Thank you for your continued membership in the Lower Rio Grande Development Council (LRGVDC), the regional Council of Governments for Cameron, Willacy and Hidalgo Counties.

Active membership in LRGVDC's association of local governments supports regional collaborative efforts and qualifies your entity for projects, plans and programs for continued development and prosperity across our area.

Additionally, members shall have access to LRGVDC meeting room facilities (when available), project technical assistance and LRGVDC's governing body support of initiatives and efforts in alignment with the current 2017-2022 Lower Rio Grande Valley Strategic Plan.

Membership fees are based on population for general governments (county, city, etc.) or an annually approved fixed fee for special purpose units: educational institutions, school districts, water districts, etc.)

To retain membership status and voting privileges, dues must be paid by May 1, 2018.

We anticipate a great and productive 2018 and hold you in high regard as an active LRGVDC member.

Thank you again for your support and please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions.
