Application Title: Hidalgo County Office of Emergency Management Presents
 Reading and Rhyming with Mother Goose

Project Summary:

The Office of Emergency Management of Hidalgo County is committed to helping students through the difficult year that they have experienced because of Covid-19. Thirty eight percent of children under the age of 18 live in poverty in Hidalgo County where the per capita income is $17,542. Research indicates children from homes with more constrained economic resources have a higher likelihood of lagging behind in academic, social, and/or behavioral skills because they might not have access to the support they need at home. The unexpected shift to remote learning made the already difficult transition for students struggling even more challenging.

Our project involves the poetry based Reading and Rhyming with Mother Goose production to help students acquire literacy skills in a way that encourages confidence and interaction with their peers. There are many reasons why poetry is crucial for children as it builds reading skills such as phonemic awareness, fluency, working memory and attention.

Providing this opportunity to young children will help close the gap in the widening pre-existing disparities broadened by COVID 19.
