, within 14 days of the SSI determination (30 TAC §330. 407(b)) and the following actions will be initiated:

1. HCPCT4 shall immediately place a notice in the operating record describing the increase and shall establish an assessment monitoring program meeting the requirements of §330. 409 within 90 days of the date of the notice to the TCEQ, except as provided in (2) and (3) below.

2. HCPCT4 shall submit results of re-sampling as appropriate for the statistical method within 60 days of the apparent SSI determination. The re-sample data may be used to statistically confirm of disprove the SSI determination.

3. If there is reasonable cause to think that a source for the SSI is a result of error in sampling, analysis, statistical evaluation, or natural variation in the groundwater quality, HCPCT4 will submit an alternate source demonstration report (ASD), prepared and certified by a qualified groundwater scientist or engineer and submitted to the Executive Director for review and approval (30 TAC §330 407(b)(3). HCPCT4 will:

- Notify the TCEQ within 14 days of the SSI determination that HCPCT4 intends to submit an ASD.

- Submit the ASD to the TCEQ within 90 days of the SSI determination.

- Groundwater samples for constituents addressed by the ASD will not be filtered prior to laboratory analysis.

- Continue detection monitoring .

The landfill will return to detection monitoring if the TCEQ approves the ASD.

9.4 Assessment Monitoring Trigger

Assessment monitoring will be triggered if a SSI has occurred in the concentration of any constituents listed in 30 TAC §330. 419 and re-sampling results confirm the SSI or if the ASD is not satisfactory. See the requirements for assessment monitoring in Section 11.0 below.

10.0 ANNUAL DETECTION MONITORING REPORT

Annual detection monitoring reports will be submitted within 90 days after the last groundwater sampling event in a calendar year. The report will include an introductory letter that briefly describes the event and highlights any anomalies, on-going issues from previous events, a statement regarding whether a SSI has occurred in any well and the status of the SSI, any recommended changes to the monitoring or reporting program, and a narrative of any problems identified by the laboratory. The report will include the following information:

11.0 ASSESSMENT MONITORING

If during Detection Monitoring an SSI has been detected and no cause can be determined other than a release from the MSWLF unit, then assessment monitoring program in accordance 30 TAC §330. 409, shall be initiated within 90 days after verifying the SSI. Assessment monitoring shall be initiated at the well(s) exhibiting the SSI and at the intermediately adjacent wells on each side of the well(s) exhibiting the SSI, unless an alternative subset of wells is designated by the Executive Director. The frequency of sampling and the testing parameters will be those stated in 30 TAC §330.409.

12.0 CORRECTIVE MEASURES

As required in 30 TAC § 330.409 (g), corrective measures will be implemented as necessary based on the results of assessment monitoring and groundwater protection standards. Assessment of corrective measures will be implemented in accordance with 30 TAC §330.411. The owner or operator will submit a report describing the remedy or remedies purposed for selection in accordance with 30 TAC § 330.413. The report will include a schedule for initiating and completing the remedial activities. The schedule shall require the initiation of remedial activities within a reasonable time approved by the executive director. Implementation of the Corrective Action Program will be conducted in accordance with 30 TAC § 330.415.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE:

1. Term of the contract is for one (1) year period with County's option to extend the contract for an additional two (2) one (1) year under the same rates terms and conditions. Hidalgo County reserves the right to continue this bid for an additional sixty (60) day Grace Period at the end of the contract term for unforeseen delays in award of new bid for next contract term.

2. Any contract awarded to a successful bidder will be in effect until;
   (A) the contract expires,
   (B) delivery and acceptance of products and/or performance of services ordered, or
   (C) terminated by County with thirty days written notice prior to cancellation.

3. Hidalgo County reserves the right to add or delete locations or departments during the term of the contract under the same rates and conditions.

4. Hidalgo County reserves the right to award the bid to a sole bidder or to MULTIPLE bidders if the County determines it is in its best interest to do so.

5. Hidalgo County shall award the bid on a LUMP SUM BASIS to ONE VENDOR AND/OR ITEM BY ITEM BASIS whichever is in the best interest of the County.

6. Vendor must have been in business for at least two years.

7. Hidalgo County reserves the right to reject any/all bids, to waive any/all formalities or technicalities, or to accept the bid considered the best and most advantage to the County.

ESCALATION CLAUSE:

MARKET VOLATILITY AND UNIT PRICE ADJUSTMENTS:

Hidalgo County recognizes that during periods of national crisis and unstable economic conditions, unforeseen price increases might affect costs for goods and services contracted on an annual basis. The following procedure may be employed to mediate price volatility:

1) Requesting Price Adjustment: Upon written request of the Vendor to the County Purchasing Agent, the County may review evidence of prevailing industry-wide market conditions that warrant an adjustment in bid prices contained in the contract.

   - A Vendor must tie any price change clause to an industry-wide or otherwise nationally recognized index, or some other form of verifiable document. Such written request must be accompanied by a certified copy of the supplier's advisory or notification to the vendor of the price changes.

- The Vendor must put the Purchasing Agent on the mailing lists for such publications so that the Purchasing Agent can monitor said changes. Such membership shall be at no cost to the County.
- The County Purchasing Agent retains the right to determine whether or not such proposed price changes are in the best interest of the County.
- No price escalation will be authorized in excess of the amount of the increase referred to in the supplier's notice.
- The County may only grant a price increase if the evidence presented is deemed reliable. Should the County allow a price increase, the approved price change shall be honored for all orders received by the vendor or contractor after the effective date of such price change. Approved price changes are not applicable to orders already issued and in process at time of price change.

2) Price Reduction: Vendor shall notify the County at the time when the Vendor's costs for items and/or supplies reduce due to stabilization in the market at which time prices for items on this contract shall be reduced accordingly. Failure by the Vendor to notify the County of a decrease in costs for items and/or supplies for which the Vendor was granted a price adjustment, may result in immediate termination of this contract and the County shall not be obligated to pay the Vendor the difference between the contract price and the price adjustment.

3) Timeframe for Adjusted Price Increases: Price increases are only valid for the quarter in which they are requested and approved. Prices shall return to the original contract price at the beginning of the following quarter unless a Vendor notifies the County in writing within ten (10) days of expiration of the quarter in which the price increase is in effect, that it desires to have the price increase continue or that the Vendor is requesting a different price increase for the following quarter. Such request must be supplemented with sufficient justification to demonstrate that the price increase remains necessary. The County Purchasing Department shall have sole discretion whether to grant the price increase extension. The County too, shall have discretion to unilaterally reduce, eliminate or extend a price adjustment to the Vendor at any time upon written notice from the County to the Vendor demonstrating justification for such reduction, elimination or extension of the price adjustment.

4) Allowable Review Periods: Price adjustment reviews may only be requested by the Vendor on a quarterly basis. However, the County may at its own discretion, conduct temporary price adjustment reviews at any time. The County Purchasing Agent and/or the County Auditor reserve the right to audit and/or examine any pertinent books, documents, papers, records or invoices relating directly to the contract transaction in question after reasonable notice and during normal business hours.

Dollar Limit to Price Changes: The total increase in contract price shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the original contract price during the contract term.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Hidalgo County is also requesting that any and all questions, inquiries and clarifications regarding quotes, bids, proposals or statement of qualifications be addressed to Martha L. Salazar, Purchasing Agent, Attn: Sandra Montalvo at 2812 S. Business Hwy. 281 (New Administration Bldg), Edinburg, Texas 78539. TELEPHONE INQUIRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

ALL WRITTEN INQUIRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED VIA FACSIMILE OR EMAIL: yolanda.velasquez@co.hidalgo.tx.us BY NO LATER THAN, Wednesday, October 02, 2013 by 5:00 p.m. Responses to said inquiries will be sent to all applicants via facsimile by no later than Friday, October 04, 2013 by 5:00 p.m.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE:

1. Term of the contract is for one (1) year period with County's option to extend the contract for an additional two (2) one (1) year under the same rates terms and conditions. Hidalgo County reserves the right to continue this bid for an additional sixty (60) day Grace Period at the end of the contract term for unforeseen delays in award of new bid for next contract term.

2. Any contract awarded to a successful bidder will be in effect until;
   (A) the contract expires,
   (B) delivery and acceptance of products and/or performance of services ordered, or
   (C) terminated by County with thirty days written notice prior to cancellation.

3. Hidalgo County reserves the right to add or delete locations or departments during the term of the contract under the same rates and conditions.

4. Hidalgo County reserves the right to award the bid to a sole bidder or to MULTIPLE bidders if the County determines it is in its best interest to do so.

5. Hidalgo County shall award the bid on a LUMP SUM BASIS to ONE VENDOR AND/OR ITEM BY ITEM BASIS whichever is in the best interest of the County.

6. Vendor must have been in business for at least two years.

7. Hidalgo County reserves the right to reject any/all bids, to waive any/all formalities or technicalities, or to accept the bid considered the best and most advantage to the County.

8. Due to the nature of the user departments, vendor(s) shall be located within three-hundred mile radius from COUNTY OF HIDALGO, Texas.

MARKET VOLATILITY AND UNIT PRICE ADJUSTMENTS:

Hidalgo County recognizes that during periods of national crisis and unstable economic conditions, unforeseen price increases might affect costs for goods and services contracted on an annual basis. The following procedure may be employed to mediate price volatility:

1) Requesting Price Adjustment: Upon written request of the Vendor to the County Purchasing Agent, the County may review evidence of prevailing industry-wide market conditions that warrant an adjustment in bid prices contained in the contract.

   - A Vendor must tie any price change clause to an industry-wide or otherwise nationally recognized index, or some other form of verifiable document. Such written request must be accompanied by a certified copy of the supplier's advisory or notification to the vendor of the price changes.

- The Vendor must put the Purchasing Agent on the mailing lists for such publications so that the Purchasing Agent can monitor said changes. Such membership shall be at no cost to the County.
- The County Purchasing Agent retains the right to determine whether or not such proposed price changes are in the best interest of the County.
- No price escalation will be authorized in excess of the amount of the increase referred to in the supplier's notice.
- The County may only grant a price increase if the evidence presented is deemed reliable. Should the County allow a price increase, the approved price change shall be honored for all orders received by the vendor or contractor after the effective date of such price change. Approved price changes are not applicable to orders already issued and in process at time of price change.

2) Price Reduction: Vendor shall notify the County at the time when the Vendor's costs for items and/or supplies reduce due to stabilization in the market at which time prices for items on this contract shall be reduced accordingly. Failure by the Vendor to notify the County of a decrease in costs for items and/or supplies for which the Vendor was granted a price adjustment, may result in immediate termination of this contract and the County shall not be obligated to pay the Vendor the difference between the contract price and the price adjustment.

