

RESOLUTION IN RECOGNITION OF THE 2018 TEXAS HIGH SCHOOL WOMEN'S POWERLIFTING ASSOCIATION STATE CHAMPIONSHIP WINNERS

WHEREAS, the Idea Edinburg Lady Eagles Powerlifting team placed first in the 3A Division on March 17, 2018 in Waco, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Ashley Martinez, Adriana Villafuerte, Jacqueline Pena, Valery Cano, Cristy Gonzalez, Sindy Garcia, Priscilla Garza, Melanie Morales and Monika Morales were led to success by their coaches Aida Gonzalez and Tomas Martinez. With countless hours of training and dedication they were able to come out victorious and bring home the trophy; and

WHEREAS, these young ladies competed locally, winning three out of seven meets, in addition to their regional meet. With their winning of regionals they were able to advance all eight teammates to compete at the state level. At state they were awarded the 2018 Texas High School Women's Powerlifting Association State Champions, 3A Division; and

WHEREAS, the Lady Eagles have truly shown their excellence and commitment to the sport of Powerlifting. The barriers and battles they have had to overcome to reach this point was definitely not an easy one, but their work paid off. This accomplishment has not only been an honor to their families, but to their school and community as well; and

WHEREAS, their achievements have been made possible with the assistance of their great coaches. Through tremendous leadership and perseverance they motivated their students to reach their potential and attain their goal; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Hidalgo County Commissioners Court hereby supports the resolution in honor of the Idea Edinburg Lady Eagles devotion and exceptional athleticism to win the state championship in powerlifting.

Dated this 27th day of March 2018.
