Hello Mr. Crain,

Yes, no bonds were attached being that the bond will still need to be effective on or after the date of the after it has been agreed on. The Hacienda group had some bonds in process and submitted them to our am happy to see that you found those errors. We will have the bond unto name changed from State to some of the recently approved bonds and send a sample to the dealerships requesting deputation.

With all that in mind, may we still have legal approval to proceed with this request from our Commission

Thanking you for your time,
