That is correct. The ILA is for the County, by and through the District Attorney's Office, with authorization for the DA to sign documents.

thank you.

Counselors:

I am assuming that any ILA needs to go through CC but not sure so can you confirm?

Thanks,

Marty

PS IF yes, we will make arrangements to have a Contracts Manager place on the next HCCC agenda of 03-07-17.

Good afternoon Ms. Marty,

Attached, please find a copy of the Interlocal agreement between The State of Texas acting by and through the Texas Facilities Commission (TFC) and The County of Hidalgo by the District Attorney's Office to accept and contract for the sale/disposal of the County's Forfeited property (forfeited property meaning gambling equipment seized and forfeited to the DA's Office) by TFC through the State Surplus Property Program.

Our office would like to know if this Interlocal agreement would need to be placed on the agenda for Commissioners' court approval by the Purchasing Department or by the District Attorney's Office. Please advise.

Your assistance with this matter is greatly appreciated.