3) Timeframe for Adjusted Price Increases: Price increases are only valid for the quarter in which they are requested and approved. Prices shall return to the original contract price at the beginning of the following quarter unless a Vendor notifies the County in writing within ten (10) days of expiration of the quarter in which the price increase is in effect, that it desires to have the price increase continue or that the Vendor is requesting a different price increase for the following quarter. Such request must be supplemented with sufficient justification to demonstrate that the price increase remains necessary. The County Purchasing Department shall have sole discretion whether to grant the price increase extension. The County too, shall have discretion to unilaterally reduce, eliminate or extend a price adjustment to the Vendor at any time upon written notice from the County to the Vendor demonstrating justification for such reduction, elimination or extension of the price adjustment.

4) Allowable Review Periods: Price adjustment reviews may only be requested by the Vendor on a quarterly basis. However, the County may at its own discretion, conduct temporary price adjustment reviews at any time. The County Purchasing Agent and/or the County Auditor reserve the right to audit and/or examine any pertinent books, documents, papers, records or invoices relating directly to the contract transaction in question after reasonable notice and during normal business hours.

Dollar Limit to Price Changes: The total increase in contract price shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the original contract price during the contract term.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Hidalgo County is also requesting that any and all questions, inquiries and clarifications regarding quotes, bids, proposals or statement of qualifications be addressed to Martha L. Salazar, Purchasing Agent, Attn: Sandra Montalvo at 2812 S. Business Hwy. 281 (New Administration Bldg), Edinburg, Texas 78539. TELEPHONE INQUIRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

ALL WRITTEN INQUIRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED VIA FACSIMILE OR EMAIL: yolanda.velasquez@co.hidalgo.tx.us BY NO LATER THAN, Wednesday, October 02, 2013 by 5:00 p.m. Responses to said inquiries will be sent to all applicants via facsimile by no later than Friday, October 04, 2013 by 5:00 p.m.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

ESCALATION CLAUSE:

MARKET VOLATILITY AND UNIT PRICE ADJUSTMENTS:

Hidalgo County recognizes that during periods of national crisis and unstable economic conditions, unforeseen price increases might affect costs for goods and services contracted on an annual basis. The following procedure may be employed to mediate price volatility:

1) Requesting Price Adjustment: Upon written request of the Vendor to the County Purchasing Agent, the County may review evidence of prevailing industry-wide market conditions that warrant an adjustment in bid prices contained in the contract.

   - A Vendor must tie any price change clause to an industry-wide or otherwise nationally recognized index, or some other form of verifiable document. Such written request must be accompanied by a certified copy of the supplier's advisory or notification to the vendor of the price changes.

- The Vendor must put the Purchasing Agent on the mailing lists for such publications so that the Purchasing Agent can monitor said changes. Such membership shall be at no cost to the County.
- The County Purchasing Agent retains the right to determine whether or not such proposed price changes are in the best interest of the County.
- No price escalation will be authorized in excess of the amount of the increase referred to in the supplier's notice.
- The County may only grant a price increase if the evidence presented is deemed reliable. Should the County allow a price increase, the approved price change shall be honored for all orders received by the vendor or contractor after the effective date of such price change. Approved price changes are not applicable to orders already issued and in process at time of price change.

2) Price Reduction: Vendor shall notify the County at the time when the Vendor's costs for items and/or supplies reduce due to stabilization in the market at which time prices for items on this contract shall be reduced accordingly. Failure by the Vendor to notify the County of a decrease in costs for items and/or supplies for which the Vendor was granted a price adjustment, may result in immediate termination of this contract and the County shall not be obligated to pay the Vendor the difference between the contract price and the price adjustment.

3) Timeframe for Adjusted Price Increases: Price increases are only valid for the quarter in which they are requested and approved. Prices shall return to the original contract price at the beginning of the following quarter unless a Vendor notifies the County in writing within ten (10) days of expiration of the quarter in which the price increase is in effect, that it desires to have the price increase continue or that the Vendor is requesting a different price increase for the following quarter. Such request must be supplemented with sufficient justification to demonstrate that the price increase remains necessary. The County Purchasing Department shall have sole discretion whether to grant the price increase extension. The program strongly encourages Prime Contractors to provide subcontracting opportunities to Certified Hub Contractors/Vendors. Our goal for HUB contractor/vendor participation, as well as HUB subcontractor participation is 30%. However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Hidalgo County reserves the right to continue this bid for an additional sixty (60) day Grace Period at the end of the contract term for unforeseen delays in award of new bid for next contract term.

2. Any contract awarded to a successful bidder will be in effect until;
   (A) the contract expires,
   (B) delivery and acceptance of products and/or performance of services ordered, or
   (C) terminated by County with thirty days written notice prior to cancellation.

3. Hidalgo County reserves the right to add or delete locations or departments during the term of the contract under the same rates and conditions.

4. Hidalgo County reserves the right to award the bid to a sole bidder or to MULTIPLE bidders if the County determines it is in its best interest to do so.

5. Hidalgo County shall award the bid on a LUMP SUM BASIS to ONE VENDOR AND/OR ITEM BY ITEM BASIS whichever is in the best interest of the County.

6. Vendor must have been in business for at least two years.

7. Hidalgo County reserves the right to reject any/all bids, to waive any/all formalities or technicalities, or to accept the bid considered the best and most advantage to the County.

ESCALATION CLAUSE:

MARKET VOLATILITY AND UNIT PRICE ADJUSTMENTS:

Hidalgo County recognizes that during periods of national crisis and unstable economic conditions, unforeseen price increases might affect costs for goods and services contracted on an annual basis. The following procedure may be employed to mediate price volatility:

1) Requesting Price Adjustment: Upon written request of the Vendor to the County Purchasing Agent, the County may review evidence of prevailing industry-wide market conditions that warrant an adjustment in bid prices contained in the contract.

   - A Vendor must tie any price change clause to an industry-wide or otherwise nationally recognized index, or some other form of verifiable document. Such written request must be accompanied by a certified copy of the supplier's advisory or notification to the vendor of the price changes.

- The Vendor must put the Purchasing Agent on the mailing lists for such publications so that the Purchasing Agent can monitor said changes. Such membership shall be at no cost to the County.
- The County Purchasing Agent retains the right to determine whether or not such proposed price changes are in the best interest of the County.
- No price escalation will be authorized in excess of the amount of the increase referred to in the supplier's notice.
- The County may only grant a price increase if the evidence presented is deemed reliable. Should the County allow a price increase, the approved price change shall be honored for all orders received by the vendor or contractor after the effective date of such price change. Approved price changes are not applicable to orders already issued and in process at time of price change.

2) Price Reduction: Vendor shall notify the County at the time when the Vendor's costs for items and/or supplies reduce due to stabilization in the market at which time prices for items on this contract shall be reduced accordingly. Failure by the Vendor to notify the County of a decrease in costs for items and/or supplies for which the Vendor was granted a price adjustment, may result in immediate termination of this contract and the County shall not be obligated to pay the Vendor the difference between the contract price and the price adjustment.

3) Timeframe for Adjusted Price Increases: Price increases are only valid for the quarter in which they are requested and approved. Prices shall return to the original contract price at the beginning of the following quarter unless a Vendor notifies the County in writing within ten (10) days of expiration of the quarter in which the price increase is in effect, that it desires to have the price increase continue or that the Vendor is requesting a different price increase for the following quarter. Such request must be supplemented with sufficient justification to demonstrate that the price increase remains necessary. The County Purchasing Department shall have sole discretion whether to grant the price increase extension. The County too, shall have discretion to unilaterally reduce, eliminate or extend a price adjustment to the Vendor at any time upon written notice from the County to the Vendor demonstrating justification for such reduction, elimination or extension of the price adjustment.

4) Allowable Review Periods: Price adjustment reviews may only be requested by the Vendor on a quarterly basis. However, the County may at its own discretion, conduct temporary price adjustment reviews at any time. The County Purchasing Agent and/or the County Auditor reserve the right to audit and/or examine any pertinent books, documents, papers, records or invoices relating directly to the contract transaction in question after reasonable notice and during normal business hours.

Dollar Limit to Price Changes: The total increase in contract price shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the original contract price during the contract term.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Hidalgo County is also requesting that any and all questions, inquiries and clarifications regarding quotes, bids, proposals or statement of qualifications be addressed to Martha L. Salazar, Purchasing Agent, Attn: Sandra Montalvo at 2812 S. Business Hwy. 281 (New Administration Bldg), Edinburg, Texas 78539. TELEPHONE INQUIRIES WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II Instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the Instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information, such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

The Owner assumes no liability or obligation for payment to the Engineer for work performed or costs incurred by the Engineer prior to the date authorized by the Owner for the

In the event that, during any term hereof, the Owner does not appropriate sufficient funds to meet to the obligations of this Agreement, the Owner may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Engineer. The Owner agrees, however, to use reasonable efforts to secure funds necessary for the continued performance of this Agreement. The parties intend this provision to be a continuing right to terminate this Agreement at the expiration of each budget period of the Owner pursuant to the provisions of Tex. Loc. Govt. Should the Owner terminate this Agreement under (5) of the paragraph above, the amount charged during the thirty (30) day notice period shall not exceed the amount charged during the preceding ninety (90) days.

If the termination of this Agreement is due to the failure of the Engineer to fulfill the Engineer's obligations under this Agreement, the Owner may take over the Project and prosecute the work to completion. In such case, the Engineer shall be liable to the Owner for any additional cost occasioned by the Owner.

If the Engineer defaults in the performance of this Agreement or if the Owner terminates this Agreement for fault on the part of the Engineer, the Owner will give consideration to payment of an amount in settlement to include: the actual costs incurred by the Engineer in performing the work to the date of default, the amount of work required which was satisfactorily completed to date of default, the value of the work which is usable to the Owner, the cost to the Owner of employing another consultant and/or firm to complete the work required and the time required to do so, and other factors which affect the value to the Owner of the work performed at the time of default. At the request of the Owner or the Engineer, conferences shall be provided at the Engineer's office, the office of the Owner, or at other locations designated by the Owner. These conferences shall also include evaluation of the Engineer's services and work when requested by the Owner.

All applicable study reports shall be submitted in preliminary form for approval by the Owner before the final report is issued. The Owner's comments regarding the Engineer's preliminary report will be addressed by the Engineer in the final report.

If funds by other agencies or entities are to be used for the development of the project under this Agreement, the Engineer's services and work will be subject to periodic review and approval by other agencies or entities, including those of the city, county, state and/or federal agencies.

