Ms. Salazar

I had forwarded the email below to Mr. Quintanilha and he requested that I forward it to you as well. We had a vehicle repaired by ER Paint Shop. We submitted the invoice to the Auditor's and I was contacted by Zoraida yesterday in reference to the taxes that were included on the invoice for parts. I advised her that due to the fact that the parts were not purchased by our department but by the vendor, taxes were charged to the vendor and it was part of the bill. I also explained that the vendor is not tax exempt therefore if she could include the taxes. She advised me that she was going to check with Ms. Cano and get back to me. I received the attached instant message from Zoraida letting me know that Ms. Cano had denied for taxes to be included with payment that will be made. Mr. Quintanilha has requested if you could look into the issue and advise.

Thank you,

Mr. Quintanilha

I got the attached message from our Auditor in which they are short paying the vendor for taxes he paid on parts ordered for the repair of Unit# 7. I explained that since the vendor had to order parts that he was not tax exempt and that we needed to include them in payment and as per Ms. Cano at Auditor's they were not going to pay them. Could you please address the issue? Please advise.
