

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS The County & District Clerks' Association of Texas (CDCAT) is hosting the 128th Annual Conference June 19-23, 2023 in McAllen, Texas – Hidalgo County, for the first time in CDCAT History to fulfill its statutory continuing education requirements.

WHEREAS The CDCAT Annual Conference will feature four days of professional development workshops, a business tradeshow, and will attract over 300 attendees from all 254 counties in the State of Texas to the County of Hidalgo, in addition to the presentation of Board Member succession.

WHEREAS The County & District Clerks' Association of Texas is committed to promoting professional standards, to provide a means for the education of its members regarding the statutory and constitutional duties of the offices of the county clerks, district clerks, and county and district clerks to participate in the legislative, judicial and executive processes of state government beneficial in the performance of the members' duties.

WHEREAS The CDCAT strives to personally and professionally develop its members through this year's educational theme: "Unlocking your Potential, within the Association, your County and Yourself," and effect growth which can be applied at home, work and within their respective communities.

WHEREAS The CDCAT strives to form collaborative relationships with county officials and members of the legislative, judicial and executive branches of state government.

WHEREAS The annual conference will provide not only first-rate educational opportunities for its members to expand their knowledge, learn and improve, but also opportunities to network with their clerk colleagues and get insights into the latest professional trends and practices in government.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Hidalgo County Commissioners' Court do hereby congratulate the County and District Clerks' Association on its exciting 128th Annual Conference in Hidalgo County and wish those attending a very successful and educational experience!