IMPORTANT MESSAGES

1. Maintaining flood insurance is the most important thing you can do to protect against the devastating cost of flooding. You've taken the first step by purchasing a flood insurance policy, but to maintain coverage you must renew your policy each year. More renewal information is available at www.floodsmart.gov/how-renew-your-policy.
2. Payments received 30 days or more after the expiration date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) will result in a lapse of coverage. Please note that weekends and holidays do not extend this deadline. If your policy lapses, a new application for coverage is required and you may no longer be eligible for certain premium discounts. Additionally, your new coverage will be subject to a 30-day wait which may hinder your ability to file a claim.
3. If the payor submits a payment by certified mail, the payment receipt date is the certified mail date. This also includes reputable third-party delivery services that provide proof of the actual mailing and delivery date to the insurer. Using this method can reduce the likelihood of a lapse and ensures the earliest receipt date possible. Payments mailed via USPS certified mail can be tracked by going to www.usps.com/shipping/trackandconfirm.htm.
4. If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice. If your mortgage lender pays your policy premium from an escrow account, we recommend that you confirm payment has been received. If the mortgagee listed is not the current lender, please forward this notice to the new financial institution and work with your insurance agent to correct the policy.
5. You are encouraged to insure your property for at least 80% of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact your insurance agent for details.
6. Carefully review the renewal offer being provided for accuracy. The renewal offer will expire 30 days from the effective date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) shown on this form at 12:01 a.m. Price and terms associated with this renewal offer are subject to underwriting review and may not be available after expiration of this renewal offer. Please refer to the policy for complete terms, conditions, and exclusions. Please refer to www.ambest.com for rating, financial size category and additional information on the company shown on this renewal offer.
7. Eligibility for all policy discounts are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the National Flood Insurance Program. For questions regarding your flood insurance policy rating, contact your agent.
8. Option B is the next-higher coverage combination available and generally increases the current coverage by an inflation factor of 10% for building coverage and 5% for contents coverage. The current deductible may be used. Increases in coverage above the Option B will be subject to 30-day waiting period.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

1. Maintaining flood insurance is the most important thing you can do to protect against the devastating cost of flooding. You've taken the first step by purchasing a flood insurance policy, but to maintain coverage you must renew your policy each year. More renewal information is available at www.floodsmart.gov/how-renew-your-policy.
2. Payments received 30 days or more after the expiration date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) will result in a lapse of coverage. Please note that weekends and holidays do not extend this deadline. If your policy lapses, a new application for coverage is required and you may no longer be eligible for certain premium discounts. Additionally, your new coverage will be subject to a 30-day wait which may hinder your ability to file a claim.
3. If the payor submits a payment by certified mail, the payment receipt date is the certified mail date. This also includes reputable third-party delivery services that provide proof of the actual mailing and delivery date to the insurer. Using this method can reduce the likelihood of a lapse and ensures the earliest receipt date possible. Payments mailed via USPS certified mail can be tracked by going to www.usps.com/shipping/trackandconfirm.htm.
4. If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice. If your mortgage lender pays your policy premium from an escrow account, we recommend that you confirm payment has been received. If the mortgagee listed is not the current lender, please forward this notice to the new financial institution and work with your insurance agent to correct the policy.
5. You are encouraged to insure your property for at least 80% of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact your insurance agent for details.
6. Carefully review the renewal offer being provided for accuracy. The renewal offer will expire 30 days from the effective date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) shown on this form at 12:01 a.m. Price and terms associated with this renewal offer are subject to underwriting review and may not be available after expiration of this renewal offer. Please refer to the policy for complete terms, conditions, and exclusions. Please refer to www.ambest.com for rating, financial size category and additional information on the company shown on this renewal offer.
7. Eligibility for all policy discounts are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the National Flood Insurance Program. For questions regarding your flood insurance policy rating, contact your agent.
8. Option B is the next-higher coverage combination available and generally increases the current coverage by an inflation factor of 10% for building coverage and 5% for contents coverage. The current deductible may be used. Increases in coverage above the Option B will be subject to 30-day waiting period.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

