Jaclyn, I proposed for the term to be shortened for the fact that I feel that they will be able to substantiate the expense within this time period.
I shun away from having all recipients of having to spend the money until the end period of December 31, 2026 due to the fact that then all projects will come to an end at that time and we will be bogged down with a lot of projects to close out.

Should the need arise that they need more time, I will go before the court and extend the period if necessary.

Good Morning,

The two dates contained within the agreements were both determined by the Treasury and are significant for different reasons. December 31, 2024 is the day that all funds must be obligated, and December 31, 2026 is the date that funds must be spent and projects completed.

Can we please have some clarification as to why these changes are being requested?

Thank you,

RE: RGV Food Bank

Hello Ms. Jaclyn,

We would like some changes made on the MOU amended draft. As per Mr. Roman, since the original MOU has both dates of December 31, 2024 (Section 10) and December 31, 2026 (Section 4) and after consulting with the representative of the RGV Food Bank, the consensus is to use December 31, 2024. Section 9 also should have the same date - December 31, 2024.

Thank you.

Respectfully,

Ms. Jaclyn,

I have attached the draft you sent Maria. I have made some modifications for your review and approval. Words highlighted in green are phrases we would like to delete. The words in sky blue color are to be added. Finally, the words in red are probably an accidental mistake as they read, "TO GIVE" which is another organization. Mr. Rodriguez, of RGV Bank suggested the zip codes and provided me with the name of the RGV Bank Representative who will be signing the agreement.

Thank you.

Respectfully,
