

CAUSE NO. CR-370-16-C

STATE OF TEXAS	*	IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF
	*
VS	*	HIDALGO COUNTY, TEXAS
	*
RICARDO LOPEZ	*	139 TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

ORDER

BE IT REMEMBERED that on the 24th day of February, 2016, came on to be ORDERED on the Court's own Motion for Court Sign Language Interpreter to provide the services of Raquel Merrill. Defendant is a deaf-mute and requires a sign language interpreter. The court has been in communication with All World Language Consultants, Inc. and they were unable to provide any services for the 139th District Court on February 25, 2016 for said defendant. This Order was presented to the Court; and the Court is of the opinion that the same shall be GRANTED and all fees be paid to Raquel Merrill.

SIGNED this 24th day of February, 2016.

Good morning Ms. Ramirez,

I am pleased to make your acquaintance.

As Carlos mentioned, I have attached our standard form for all interpreting requests, which can be submitted directly to me. Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions or concerns you may have. Additionally, I would like to direct you to two additional resources for occasions when I may be out of the office. My colleague Patrick Weeks, who also works in our Rockville headquarters, can be reached during business hours at pweeks@alcinc.com or at 301-881-8884 x 1230, and Christian Gal, who works out of our Miami office, can be reached after hours at cgal@alcinc.com or 305-496-2040.

I look forward to working with you!

GOOD MORNING ERIN,

YES HE IS BEING ARRAIGNED ON ASSAULT ON A FAMILY/HOUSE MEMBER IMPEDING BREATH/CIRCULATION CHARGES. THE PROCESS TAKES ABOUT 5 MINUTES. THE JUDGE BASICALLY ASKS A SERIES OF QUESTIONS AND THEN GIVES THE DEFENDANT TRIAL DATES IF THEY PLEA NOT GUILTY. IF THEY PLEA GUILTY THEN YOUR INTERPRETER MAY BE ASKED TO STAY LONGER.

Good afternoon Ms. Ramirez,

I'm sorry for taking so long to respond - I was traveling and have only just returned to the office.

We need the following information in order to book the ASL interpreter for the 25th:

Assignment length (9 am until what time?) Deaf client's name Type of assignment (meeting, trial, etc.) and topics to be discussed

As soon as we have this information, we will get to work booking an ASL interpreter for February 25th.

Could you please tell me what he is being arraigned for/what topics will be discussed? It helps the interpreters to prepare for an assignment if they know what they will be discussing.

Good morning,

I am writing to inform you that my last day with ALC will be this Wednesday, February 24th. I have accepted a position with the Peace Corps and will be shipping out the first week of March.

My deputy, Cristina Rago, will be acting as interim manager when I leave. She can be reached at 301-881-8884 x 1070 until Wednesday, and after that she will be reachable at my current extension, x 1210. Her email is crago@alcinc.com.

For questions related to billing and invoicing, please contact Veronique Lemerle at veronique@alcinc.com. For scheduling questions in California, please reach out to Patrick Weeks at pweeks@alcinc.com. For after hours and weekend requests, please reach out to Christian Gal at cgal@alcinc.com. For questions related to the details of our contracts, please reach out to Carlos Scandiffio at scandiffio@alcinc.com.

It has been a pleasure working with you!
