Good Afternoon Ms. Velasquez, Thank you for the information. As previously indicated we have no objection to the remaining items proposed by the vendor; however, we recommend inquiring with the vendor if these items may be included in the final contract. The items may be included in our general services contract and those items that directly affect the contract may be revised therein. Or, if the vendor does not agree to this inclusion then we recommend utilizing the general services contract and to include a reference that the deficiencies and deviations provided by the vendor in its response to the request for bid are hereby incorporated by reference into the agreement for all purposes.
