Yasmine,
Attach this email to the supporting documentation for the 4Imprint quote.

Purchasing,

The Department of Human Resources takes great pride in participating on an average of five job fairs through the year. We participate in the community job fairs to bring awareness to the community of the employment opportunities and great benefits that the County of Hidalgo has to offer the workforce. We also educate the public and effectively try to counter the negative perception that the public has toward the County of Hidalgo.

We have great participation from the community at our table at each event, thus we give away small items as a token of appreciation to the job seekers for taking the time to listen to the job opening/descriptions and the great benefits of becoming a County of Hidalgo employee.

Thanks,

Rufino Saenz
