Ms. Villarreal, while requiring pollution liability from each firm is recommend, it is also recognized that that may be inordinately expensive/impractical for some of the smaller professional firms. The risk to the County of Hidalgo is slight should it choose to waive this single requirement with regard to those firms, and I would support such a decision.

Thank you.

I received an email from Morrison+Hershfield, building envelope consultant, yesterday saying they, too, are unable to obtain pollution coverage. This may be an issue as we vet these smaller firms.
