

Codepal Toolkit Family of Products – Sole Source Declaration

On October 1, 2017 all Codepal Products, Services, and Assets reverted to Sybatech, Inc. but we are now Doing Business as Codepal.

Sybatech Inc./DBA Codepal is now the sole owner of the software family of products commonly known as, but not limited to, Codepal Inspection Software, Codepal Toolkit, Dyna-Sync, SQL-Boss, and related products in various versions and updates.

Sybatech Inc. DBA Codepal is the sole distributor of the software products stated in this letter. All upgrades and technical support can only be obtained through Codepal.

The Codepal development and support teams will continue the expert level of product development and support customers have experienced in the past. Our marketing efforts are such that in branding Codepal our business shall be known by the same name Codepal. With your needs in mind our team plans to provide a higher level of software development and to expand our services to you.

Thank you for using the Codepal software family to meet your needs.

Sincerely,