Should it be determined that the progress in the production of the Engineer's services and work does not satisfy the requirements of the approved Work Schedule as provided by Exhibit "C", attached hereto, the Owner shall review the approved Work Schedule with the Engineer to determine the corrective action needed by either the Owner or the Engineer.

The Engineer shall promptly advise the Owner in writing of events which have a significant impact upon the progress of the Engineer's services and work and the approved Work Schedule, including:

(2) favorable developments or events which enable meeting the Work Schedule goals sooner than anticipated.

ARTICLE 6. Method of Payment.

6.1 Requests for Payment. Payments to the Engineer for services rendered will be made while work is in progress as executed through a lump sum fee assigned to each work authorization (hereinafter referred to as "Work Authorization") in accordance with Article 7 herein. For each Work Authorization, the Engineer shall prepare and submit to the Owner monthly progress reports in sufficient detail to support the progress of the work and in support of a request for payment (hereinafter referred to as "Request for Payment"). The progress report shall indicate the percent completion of the work accomplished by the Engineer during the billing period and to the date of the Request for Payment. On or before noon of the first Monday of each month during the performance of the services, the Engineer shall submit to the Owner for approval a Request for Payment. Payment of the lump sum fee for each Work Authorization identified in the Request for Payment will be in proportion to the percent completion of the work tasks identified in such Work Authorizations together with a detailed breakdown of the amount and the sum of all prior payments. The Owner shall review each such Request for Payment and may make such exceptions as the Owner reasonably deems necessary or appropriate under the circumstances then existing. About ten (10) working days after the Commissioners Court of the Owner meets approving such payment, the Owner shall make payment to the Engineer in the amount approved as aforesaid subject to Article 6.4 herein and below.

If the Project, or any portion(s) thereof, are deleted or otherwise not constructed, compensation to the Engineer by the Owner for the Project or such portions of the project shall be only the amounts paid the Engineer for actual work performed in accordance with the Work Authorization(s) approved by the Owner.

6.2 Final Payment. After final completion of the work and acceptance thereof by the Owner, the Engineer shall submit a final request for payment ("Final Request for Payment") which shall set forth all amounts due and remaining unpaid to the Engineer and upon approval thereof by the Owner, the Owner shall pay to the Engineer the amount due ("Final Payment") under such Final Request for Payment in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.1 hereof. The Final Payment shall not be made until the Engineer delivers to the Owner an affidavit that so far as the Engineer has knowledge or information any and all amounts due for materials and services over which the Engineer has control have been paid.

6.3 Qualification on Obligations to Pay. Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall not be obligated to make any payment (whether a payment under Article 6.1 hereof or Final Payment) to the Engineer hereunder if any one or more of the following conditions precedent exist:

(1) The Engineer is in default of any of its obligations hereunder or otherwise is in default under this Agreement or under any contract documents related to this Agreement;

(2) Any part of such payment is attributable to the Engineer's services which are not performed in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, such payment shall be made as to the part thereof attributable to the Engineer's services which were performed in accordance with this Agreement.

(3) The Engineer has failed to make payments promptly to consultants or other third parties used in connection with the Project for which the Owner has made payment to the Engineer;

(4) If the Owner, in good faith judgement, determines that the portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid will not be sufficient to complete the Engineer's services in accordance with this Agreement, no additional payments will be due the Engineer hereunder unless and until the Engineer, at its sole cost, performs a sufficient portion of the Engineer's services so that such portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid is determined by the Owner to be sufficient to so complete the Engineer's services.

6.4 No partial payment made hereunder shall be or construed to be final acceptance or approval of that part of the Engineer's services to which such partial payment related or relieves the Engineer of any of its obligations hereunder with respect thereto.

6.5 The Engineer shall promptly pay all bills for labor and material performed and furnished by others in connection with the performance of the Engineer's services.

6.6 Waiver. The making of the Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Owner except those arising from (1) faulty or defective services of the Engineer appearing after completion of the Project. (2) failure of the Engineer's services to comply with the requirements of this Agreement or any contracts or Agreements related to the Project, or (3) terms of any special warranties required by this Agreement or provided at law or in equity. The acceptance of Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Engineer except those previously made in writing and identified by the Engineer as unsettled at the time of the Final Request for Payment.

ARTICLE 7. Work Authorization. After execution of this Agreement, the Engineer shall proceed with the work outlined under Article 2 hereof, only as authorized by the Owner through an agreed Work Authorization document in the form identified in EXHIBIT "E"- *Work Authorization Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement. The Engineer will identify, as approved by the Owner, the needed services for the Project, as required through the course of the development to the Project. The Owner shall authorize the Engineer to perform one or more of the agreed tasks identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto, in the form of individual work authorizations. Upon authorization from the Owner, the Engineer will prepare a Work Authorization document, which will include a description of the work to be performed, including a description of the tasks and milestones, a work schedule, and an estimated cost proposal agreed upon by the Owner and the Engineer. The estimated cost proposal shall set forth in detail the computation of the cost of each work task, at the hourly rates established and identified in EXHIBIT "D", attached hereto. The Work Authorizations shall not waive the Owner's and the Engineer's responsibilities and obligations established in this Agreement.

The estimated cost proposal for each Work Authorization, developed by the Engineer and approved by the Owner shall be used by the Owner to appropriate a purchase order for the Work Authorization. Each executed Work Authorization shall become a part of this Agreement. Upon satisfactory completion of the Work Authorization, the Engineer shall submit the Project's deliverables as specified in the executed Work Authorization to the Owner for review and acceptance.

Work included in a Work Authorization shall not begin until the Owner and the Engineer have signed the Work Authorization. All work must be completed on or before the completion date specified in the Work Authorization, unless extended by written agreement by the Engineer and the Owner. The Engineer shall promptly notify the Owner of any event that will affect completion of the Work Authorization. All Work Authorizations must be executed and completed by both the Engineer and the Owner within the period established for this Agreement as specified in Article 3 hereof.

The final acceptance by the Owner of each Work Authorization for the Project shall serve as evidence of completion, on the part of the Engineer, of all services under this Agreement insofar as they pertain to that portion of work on the Project identified in the applicable work authorization.

ARTICLE 8. Supplemental Agreements. The terms of this Agreement may be amended by supplemental agreement if the Owner determines that (1) there is a need to extend the Termination Date identified in Article 3.1 hereof, (2) there has been a significant change in the scope, complexity or character of the services to be performed by the Engineer, and/or (3) for any other reason agreeable to the Owner and the Engineer. All supplemental agreements will be developed in the form identified in EXHIBIT "F" - *Supplemental Agreement Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement, and incorporated herein by reference as "Supplemental Agreement".

HISTORICALLY UNDERUTILIZED BUSINESS (HUB) DECLARATION

The primary objective of the Hidalgo County HUB Program is to ensure Historically Underutilized Businesses receive a fair and equal opportunity for participation in the County's procurement process. This fact holds true for Services (Professional & Non-Professional), Commodities, and Construction contracts and any subcontracts thereto. The program strongly encourages Prime Contractors to provide subcontracting opportunities to Certified Hub Contractors/Vendors. Our goal for HUB contractor/vendor participation, as well as HUB subcontractor participation is 30%. To be considered as a "Certified HUB Contractor/Vendor" the contractor/vendor must have been certified by, and hold a current and valid certification with any of the three agencies listed below.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

Here you go Mr. Crain, revised to reflect as requested and in addition I removed one of the insurance certificates as it was not reflecting the "scheduled autos" and re-inserted the revised insurance certificate that is now referencing the scheduled autos.

AGREEMENT FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES
C-15-427-12-15

THIS AGREEMENT is made, by and between HIDALGO COUNTY, acting herein by and through the Commissioner's Court, hereinafter called the "Owner", and L&G Consulting Engineers Inc. d/b/a L&G Engineering, Professional Engineers of Mercedes, Texas, hereinafter called the "Engineer".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Owner desires to contract with the Engineer to provide professional engineering services required for the "FM 676 (Mile 5) from SH 107 (Conway) to Taylor Road" project for Hidalgo County Precinct No. 3 hereinafter referred to as the "Project".

WHEREAS, pursuant to Texas Government Code Chapter 2254.002, (the "Texas Professional Services Procurement Act"), the Owner requested proposals from a professional engineer to assist the Owner by providing the Services;

WHEREAS, Owner has selected the Engineer to provide the Services within Hidalgo County Precinct No. 3, in accordance to Exhibit "A-1" Request for Qualifications (RFQ) Procurement Packet.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Owner and the Engineer in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained do mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Employment of Engineer. The Owner agrees to employ the Engineer and the Engineer agrees to perform professional engineering services in connection with the Project as stated in the articles to follow and for having rendered such services, the owner agrees to pay the Engineer compensation as stated in the articles to follow.

ARTICLE 2. Character and Extent of Services. This Agreement will provide for the development of the Project with the following:

2.1 Scope of Work. The Owner will furnish items and provide those services for the development of the Project and fulfillment of this Agreement, as identified in EXHIBIT "A" Services to be Provided by the Owner, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement.

2.2 Engineer's Services. For this Agreement, the professional services to be provided by the Engineer are those services more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto and make a part of this Agreement.

2.3 Schedule of Work. The Engineer shall prepare a schedule of work (hereinafter referred to as "Work Schedule") in accordance with the terms identified in EXHIBIT "C" - Work Schedule, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3. Period of Service. Upon execution of this Agreement, the Engineer shall proceed with the work outlined under Article 2 hereof.

3.1 Termination Date. This agreement is for the earlier of a period of five (5) years, commencing, December 15, 2015, expiring, December 14, 2020 or upon completion of the Scope of the Project (hereinafter referred to as the "Termination Date"), unless extended by written supplemental agreement, as provided in Article 8 hereof, duly executed by the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date, or otherwise terminated as provided in Article 3.4 herein and below. The Owner assumes no liability or obligation for payment to the Engineer for work performed or costs incurred by the Engineer prior to the date authorized by the Owner for the Engineer to begin work, during periods when work is suspended, or subsequent to the Termination Date.

3.2 Extension of the Termination Date. The Engineer shall notify the Owner in writing as soon as possible if it is determined, or reasonably anticipated, that the work under this Agreement cannot be completed before the Termination Date, and the Owner may , at the Owner's sole discretion, extend the Termination Date by written supplemental agreement as provided in Article 8 hereof. The Engineer shall allow adequate time for review and approval by the Owner of the written notice and request by the Engineer to extend the Termination Date.

