1. INTRODUCTION

In an effort to comply with the Texas Election Code, as recently amended by the 83rd Legislative Session, Hidalgo County and the Hidalgo County Elections Department has established the following policy to regulate the time, place and manner of electioneering on County owned property.

2. DEFINITIONS

- A. Electioneering means the posting, use, or distribution of political signs or literature.
- B. Voting period means the period beginning when the polls open for voting and ending when the polls close or the last voter has voted, whichever is later. (the "Voting Period")
- C. Early voting period means the period described by section 85.001 of the Texas Election Code. (the "Early Voting Period")

3. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

- A. Except as provided herein Electioneering is prohibited at all times on County owned property not designated as a polling location;
- B. Electioneering will not be allowed at any time within 100 ft. of the polling location when that location is a County owned property in accordance with the Texas Election Code;
- C. Electioneering will be allowed outside the 100 ft. marker at polling locations owned by the County of Hidalgo, but only during the Early Voting Period and the Voting Period and at no time before, during, or after. This means electioneering on County owned property can only take place during the Early Voting Period and Voting Period. Signage, equipment, and literature can only be left over night during the Early Voting Period or Voting Period, but not later than one hour after the Early Voting Period or Voting Period ends.
