probation officer. The program case management is defined as a collaboration between the probation officer and the treatment provider. The probation officer and the treatment provider work closely with the felony DWI court team, meeting monthly, to fully and holistically manage each case. Through collaboration with the treatment provider, intensive substance abuse treatment services are provided. The probation officer oversees referral to all other services. Referral services may include education, employment, and job training services, health services, housing assistance, family counseling, mental health assessment, and any other available collateral services that may be required. Initially, the participant has weekly contact with the probation officer and appears weekly before the Judge in the felony DWI court. The frequency of meetings and intensity of monitoring decreases as the participant advances through the program. The participant will meet with the probation officer no less than once per month in the office, with visits as deemed necessary during each phase of the program. Based upon the participant's progress, adjustment to treatment and supervision, and ability to comply with the court's requirements, reporting, and court appearances may be reduced as the participant progresses from one phase to the next. The probation officer will monitor participants between felony DWI Court sessions. Working closely with the treatment provider and program participant, the probation officer will identify and address problems as they arise. Non-compliance with court-ordered conditions will require the probation officer to notify the Judge immediately and will require an additional court appearance and/or revocation of bond or probation. Upon issuance of an order for arrest, local law enforcement personnel will be contacted by the probation officer or the court to have the participant arrested. The probation officer also provides cognitive-behavioral intervention services. Individuals participate and enroll in the Thinking For A Change curriculum or Decision Points curriculum instructed by the probation officer.