3.3 Suspension of Work. Should the Owner desire to suspend the work under this Agreement, but not terminate this Agreement, the Owner shall provide thirty (30) calendar days verbal notification to the Engineer, followed by written confirmation from the Owner to the Engineer to that effect. The thirty-day notice may be waived as agreed in writing by both the Owner and the Engineer. The work under this Agreement may be reinstated and resumed in full force and effect within sixty (60) days of receipt of written notice from the Owner to the Engineer. The sixty-day notice may be waived as agreed in writing by both the Owner and the Engineer.

If the Owner suspends the work, the Termination Date as identified above is not affected, and this Agreement will terminate on the date specified, unless extended by written supplemental agreement, as provided in Article 8 hereof, duly executed by the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date.

3.4 Termination of Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated before the stated Termination Date identified in Article 3.1 herein by any of the following conditions:

(1) Commitment of Current Revenues. In the event that, during any term hereof, the Owner does not appropriate sufficient funds to meet to the obligations of this Agreement, the Owner may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Engineer. The Owner agrees, however, to use reasonable efforts to secure funds necessary for the continued performance of this Agreement. The parties intend this provision to be a continuing right to terminate this Agreement at the expiration of each budget period of the Owner pursuant to the provisions of Tex. Loc. Govt. Code Ann. §271.903 (Vernon Supp. 1995).

(2) By mutual agreement and consent, in writing, of both the Engineer and the Owner.

(3) By the Owner, upon failure of the Engineer to fulfill the Engineer's obligations set forth herein in a satisfactory manner as determined by the Owner and in sole opinion of the Owner, after the Owner provides written notice to the Engineer of such failure and the Engineer has not corrected such failure within (30) days of such written notice by the Owner.

(4) By the Engineer, upon failure of the Owner to fulfill the Owner's obligations set forth herein, after the Engineer provides written notice to the Owner of such failure and the Owner has not corrected such failure within thirty (30) days of such written notice by the Engineer.

(5) By the Owner without cause upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Engineer.

(6) By satisfactory completion of all services and obligations described herein.

Should the Owner terminate this Agreement as herein provided, no fees other than fees due and payable at the time of termination shall thereafter be paid to the Engineer notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary. In determining the value of the work performed by the Engineer prior to termination, the Owner shall be the sole judge of the value of such work performed. Compensation for work at termination will be based on a percentage of the work completed at that time. Should the Owner terminate this Agreement under (5) of the paragraph above, the amount charged during the thirty (30) day notice period shall not exceed the amount charged during the preceding ninety (90) days.

If the termination of this Agreement is due to the failure of the Engineer to fulfill the Engineer's obligations under this Agreement, the Owner may take over the Project and prosecute the work to completion. In such case, the Engineer shall be liable to the Owner for any additional cost occasioned by the Owner.

If the Engineer defaults in the performance of this Agreement or if the Owner terminates this Agreement for fault on the part of the Engineer, the Owner will give consideration to payment of an amount in settlement to include: the actual costs incurred by the Engineer in performing the work to the date of default, the amount of work required which was satisfactorily completed to date of default, the value of the work which is usable to the Owner, the cost to the Owner of employing another consultant and/or firm to complete the work required and the time required to do so, and other factors which affect the value to the Owner of the work performed at the time of default. This Agreement shall not be considered as specifying the exclusive remedy for any default by the Engineer, but all remedies existing at law and in equity may be availed of by either party and shall be cumulative.

The termination of the Agreement and payment of an amount is settlement as prescribed above shall extinguish all rights, duties, and obligations of the Owner and the Engineer under this Agreement, except the obligations set forth in Articles 11.2, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18.3, 19, 22 and 26 hereto.

ARTICLE 4. Progress and Coordination. The Engineer shall, from time to time during the progress of the work, confer with the Owner. The Engineer shall prepare and present such information as may be pertinent and necessary, or as may be requested by the Owner, in order to evaluate features of the Engineer's services and work.

At the request of the Owner or the Engineer, conferences shall be provided at the Engineer's office, the office of the Owner, or at other locations designated by the Owner. These conferences shall also include evaluation of the Engineer's services and work when requested by the Owner.

All applicable study reports shall be submitted in preliminary form for approval by the Owner before the final report is issued. The Owner's comments regarding the Engineer's preliminary report will be addressed by the Engineer in the final report.

If funds by other agencies or entities are to be used for the development of the project under this Agreement, the Engineer's services and work will be subject to periodic review and approval by other agencies or entities, including those of the city, county, state and/or federal agencies.

Should it be determined that the progress in the production of the Engineer's services and work does not satisfy the requirements of the approved Work Schedule as provided by Exhibit "C", attached hereto, the Owner shall review the approved Work Schedule with the Engineer to determine the corrective action needed by either the Owner or the Engineer.

The Engineer shall promptly advise the Owner in writing of events which have a significant impact upon the progress of the Engineer's services and work and the approved Work Schedule, including:

(1) problems, delays, adverse conditions which will materially affect the ability to attain contract objectives, prevent the meeting of time schedules and goals, or preclude the timely completion and submittal of Project deliverables by the Engineer within established time periods; this disclosure will be accompanied by a statement by the Engineer of recommended or immediate action taken, or contemplated, and any Owner or other agency or entity assistance needed to resolve the situation: and

(2) favorable developments or events which enable meeting the Work Schedule goals sooner than anticipated.

ARTICLE 5. Compensation and Fees. For and in consideration of the services to be rendered by the Engineer, the Owner shall compensate the Engineer as follows:

5.1 Basic Services. For and in consideration of the Services to be rendered by the Engineer, as identified in Article 2 and more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto, the maximum amount payable by the Owner to the Engineer for Services, subject to adjustment in accordance with Article 6.1 herein, will be provided in each work authorization issued. An outline and breakdown of the Services Fee is more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "D1"-*Fee Schedule, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement. Payments to the Engineer for Services shall be made by the Owner, upon presentation by the Engineer of the monthly Request for Payment, in accordance with the terms and provisions of Article 6 herein.

5.2 Special Services. Those services that may be required to provided by the Engineer as Special Services are set forth below and more particularly described in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto. For and in consideration of these Special Services rendered as required by the Engineer, the Owner shall pay the Engineer a negotiated lump sum fee (hereafter referred to as "Special Services Fee") at the hourly labor rates and non-labor rates (hereinafter referred to as "Contract Rates") specified in EXHIBIT "D" - *Contract Rates, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement, and as follows:

1. RESIDENT OR SITE ENGINEER, INSPECTOR Actual performance of services of project site engineer, resident engineer and/or inspector, if required by Owner.

2. DOCUMENT COPIES Actual performance and/or providing of additional copies (over 10) of report; additional copies (over 10) of plans (contract drawings), specifications and estimates (PS&E); additional copies (over 10) of bidding documents: additional copies (over 10) of as-built drawings.

3. EXTRA TRAVEL Extra travel required of Engineer and authorized by Owner to points outside of Hidalgo County.

4. EXPERT WITNESS Assistance to the Owner as expert witness in any litigation with third parties, arising from the development or construction of the Project.

5. MISCELLANEOUS. Investigations involving detailed consideration of operation, maintenance and overhead expenses and (unless otherwise agreed) the preparation of rate schedules, earning and expense statements; preparation of feasibility studies; environmental document preparation; appraisals, valuations, and material audits; or inventories required for certification of force account construction performed by the Owner; preparation of change orders for extra work done by the Contractor.

ARTICLE 6. Method of Payment.

6.1 Request for Payment. Payments to the Engineer for services rendered will be made while work is in progress as executed through a lump sum fee assigned to each work authorization (hereinafter referred to as "Work Authorization") in accordance with Article 7

herein. For each Work Authorization, the Engineer shall prepare and submit to the Owner monthly progress reports in sufficient detail to support the progress of the work and in support of a request for payment (hereinafter referred to as "Request for Payment"). The progress report shall indicate the percent completion of the work accomplished by the Engineer during the billing period and to the date of the Request for Payment. On or before noon of the first Monday of each month during the performance of the services, the Engineer shall submit to the Owner for approval a Request for Payment. Payment of the lump sum fee for each Work Authorization identified in the Request for Payment will be in proportion to the percent completion of the work tasks identified in such Work Authorizations together with a detailed breakdown of the amount and the sum of all prior payments. The Owner shall review each such Request for Payment and may make such exceptions as the Owner reasonably deems necessary or appropriate under the circumstances then existing. About ten (10) working days after the Commissioners Court of the Owner meets approving such payment, the Owner shall make payment to the Engineer in the amount approved as aforesaid subject to Article 6.4 herein and below.

If the Project, or any portion(s) thereof, are deleted or otherwise not constructed, compensation to the Engineer by the Owner for the Project or such portions of the project shall be only the amounts paid the Engineer for actual work performed in accordance with the Work Authorization(s) approved by the Owner.

6.2 Final Payment. After final completion of the work and acceptance thereof by the Owner, the Engineer shall submit a final request for payment ("Final Request for Payment") which shall set forth all amounts due and remaining unpaid to the Engineer and upon approval thereof by the Owner, the Owner shall pay to the Engineer the amount due ("Final Payment") under such Final Request for Payment in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.1 hereof. The Final Payment shall not be made until the Engineer delivers to the Owner an affidavit that so far as the Engineer has knowledge or information any and all amounts due for materials and services over which the Engineer has control have been paid.

6.3 Qualification on Obligations to Pay. Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall not be obligated to make any payment (whether a payment under Article 6.1 hereof or Final Payment) to the Engineer hereunder if any one or more of the following conditions precedent exist:

(1) The Engineer is in default of any of its obligations hereunder or otherwise is in default under this Agreement or under any contract documents related to this Agreement;

(2) Any part of such payment is attributable to the Engineer's services which are not performed in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, such payment shall be made as to the part thereof attributable to the Engineer's services which were performed in accordance with this Agreement.

(3) The Engineer has failed to make payments promptly to consultants or other third parties used in connection with the Project for which the Owner has made payment to the Engineer;

(4) If the Owner, in good faith judgement, determines that the portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid will not be sufficient to complete the Engineer's services in accordance with this Agreement, no additional payments will be due the Engineer hereunder unless and until the Engineer, at its sole cost, performs a sufficient portion of the Engineer's services so that such portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid is determined by the Owner to be sufficient to so complete the Engineer's services.

6.4 No partial payment made hereunder shall be or construed to be final acceptance or approval of that part of the Engineer's services to which such partial payment related or relieves the Engineer of any of its obligations hereunder with respect thereto.

6.5 The Engineer shall promptly pay all bills for labor and material performed and furnished by others in connection with the performance of the Engineer's services.

6.6 Waiver. The making of the Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Owner except those arising from (1) faulty or defective services of the Engineer appearing after completion of the Project. (2) failure of the Engineer's services to comply with the requirements of this Agreement or any contracts or Agreements related to the Project, or (3) terms of any special warranties required by this Agreement or provided at law or in equity. The acceptance of Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Engineer except those previously made in writing and identified by the Engineer as unsettled at the time of the Final Request for Payment.

