Hello, Ms. Flores.

Thank you for your call this morning. As you are aware, the individual judge membership is $195.00 for one year. This membership includes access to our monthly publication, discounted access to our large library of publications, up-to-the-minute research in important and relevant areas from the National Council of Juvenile Justice, as well as discounts on registrations to our several annual events (including the Annual Conference and National Conference on Juvenile Justice which are both attended by several hundred fellow juvenile and family court judges from across the nation).

The membership will begin on the 1st of the month which the application date is closest to. Please let me know if you need anything further
