Good day!

I apologize for the delay, my administrator had escalated this up the ladder but we have finally received a response that the Agreement cannot be modified. You may call or contact commercial contracts to confirm that your account is currently on a month to month basis and that upgrading this equipment will not bind you to any additional time or commitment. Again, I apologize for the delay. I just wanted to try all options to get something in writing for you but AT&T does not have such document in place.

Respectfully,
Mary M. Solano