ARTICLE 7. Work Authorization. After execution of this Agreement, the Engineer shall proceed with the work outlined under Article 2 hereof, only as authorized by the Owner through an agreed Work Authorization document in the form identified in EXHIBIT "E"- *Work Authorization Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement. The Engineer will identify, as approved by the Owner, the needed services for the Project, as required through the course of the development to the Project. The Owner shall authorize the Engineer to perform one or more of the agreed tasks identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto, in the form of individual work authorizations. Upon authorization from the Owner, the Engineer will prepare a Work Authorization document, which will include a description of the work to be performed, including a description of the tasks and milestones, a work schedule, and an estimated cost proposal agreed upon by the Owner and the Engineer. The estimated cost proposal shall set forth in detail the computation of the cost of each work task, at the hourly rates established and identified in EXHIBIT "D", attached hereto. The Work Authorizations shall not waive the Owner's and the Engineer's responsibilities and obligations established in this Agreement.

The estimated cost proposal for each Work Authorization, developed by the Engineer and approved by the Owner shall be used by the Owner to appropriate a purchase order for the Work Authorization. Each executed Work Authorization shall become a part of this Agreement. Upon satisfactory completion of the Work Authorization, the Engineer shall submit the Project's deliverables as specified in the executed Work Authorization to the Owner for review and acceptance.

Work included in a Work Authorization shall not begin until the Owner and the Engineer have signed the Work Authorization. All work must be completed on or before the completion date specified in the Work Authorization, unless extended by written agreement by the Engineer and the Owner. The Engineer shall promptly notify the Owner of any event that will affect completion of the Work Authorization. All Work Authorizations must be executed and completed by both the Engineer and the Owner within the period established for this Agreement as specified in Article 3 hereof.

The final acceptance by the Owner of each Work Authorization for the Project shall serve as evidence of completion, on the part of the Engineer, of all services under this Agreement insofar as they pertain to that portion of work on the Project identified in the applicable work authorization.

ARTICLE 8. Supplemental Agreements. The terms of this Agreement may be amended by supplemental agreement if the Owner determines that (1) there is a need to extend the Termination Date identified in Article 3.1 hereof, (2) there has been a significant change in the scope, complexity or character of the services to be performed by the Engineer, and/or (3) for any other reason agreeable to the Owner and the Engineer. All supplemental agreements will be developed in the form identified in EXHIBIT "F" - Supplemental Agreement Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement, and incorporated herein by reference as "Supplemental Agreement".

If determined appropriate by the Owner, additional compensation to the Engineer for (1), (2) and/or (3) above shall be paid as a negotiated lump sum fee at the Contract Rates specified in EXHIBIT "D", attached hereto. The negotiated lump sum fee shall be incorporated into the Supplemental Agreement.

Any Supplemental Agreement must be executed by both the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date specified in Article 3 hereof.

It is distinctly understood and agreed that no claim by the Engineer for additional work, as identified in Article 9 hereof, or changes or revisions in work, as identified in Article 10 hereof, shall be made by the Engineer until full execution of the Supplemental Agreement and authorization to proceed is granted by the Owner. The Owner reserves the right to withhold payment to the Engineer pending verification of satisfactory work performed by the Engineer.

ARTICLE 9. Additional Work. If the Engineer is of the opinion that any work it has been directed to perform is beyond the scope of this Agreement and constitutes extra work, the Engineer shall promptly notify the Owner in writing, In the event the Owner finds that such work does constitute extra work, the Owner shall so advise the Engineer and a written supplemental agreement will be executed between the Owner and the Engineer as provided herein. The Engineer shall not perform any proposed additional work or incur any additional cost prior to the execution by both the Engineer and the Owner of a supplemental agreement. Additional compensation from the Owner to the Engineer shall be paid as a negotiated lump sum fee at the Contract Rates specified in EXHIBIT "D" attached hereto. The negotiated lump sum fee shall be incorporated into the supplemental agreement as specified in Article 8 hereof. The Owner shall not be liable or under any obligation to compensate the Engineer for work performed or costs incurred by the Engineer relating to additional work not directly associated with the performance of the work authorized in this Agreement or as amended through supplemental agreement.

ARTICLE 10. Changes or Revisions in Work. If the Owner finds it necessary to request changes to the work, and the changes are within the applications of sound engineering principles, the Engineer shall make such revisions if requested and directed by the Owner.

10.1 Preliminary Work. The Engineer will make, without expense to the Owner, such revisions of any preliminary reports or drawings as may be required to meet the needs of the Owner and the applications of sound engineering principles.

10.2 Previously Approved or Satisfactorily Completed Work. If the Owner funds it necessary to request the Engineer to make changes to work previously approved by the Owner or work satisfactorily completed for which the Owner approves or, after a definite plan has been approved by the Owner, if a decision is subsequently made by the Owner, which for proper execution involves extra services and expenses for changes in or additions to the drawings specifications or other documents, this will be considered as additional work, and compensation from the Owner to the Engineer will be in accordance with Article 9 hereof.

10.3 Project Delays. If the Engineer is required to perform additional work due to delays by the imposition of causes not within the Engineer's control, such as by the re-advertisement of bids or by the delinquency or insolvency of contractors, such work associated with these delays shall be considered additional work, and the Engineer shall be compensated by the Owner for such extra services and expense in accordance with Article 9 hereof.

10.4 Reduction of Project Cost. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, in the event it is necessary for the Owner to require changes in the final plan of the Project to enable it to the reduce the construction cost of the Project to an amount within the sum estimated by the Engineer, the Engineer will be required to make such revisions or changes. These changes will only be considered additional work by the Engineer, if the Engineer previously provided these same changes as options to the Owner at the stage of preliminary work or prior to the approval of the final plan for the Project, and the option or options were not selected or approved by the Owner to be incorporated into the final plan of the Project. Payment for this additional work will then be made to the Engineer in accordance with Article 9 hereof. If the Engineer failed to provide these changes as an option or options to the Owner at the stage of preliminary work or prior to the approval of the final plan of the Project, these changes will not be considered additional work and no additional compensation will be made to the Engineer.

ARTICLE 11. Ownership and Release of Documents.

11.1 Ownership of Documents. Original drawings and specifications are the property of the Engineer however the Project is the property of the Owner, and the Engineer may not use the drawings and specifications thereof for any purpose not relating to the Project with the Owner's consent. The primary objective of the Hidalgo County HUB Program is to ensure Historically Underutilized Businesses receive a fair and equal opportunity for participation in the County's procurement process. This fact holds true for Services (Professional & Non-Professional), Commodities, and Construction contracts and any subcontracts thereto. The program strongly encourages Prime Contractors to provide subcontracting opportunities to Certified Hub Contractors/Vendors. Our goal for HUB contractor/vendor participation, as well as HUB subcontractor participation is 30%. To be considered as a "Certified HUB Contractor/Vendor" the contractor/vendor must have been certified by, and hold a current and valid certification with any of the three agencies listed below.

However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. SCOPE OF SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED BY THE ENGINEER

SECTION 5 - RIGHT-OF-WAY DATA
(Function Code 130)

Services Provided By:
SURVEYOR CITY/COUNTY

NOTE: No work involving right-of-way (ROW) data is to be performed until the ENGINEER has given the SURVEYOR written approval of the final location of the proposed ROW lines as approved by TxDOT and the CITY.

A. RIGHT-OF-WAY MAPPING:

1. PURPOSE:
The purpose of right-of-way mapping is to prepare documents suitable for the acquisition of real property interests and the probable issuance of a title policy.
2. DEFINITIONS:
For purposes of this Contract, the following definitions shall apply:
2.1. Abstract Map – A drawing to scale prepared from record documents depicting proposed right-of-way lines, existing right-of-way lines, easement lines, and private property lines with relevant grantee names, recording data, and recording dates.
2.2. Closure/Area Calculation Sheet – A computer generated print-out of the area and the perimeter bearings, distances, curve data, and coordinates of an individual parcel of land to be acquired.
2.3. Access Denial Line – A line which indicates specific location where access to the roadway is denied.
2.4. Property Descriptions – A written metes and bounds description delineating the area and the boundary and describing the location of an individual parcel of land unique to all other parcels of land.
2.5. Owner – The most current title holder of record as determined by a study of the Real Property Records.
2.6. Parcel Plat – An 8 ½ inch by 11 inch drawing to scale depicting all the information shown on the right-of-way map regarding an individual parcel of land to be acquired.
2.7. Parent Tract – A unit or contiguous units of land under one ownership, comprising a single marketable tract of land consistent with the principle of highest and best use. A parent tract may be described by a single instrument or several instruments. A single parent tract cannot be severed by a public right-of-way, easement, or separate ownership which destroys unity of use.
2.8. Parent Tract Inset – A small line drawing, to an appropriate scale, of the parent tract perimeter placed upon the right-of-way map in the proximity of the respective parcel. Parent tract insets are used in cases where the parent tract cannot be shown to the same scale as the right-of-way map. Since parent tract insets are used to identify the limits and location of parent tracts, they should include public right-of-ways, utility easements and fee strips, and identifiable water courses which bound the parent tract.
2.9. Point of Beginning (P.O.B.) – A corner of the parcel of land to be acquired, located on the proposed right-of-way line and being the beginning terminus of the first course of the property description.
2.10. Point of Commencing (P.O.C.) – A monumented property corner which can be identified in the Real Property Records and is located outside the proposed right-of-way corridor. For title purposes, the point of commencing should be a monumented back corner of the parent tract. In the event a monumented back corner of the parent tract cannot be recovered, the nearest identifiable monumented property corner located outside the proposed right-of-way corridor may be used.

Services Provided By:

2.12. Right-of-Way Maps/Property Description/Parcel Plats – A series of 22 inch by 34 inch and 11 inch by 17 inch drawings to scale depicting the results of relevant elements of records research, field work, analysis, computation, and map making required to determine title, delineate areas and boundaries, locate and describe utilities and improvements to the extent necessary to appraise the value and negotiate the acquisition of individual parcels of private land for a proposed right-of-way project. (Reference Sample Attached)

3. WORK TO BE PERFORMED:

___ ___ 3.1. Preliminary Right-of-Way Layout/Abstract Map:

An abstract map shall be prepared sufficient to determine the following:

7. GENERAL SPECIFICATIONS:

For purposes of this Contract, the following general specifications for right-of-way mapping shall apply:

7.1. Completed right-of-way maps shall be submitted to the ENGINEER on single or double matte mylar, 22 inches by 34 inches in size with a 21 inch by 32 inch printed border positioned ½ inch from the top, bottom, and right edge of the sheet. Two copies on 11 inch by 17 inch paper will also be supplied to the ENGINEER.

7.2. Parcel plats shall be submitted to the ENGINEER on 8 ½ inch by 11 inch bond paper with respective borders of 7 ½ inches by 10 inches, positioned ½ inch from the top, bottom, and right edge of the sheet. Match lines shall be used where more than one sheet is required.

7.3. Right-of-way maps shall be drawn to a scale of 1 inch = 50 feet. An appropriate scale other than 1 inch = 50 feet may be used on some proposed right-of-way projects upon prior approval by the ENGINEER.

7.7. Property descriptions shall be submitted on 8 ½ inch by 11 inch bond paper.

7.8. The ENGINEER has encountered a number of mylar products which are considered unacceptable. The SURVEYOR shall confer with the ENGINEER regarding mylar products he intends to use which have not been previously used on State projects.

7.9. Zip-A-Tone or other similar stick-on products shall not be used on right-of-way maps or parcel plats.

8. ADHERENCE TO STANDARDS:

For purposes of clarity, consistency, and ease of understanding, the CITY/COUNTY, as an acquiring agency of private property for public use, has adopted the STATE standards and formats for right-of-way mapping which have proven to facilitate the processes of negotiation, appraisal, relocation assistance, and condemnation. It shall be the responsibility of the SURVEYOR to adhere to these standards and formats to every extent possible to ensure that the needs of the acquiring agency are met.

* Countour plots of bridge gores are required for projects involving ramps within the main bridge in order to ensure project transition. The Template data and vertical alignment necessary to generate the contour plots are also required.

 In the early stages of a project, it sometimes cannot be determined whether a Waterway Bridge Structure or a Bridge Classification Culvert (20' minimum length) will be required. Therefore, the ENGINEER should be aware that either of these two types of bridges may be reclassified later in the project for the other type when more information is known that would dictate a change in structure classification.

Layouts of the entire project with markings depicted thereon. Usual scale 1:500 (1 inch=40 feet or 1 inch=50 feet). On some projects typical details might suffice.

17. Structural Details
Bridge layout sheets shall have the same horizontal and vertical scale. Usually (1 inch = 10 feet) (1 inch = 20 feet). Sections of existing and proposed structures usually have a scale of (1 inch = 5 feet). Elements of the bridge (abutments, bents, slabs, etc.) shall be detailed to a (1/2 inch = 1 foot) or (1/4 inch equals 1 foot) architect scale to provide clear legible drawings when reduced. Letters shall be a minimum size of 4 millimeters (5/32 inch) height for hand lettering and 140 for lettering by computer-aided design and drafting (CADD).

18. Overhead Sign Bridge Layouts
A maximum of four structures may be shown on each layout sheet. The reference to the appropriate overhead sign bridge (OSB) standard and the following requirements shall be shown on the layout:
(1) Drilled shaft size and length
(2) Soil strength used for design {indicate basis and boring(s) used}
(3) Design height
(4) Tower height
(5) Leg spacings and
(6) Design wind speed.
The wind speed design map need not be included in the project plans. Designation of tower member size and anchor bolt size shall not be shown. For OSBs which require special design, the design shall be in accordance with the AASHTO sign specifications (see Item 22 of References on page 49) and to the same loading requirements as for normal standard structures. Structures (special or standard) which will have changeable message signs shall be analyzed by the ENGINEER.

C-15-426-12-15

THIS AGREEMENT is made, by and between HIDALGO COUNTY, acting herein by and through the Commissioner's Court, hereinafter called the "Owner", and L&G Consulting Engineers Inc. d/b/a L&G Engineering, Professional Engineers of Mercedes, Texas, hereinafter called the "Engineer".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Owner desires to contract with the Engineer to provide professional engineering services required for the "South Detention Basin Facility" project for Hidalgo County Precinct No. 3 hereinafter referred to as the "Project".

WHEREAS, pursuant to Texas Government Code Chapter 2254.002, (the "Texas Professional Services Procurement Act"), the Owner requested proposals from a professional engineer to assist the Owner by providing the Services;

WHEREAS, Owner has selected the Engineer to provide the Services within Hidalgo County Precinct No. 3, in accordance to Exhibit "A-1" Request for Qualifications (RFQ) Procurement Packet.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Owner and the Engineer in consideration of the mutual covenants and agreements herein contained do mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Employment of Engineer. The Owner agrees to employ the Engineer and the Engineer agrees to perform professional engineering services in connection with the Project as stated in the articles to follow and for having rendered such services, the owner agrees to pay the Engineer compensation as stated in the articles to follow.

ARTICLE 2. Character and Extent of Services. This Agreement will provide for the development of the Project with the following:

2.1 Scope of Work. The Owner will furnish items and provide those services for the development of the Project and fulfillment of this Agreement, as identified in EXHIBIT "A" Services to be Provided by the Owner, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement.

2.2 Engineer's Services. For this Agreement, the professional services to be provided by the Engineer are those services more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto and make a part of this Agreement.

2.3 Schedule of Work. The Engineer shall prepare a schedule of work (hereinafter referred to as "Work Schedule") in accordance with the terms identified in EXHIBIT "C" - Work Schedule, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3. Period of Service. Upon execution of this Agreement, the Engineer shall proceed with the work outlined under Article 2 hereof.

3.1 Termination Date. This agreement is for the earlier of a period of two (2) years, commencing, December 15, 2015, expiring, December 14, 2017 or upon completion of the Scope of the Project (hereinafter referred to as the "Termination Date"), unless extended by written supplemental agreement, as provided in Article 8 hereof, duly executed by the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date, or otherwise terminated as provided in Article 3.4 herein and below. The Owner assumes no liability or obligation for payment to the Engineer for work performed or costs incurred by the Engineer prior to the date authorized by the Owner for the Engineer to begin work, during periods when work is suspended, or subsequent to the Termination Date.

3.2 Extension of the Termination Date. The Engineer shall notify the Owner in writing as soon as possible if it is determined, or reasonably anticipated, that the work under this Agreement cannot be completed before the Termination Date, and the Owner may , at the Owner's sole discretion, extend the Termination Date by written supplemental agreement as provided in Article 8 hereof. The Engineer shall allow adequate time for review and approval by the Owner of the written notice and request by the Engineer to extend the Termination Date.

3.3 Suspension of Work. Should the Owner desire to suspend the work under this Agreement, but not terminate this Agreement, the Owner shall provide thirty (30) calendar days verbal notification to the Engineer, followed by written confirmation from the Owner to the Engineer to that effect. The thirty-day notice may be waived as agreed in writing by both the Owner and the Engineer. The work under this Agreement may be reinstated and resumed in full force and effect within sixty (60) days of receipt of written notice from the Owner to the Engineer. The sixty-day notice may be waived as agreed in writing by both the Owner and the Engineer.

If the Owner suspends the work, the Termination Date as identified above is not affected, and this Agreement will terminate on the date specified, unless extended by written supplemental agreement, as provided in Article 8 hereof, duly executed by the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date.

3.4 Termination of Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated before the stated Termination Date identified in Article 3.1 herein by any of the following conditions:

(1) Commitment of Current Revenues. In the event that, during any term hereof, the Owner does not appropriate sufficient funds to meet to the obligations of this Agreement, the Owner may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Engineer. The Owner agrees, however, to use reasonable efforts to secure funds necessary for the continued performance of this Agreement. The parties intend this provision to be a continuing right to terminate this Agreement at the expiration of each budget period of the Owner pursuant to the provisions of Tex. Loc. Govt. Code Ann. §271.903 (Vernon Supp. 1995).

(2) By mutual agreement and consent, in writing, of both the Engineer and the Owner.

(3) By the Owner, upon failure of the Engineer to fulfill the Engineer's obligations set forth herein in a satisfactory manner as determined by the Owner and in sole opinion of the Owner, after the Owner provides written notice to the Engineer of such failure and the Engineer has not corrected such failure within (30) days of such written notice by the Owner.

(4) By the Engineer, upon failure of the Owner to fulfill the Owner's obligations set forth herein, after the Engineer provides written notice to the Owner of such failure and the Owner has not corrected such failure within thirty (30) days of such written notice by the Engineer.

(5) By the Owner without cause upon thirty (30) days written notice to the Engineer.

(6) By satisfactory completion of all services and obligations described herein.

Should the Owner terminate this Agreement as herein provided, no fees other than fees due and payable at the time of termination shall thereafter be paid to the Engineer notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary. In determining the value of the work performed by the Engineer prior to termination, the Owner shall be the sole judge of the value of such work performed. Compensation for work at termination will be based on a percentage of the work completed at that time. Should the Owner terminate this Agreement under (5) of the paragraph above, the amount charged during the thirty (30) day notice period shall not exceed the amount charged during the preceding ninety (90) days.

If the termination of this Agreement is due to the failure of the Engineer to fulfill the Engineer's obligations under this Agreement, the Owner may take over the Project and prosecute the work to completion. In such case, the Engineer shall be liable to the Owner for any additional cost occasioned by the Owner.

If the Engineer defaults in the performance of this Agreement or if the Owner terminates this Agreement for fault on the part of the Engineer, the Owner will give consideration to payment of an amount in settlement to include: the actual costs incurred by the Engineer in performing the work to the date of default, the amount of work required which was satisfactorily completed to date of default, the value of the work which is usable to the Owner, the cost to the Owner of employing another consultant and/or firm to complete the work required and the time required to do so, and other factors which affect the value to the Owner of the work performed at the time of default. This Agreement shall not be considered as specifying the exclusive remedy for any default by the Engineer, but all remedies existing at law and in equity may be availed of by either party and shall be cumulative.

The termination of the Agreement and payment of an amount is settlement as prescribed above shall extinguish all rights, duties, and obligations of the Owner and the Engineer under this Agreement, except the obligations set forth in Articles 11.2, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18.3, 19, 22 and 26 hereto.

ARTICLE 4. Progress and Coordination. The Engineer shall, from time to time during the progress of the work, confer with the Owner. The Engineer shall prepare and present such information as may be pertinent and necessary, or as may be requested by the Owner, in order to evaluate features of the Engineer's services and work.

At the request of the Owner or the Engineer, conferences shall be provided at the Engineer's office, the office of the Owner, or at other locations designated by the Owner. These conferences shall also include evaluation of the Engineer's services and work when requested by the Owner.

All applicable study reports shall be submitted in preliminary form for approval by the Owner before the final report is issued. The Owner's comments regarding the Engineer's preliminary report will be addressed by the Engineer in the final report.

If funds by other agencies or entities are to be used for the development of the project under this Agreement, the Engineer's services and work will be subject to periodic review and approval by other agencies or entities, including those of the city, county, state and/or federal agencies.

Should it be determined that the progress in the production of the Engineer's services and work does not satisfy the requirements of the approved Work Schedule as provided by Exhibit "C", attached hereto, the Owner shall review the approved Work Schedule with the Engineer to determine the corrective action needed by either the Owner or the Engineer.

The Engineer shall promptly advise the Owner in writing of events which have a significant impact upon the progress of the Engineer's services and work and the approved Work Schedule, including:

(1) problems, delays, adverse conditions which will materially affect the ability to attain contract objectives, prevent the meeting of time schedules and goals, or preclude the timely completion and submittal of Project deliverables by the Engineer within established time periods; this disclosure will be accompanied by a statement by the Engineer of recommended or immediate action taken, or contemplated, and any Owner or other agency or entity assistance needed to resolve the situation: and

(2) favorable developments or events which enable meeting the Work Schedule goals sooner than anticipated.

ARTICLE 5. Compensation and Fees. For and in consideration of the services to be rendered by the Engineer, the Owner shall compensate the Engineer as follows:

5.1 Basic Services. For and in consideration of the Services to be rendered by the Engineer, as identified in Article 2 and more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto, the maximum amount payable by the Owner to the Engineer for Services, subject to adjustment in accordance with Article 6.1 herein, will be provided in each work authorization issued. An outline and breakdown of the Services Fee is more particularly identified in EXHIBIT "D1"-*Fee Schedule, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement. Payments to the Engineer for Services shall be made by the Owner, upon presentation by the Engineer of the monthly Request for Payment, in accordance with the terms and provisions of Article 6 herein.

For and in consideration of these Special Services rendered as required by the Engineer, the Owner shall pay the Engineer a negotiated lump sum fee (hereafter referred to as "Special Services Fee") at the hourly labor rates and non-labor rates (hereinafter referred to as "Contract Rates") specified in EXHIBIT "D" - *Contract Rates, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement, and as follows:

3. EXTRA TRAVEL Extra travel required of Engineer and authorized by Owner to points outside of Hidalgo County.

ARTICLE 6. Method of Payment.

6.1 Request for Payment. Payments to the Engineer for services rendered will be made while work is in progress as executed through a lump sum fee assigned to each work authorization (hereinafter referred to as "Work Authorization") in accordance with Article 7

herein. For each Work Authorization, the Engineer shall prepare and submit to the Owner monthly progress reports in sufficient detail to support the progress of the work and in support of a request for payment (hereinafter referred to as "Request for Payment"). The progress report shall indicate the percent completion of the work accomplished by the Engineer during the billing period and to the date of the Request for Payment. On or before noon of the first Monday of each month during the performance of the services, the Engineer shall submit to the Owner for approval a Request for Payment. Payment of the lump sum fee for each Work Authorization identified in the Request for Payment will be in proportion to the percent completion of the work tasks identified in such Work Authorizations together with a detailed breakdown of the amount and the sum of all prior payments. The Owner shall review each such Request for Payment and may make such exceptions as the Owner reasonably deems necessary or appropriate under the circumstances then existing. About ten (10) working days after the Commissioners Court of the Owner meets approving such payment, the Owner shall make payment to the Engineer in the amount approved as aforesaid subject to Article 6.4 herein and below.

If the Project, or any portion(s) thereof, are deleted or otherwise not constructed, compensation to the Engineer by the Owner for the Project or such portions of the project shall be only the amounts paid the Engineer for actual work performed in accordance with the Work Authorization(s) approved by the Owner.

6.2 Final Payment. After final completion of the work and acceptance thereof by the Owner, the Engineer shall submit a final request for payment ("Final Request for Payment") which shall set forth all amounts due and remaining unpaid to the Engineer and upon approval thereof by the Owner, the Owner shall pay to the Engineer the amount due ("Final Payment") under such Final Request for Payment in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.1 hereof. The Final Payment shall not be made until the Engineer delivers to the Owner an affidavit that so far as the Engineer has knowledge or information any and all amounts due for materials and services over which the Engineer has control have been paid.

6.3 Qualification on Obligations to Pay. Any provision hereof to the contrary notwithstanding, the Owner shall not be obligated to make any payment (whether a payment under Article 6.1 hereof or Final Payment) to the Engineer hereunder if any one or more of the following conditions precedent exist:

(1) The Engineer is in default of any of its obligations hereunder or otherwise is in default under this Agreement or under any contract documents related to this Agreement;

(2) Any part of such payment is attributable to the Engineer's services which are not performed in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, such payment shall be made as to the part thereof attributable to the Engineer's services which were performed in accordance with this Agreement.

(3) The Engineer has failed to make payments promptly to consultants or other third parties used in connection with the Project for which the Owner has made payment to the Engineer;

(4) If the Owner, in good faith judgement, determines that the portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid will not be sufficient to complete the Engineer's services in accordance with this Agreement, no additional payments will be due the Engineer hereunder unless and until the Engineer, at its sole cost, performs a sufficient portion of the Engineer's services so that such portion of the compensation then remaining unpaid is determined by the Owner to be sufficient to so complete the Engineer's services.

6.4 No partial payment made hereunder shall be or construed to be final acceptance or approval of that part of the Engineer's services to which such partial payment related or relieves the Engineer of any of its obligations hereunder with respect thereto.

6.5 The Engineer shall promptly pay all bills for labor and material performed and furnished by others in connection with the performance of the Engineer's services.

6.6 Waiver. The making of the Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Owner except those arising from (1) faulty or defective services of the Engineer appearing after completion of the Project. (2) failure of the Engineer's services to comply with the requirements of this Agreement or any contracts or Agreements related to the Project, or (3) terms of any special warranties required by this Agreement or provided at law or in equity. The acceptance of Final Payment shall constitute a waiver of all claims by the Engineer except those previously made in writing and identified by the Engineer as unsettled at the time of the Final Request for Payment.

ARTICLE 7. Work Authorization. After execution of this Agreement, the Engineer shall proceed with the work outlined under Article 2 hereof, only as authorized by the Owner through an agreed Work Authorization document in the form identified in EXHIBIT "E"- *Work Authorization Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement. The Engineer will identify, as approved by the Owner, the needed services for the Project, as required through the course of the development to the Project. The Owner shall authorize the Engineer to perform one or more of the agreed tasks identified in EXHIBIT "B", attached hereto, in the form of individual work authorizations. Upon authorization from the Owner, the Engineer will prepare a Work Authorization document, which will include a description of the work to be performed, including a description of the tasks and milestones, a work schedule, and an estimated cost proposal agreed upon by the Owner and the Engineer. The estimated cost proposal shall set forth in detail the computation of the cost of each work task, at the hourly rates established and identified in EXHIBIT "D", attached hereto. The Work Authorizations shall not waive the Owner's and the Engineer's responsibilities and obligations established in this Agreement.

The estimated cost proposal for each Work Authorization, developed by the Engineer and approved by the Owner shall be used by the Owner to appropriate a purchase order for the Work Authorization. Each executed Work Authorization shall become a part of this Agreement. Upon satisfactory completion of the Work Authorization, the Engineer shall submit the Project's deliverables as specified in the executed Work Authorization to the Owner for review and acceptance.

Work included in a Work Authorization shall not begin until the Owner and the Engineer have signed the Work Authorization. All work must be completed on or before the completion date specified in the Work Authorization, unless extended by written agreement by the Engineer and the Owner. The Engineer shall promptly notify the Owner of any event that will affect completion of the Work Authorization. All Work Authorizations must be executed and completed by both the Engineer and the Owner within the period established for this Agreement as specified in Article 3 hereof.

The final acceptance by the Owner of each Work Authorization for the Project shall serve as evidence of completion, on the part of the Engineer, of all services under this Agreement insofar as they pertain to that portion of work on the Project identified in the applicable work authorization.

ARTICLE 8. Supplemental Agreements. The terms of this Agreement may be amended by supplemental agreement if the Owner determines that (1) there is a need to extend the Termination Date identified in Article 3.1 hereof, (2) there has been a significant change in the scope, complexity or character of the services to be performed by the Engineer, and/or (3) for any other reason agreeable to the Owner and the Engineer. All supplemental agreements will be developed in the form identified in EXHIBIT "F" - *Supplemental Agreement Form, attached hereto and made a part of this Agreement, and incorporated herein by reference as "Supplemental Agreement".

If determined appropriate by the Owner, additional compensation to the Engineer for (1), (2) and/or (3) above shall be paid as a negotiated lump sum fee at the Contract Rates specified in EXHIBIT "D", attached hereto. The negotiated lump sum fee shall be incorporated into the Supplemental Agreement.

Any Supplemental Agreement must be executed by both the Engineer and the Owner prior to the Termination Date specified in Article 3 hereof.

Our goal for HUB contractor/vendor participation, as well as HUB subcontractor participation is 30%. To be considered as a "Certified HUB Contractor/Vendor" the contractor/vendor must have been certified by, and hold a current and valid certification with any of the three agencies listed below.

However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 4.

Sign Here Signature of U.S. person ▶ Date ▶

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,
- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS a percentage of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you no longer are tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Partnership, C Corporation, or S Corporation. Enter the entity's name on the "Name" line and any business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA) name" on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line.

Disregarded entity. Enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. The name of the entity entered on the "Name" line should never be a disregarded entity. The name on the "Name" line must be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income will be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a domestic owner, the domestic owner's name is required to be provided on the "Name" line. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on the "Business name/disregarded entity name" line. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, you must complete an appropriate Form W-8.

Note. Check the appropriate box for the federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on the "Name" line (Individual/sole proprietor, Partnership, C Corporation, S Corporation, Trust/estate).

Limited Liability Company (LLC). If the person identified on the "Name" line is an LLC, check the "Limited liability company" box only and enter the appropriate code for the tax classification in the space provided. If you are an LLC that is treated as a partnership for federal tax purposes, enter "P" for partnership. If you are an LLC that has filed a Form 8832 or a Form 2553 to be taxed as a corporation, enter "C" for C corporation or "S" for S corporation. If you are an LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Regulation section 301.7701-3 (except for employment and excise tax), do not check the LLC box unless the owner of the LLC (required to be identified on the "Name" line) is another LLC that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. If the LLC is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the appropriate tax classification of the owner identified on the "Name" line.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name/ disregarded entity name" line.

Exempt Payee

If you are exempt from backup withholding, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt payee" box in the line following the "Business name/ disregarded entity name," sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

The following payees are exempt from backup withholding:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),

2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,

3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,

4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or

5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:

6. A corporation,

7. A foreign central bank of issue,

8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,

9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,

10. A real estate investment trust,

11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,

12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),

13. A financial institution,

14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or

15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The following chart shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt payees listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt payees except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt payees 1 through 5 and 7 through 13. Also, C corporations.
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt payees 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 [1]	Generally, exempt payees 1 through 7 [2]

[1] See Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, and its instructions.

[2] However, the following payments made to a corporation and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees, gross proceeds paid to an attorney, and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited Liability Company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting IRS.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4 indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on the "Name" line must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 3.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 3, below, and items 4 and 5 on page 4.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity or credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 1-800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Publication 4535, Identity Theft Prevention and Victim Assistance.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338).

Visit IRS.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons (including federal agencies) who are required to file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, or certain other income paid to you; mortgage interest you paid; the acquisition or abandonment of secured property; the cancellation of debt; or contributions you made to an IRA, Archer MSA, or HSA. The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions for use in administering their laws. The information also may be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payers must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payer. Certain penalties may also apply for providing false or fraudulent information.

SECTION 5 - RIGHT-OF-WAY DATA
(Function Code 130)

Services Provided By:
SURVEYOR CITY/COUNTY

NOTE: No work involving right-of-way (ROW) data is to be performed until the ENGINEER has given the SURVEYOR written approval of the final location of the proposed ROW lines as approved by TxDOT and the CITY.

A. RIGHT-OF-WAY MAPPING:

1. PURPOSE:
The purpose of right-of-way mapping is to prepare documents suitable for the acquisition of real property interests and the probable issuance of a title policy.
2. DEFINITIONS:
For purposes of this Contract, the following definitions shall apply:
2.1. Abstract Map – A drawing to scale prepared from record documents depicting proposed right-of-way lines, existing right-of-way lines, easement lines, and private property lines with relevant grantee names, recording data, and recording dates.
2.2. Closure/Area Calculation Sheet – A computer generated print-out of the area and the perimeter bearings, distances, curve data, and coordinates of an individual parcel of land to be acquired.
2.3. Access Denial Line – A line which indicates specific location where access to the roadway is denied.
2.4. Property Descriptions – A written metes and bounds description delineating the area and the boundary and describing the location of an individual parcel of land unique to all other parcels of land.
2.5. Owner – The most current title holder of record as determined by a study of the Real Property Records.
2.6. Parcel Plat – An 8 ½ inch by 11 inch drawing to scale depicting all the information shown on the right-of-way map regarding an individual parcel of land to be acquired.
2.7. Parent Tract – A unit or contiguous units of land under one ownership, comprising a single marketable tract of land consistent with the principle of highest and best use. A parent tract may be described by a single instrument or several instruments. A single parent tract cannot be severed by a public right-of-way, easement, or separate ownership which destroys unity of use.
2.8. Parent Tract Inset – A small line drawing, to an appropriate scale, of the parent tract perimeter placed upon the right-of-way map in the proximity of the respective parcel. Parent tract insets are used in cases where the parent tract cannot be shown to the same scale as the right-of-way map. Since parent tract insets are used to identify the limits and location of parent tracts, they should include public right-of-ways, utility easements and fee strips, and identifiable water courses which bound the parent tract.
2.9. Point of Beginning (P.O.B.) – A corner of the parcel of land to be acquired, located on the proposed right-of-way line and being the beginning terminus of the first course of the property description.
2.10. Point of Commencing (P.O.C.) – A monumented property corner which can be identified in the Real Property Records and is located outside the proposed right-of-way corridor. For title purposes, the point of commencing should be a monumented back corner of the parent tract. In the event a monumented back corner of the parent tract cannot be recovered, the nearest identifiable monumented property corner located outside the proposed right-of-way corridor may be used.

Services Provided By:

2.12. Right-of-Way Maps/Property Description/Parcel Plats – A series of 22 inch by 34 inch and 11 inch by 17 inch drawings to scale depicting the results of relevant elements of records research, field work, analysis, computation, and map making required to determine title, delineate areas and boundaries, locate and describe utilities and improvements to the extent necessary to appraise the value and negotiate the acquisition of individual parcels of private land for a proposed right-of-way project. (Reference Sample Attached)

3. WORK TO BE PERFORMED:

___ ___ 3.1. Preliminary Right-of-Way Layout/Abstract Map:

An abstract map shall be prepared sufficient to determine the following:

3.1.1. Any and all interests of public record held in the land to be acquired.

3.2.21. In cases where structures are located outside the proposed right-of-way corridor and within 25 feet of a proposed right-of-way line, the shortest distance between the structure and the proposed right-of-way line shall be shown and field verified.

3.2.22. Visible utilities located within the proposed right-of-way corridor or within 50 feet of a proposed right-of-way line shall be shown and identified.

3.2.23. The location of underground utilities and fuel storage tanks situated within the proposed right-of-way corridor or within 50 feet of a proposed right-of-way line shall be determined and shown as required by the ENGINEER. The visible location of stand pipes, vents and filler caps in conjunction with available design and as-built drawings may be used to determine a most probable location and size in the event an actual location is indeterminable.

3.2.24. Points of commencing and points of beginning shall be shown and labeled. Points of beginning shall be shown with their respective N and E surface coordinates. As an exception, a point of commencing will not be required in the case of a total taking without a remainder.

If the SURVEYOR is unfamiliar with the criteria used by the STATE to assign parcel numbers, he shall seek the assistance of the ENGINEER at the time the abstract map is complete. THE SURVEYOR SHALL SEEK ASSISTANCE FROM THE ENGINEER IN DEVELOPING AN OWNERSHIP TABULATION TABLE.

3.2.26. An ownership tabulation shall be shown which shall include the parcel number, existing area of the parent tract, lot(s) and block(s) constituting the parent tract when applicable, owner's name, type of conveyance, film code, county clerk's file number, taking area, and remaining area of the parent tract located left and/or right of the centerline alignment. Types of conveyance, film code and file numbers refer to conveyances into the STATE and will be added to the right-of-way map by the STATE at a later date. Several blank lines shall be provided in the tabulation block to facilitate future map additions.

3.2.27. A parent tract inset shall be shown for each parent tract which cannot be shown to scale on the right-of-way map. The use of broken scale lines should be avoided. When parent tract insets are used, the point of commencing with the appropriate bearing and distance to the point of beginning may be shown on the parent tract inset.

3.2.28. A note shall be included on the title sheet and each map sheet stating the source of bearings, coordinates, and datum used.

5. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

5.1. Copies of instruments of record submitted to the ENGINEER shall be indexed by parcel number.

5.2. Coordinates appearing on right-of-way maps, on parcel plats, and in property descriptions shall be surface coordinates based on the Texas State Plane Coordinate System. The combined adjustment factors (sea level factor x scale factor) which have been developed by the STATE for its use are as follows:

5.2.1. In (List Applicable Counties): Counties (---------- Zone), grid coordinates are multiplied by a combined adjustment factor of 1.xxxxxx to obtain surface coordinates. For work in Counties other than those listed, the ENGINEER will provide the combine adjustment factor.

5.3. Line and curve tables may be used when necessary.

5.4. The number of centerline alignment stations to be shown on a single plan sheet shall be restricted to the extent necessary to allow approximately 4 inches between match lines and sheet borders for future details and notes.

7. GENERAL SPECIFICATIONS:

For purposes of this Contract, the following general specifications for right-of-way mapping shall apply:

7.1. Completed right-of-way maps shall be submitted to the ENGINEER on single or double matte mylar, 22 inches by 34 inches in size with a 21 inch by 32 inch printed border positioned ½ inch from the top, bottom, and right edge of the sheet. Two copies on 11 inch by 17 inch paper will also be supplied to the ENGINEER.

7.2. Parcel plats shall be submitted to the ENGINEER on 8 ½ inch by 11 inch bond paper with respective borders of 7 ½ inches by 10 inches, positioned ½ inch from the top, bottom, and right edge of the sheet. Match lines shall be used where more than one sheet is required.

7.3. Right-of-way maps shall be drawn to a scale of 1 inch = 50 feet. An appropriate scale other than 1 inch = 50 feet may be used on some proposed right-of-way projects upon prior approval by the ENGINEER.

7.4. Since right-of-way maps are reduced in size by one-half for archiving purposes, the smallest size lettering acceptable on a right-of-way map shall be 1/10 of one inch (Leroy #100). A right-of-way map which contains any lettering smaller than 1/10 of one inch will not be accepted by the ENGINEER.

7.5. Parcel plats shall be drawn to a preferred scale of 1 inch = 50 feet. An appropriate scale other than 1 inch = 50 feet may be used on some proposed right-of-way projects upon prior approval by the ENGINEER. In the case of a very large parcel which would be difficult to show with clarity on a single 8 ½ inch by 11 inch sheet, the SURVEYOR shall use multiple 8 ½ inch by 11 inch sheets with matching lines.

7.6. The smallest size lettering acceptable on a parcel plat shall be 0.06 of an inch (Leroy #60).

7.7. Property descriptions shall be submitted on 8 ½ inch by 11 inch bond paper.

7.8. The ENGINEER has encountered a number of mylar products which are considered unacceptable. The SURVEYOR shall confer with the ENGINEER regarding mylar products he intends to use which have not been previously used on State projects.

7.9. Zip-A-Tone or other similar stick-on products shall not be used on right-of-way maps or parcel plats.

8. ADHERENCE TO STANDARDS:

For purposes of clarity, consistency, and ease of understanding, the CITY/COUNTY, as an acquiring agency of private property for public use, has adopted the STATE standards and formats for right-of-way mapping which have proven to facilitate the processes of negotiation, appraisal, relocation assistance, and condemnation. It shall be the responsibility of the SURVEYOR to adhere to these standards and formats to every extent possible to ensure that the needs of the acquiring agency are met.

The surveyor shall create a Utility Layout Map or plan layout 2D, showing the limits of the proposed project and limits of the work area required for this work authorization; including highway stations, limits within existing or proposed right of way. Correlate utility owner records with designating data and resolve discrepancies using professional judgment. A color-coded composite utility facility plan with utility owner names, quality levels, line sizes and subsurface utility locate (test hole) locations. The Layout Map will include all utilities that have been field tied – 2D Horizontal Utilities. This Layout will be provided to the Engineer and a meeting held with Engineer to identify which utilities will need to be tied down vertically. A note must be placed on the designate deliverable only that states "lines sizes are from best available records". All above ground appurtenance locations must be included in the deliverable to the Engineer. This information will be provided in the latest version of Micro Station or Geopak used by the State.