1. Maintaining flood insurance is the most important thing you can do to protect against the devastating cost of flooding. You've taken the first step by purchasing a flood insurance policy, but to maintain coverage you must renew your policy each year. More renewal information is available at www.floodsmart.gov/how-renew-your-policy.
2. Payments received 30 days or more after the expiration date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) will result in a lapse of coverage. Please note that weekends and holidays do not extend this deadline. If your policy lapses, a new application for coverage is required and you may no longer be eligible for certain premium discounts. Additionally, your new coverage will be subject to a 30-day wait which may hinder your ability to file a claim.
3. If the payor submits a payment by certified mail, the payment receipt date is the certified mail date. This also includes reputable third-party delivery services that provide proof of the actual mailing and delivery date to the insurer. Using this method can reduce the likelihood of a lapse and ensures the earliest receipt date possible. Payments mailed via USPS certified mail can be tracked by going to www.usps.com/shipping/trackandconfirm.htm.
4. If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice. If your mortgage lender pays your policy premium from an escrow account, we recommend that you confirm payment has been received. If the mortgagee listed is not the current lender, please forward this notice to the new financial institution and work with your insurance agent to correct the policy.
5. You are encouraged to insure your property for at least 80% of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact your insurance agent for details.
6. Carefully review the renewal offer being provided for accuracy. The renewal offer will expire 30 days from the effective date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) shown on this form at 12:01 a.m. Price and terms associated with this renewal offer are subject to underwriting review and may not be available after expiration of this renewal offer. Please refer to the policy for complete terms, conditions, and exclusions. Please refer to www.ambest.com for rating, financial size category and additional information on the company shown on this renewal offer.
7. Eligibility for all policy discounts are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the National Flood Insurance Program. For questions regarding your flood insurance policy rating, contact your agent.
8. Option B is the next-higher coverage combination available and generally increases the current coverage by an inflation factor of 10% for building coverage and 5% for contents coverage. The current deductible may be used. Increases in coverage above the Option B will be subject to 30-day waiting period.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

1. Maintaining flood insurance is the most important thing you can do to protect against the devastating cost of flooding. You've taken the first step by purchasing a flood insurance policy, but to maintain coverage you must renew your policy each year. More renewal information is available at www.floodsmart.gov/how-renew-your-policy.
2. Payments received 30 days or more after the expiration date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) will result in a lapse of coverage. Please note that weekends and holidays do not extend this deadline. If your policy lapses, a new application for coverage is required and you may no longer be eligible for certain premium discounts. Additionally, your new coverage will be subject to a 30-day wait which may hinder your ability to file a claim.
3. If the payor submits a payment by certified mail, the payment receipt date is the certified mail date. This also includes reputable third-party delivery services that provide proof of the actual mailing and delivery date to the insurer. Using this method can reduce the likelihood of a lapse and ensures the earliest receipt date possible. Payments mailed via USPS certified mail can be tracked by going to www.usps.com/shipping/trackandconfirm.htm.
4. If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice. If your mortgage lender pays your policy premium from an escrow account, we recommend that you confirm payment has been received. If the mortgagee listed is not the current lender, please forward this notice to the new financial institution and work with your insurance agent to correct the policy.
5. You are encouraged to insure your property for at least 80% of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact your insurance agent for details.
6. Carefully review the renewal offer being provided for accuracy. The renewal offer will expire 30 days from the effective date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) shown on this form at 12:01 a.m. Price and terms associated with this renewal offer are subject to underwriting review and may not be available after expiration of this renewal offer. Please refer to the policy for complete terms, conditions, and exclusions. Please refer to www.ambest.com for rating, financial size category and additional information on the company shown on this renewal offer.
7. Eligibility for all policy discounts are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the National Flood Insurance Program. For questions regarding your flood insurance policy rating, contact your agent.
8. Option B is the next-higher coverage combination available and generally increases the current coverage by an inflation factor of 10% for building coverage and 5% for contents coverage. The current deductible may be used. Increases in coverage above the Option B will be subject to 30-day waiting period.

IMPORTANT MESSAGES

1. Maintaining flood insurance is the most important thing you can do to protect against the devastating cost of flooding. You've taken the first step by purchasing a flood insurance policy, but to maintain coverage you must renew your policy each year. More renewal information is available at www.floodsmart.gov/how-renew-your-policy.
2. Payments received 30 days or more after the expiration date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) will result in a lapse of coverage. Please note that weekends and holidays do not extend this deadline. If your policy lapses, a new application for coverage is required and you may no longer be eligible for certain premium discounts. Additionally, your new coverage will be subject to a 30-day wait which may hinder your ability to file a claim.
3. If the payor submits a payment by certified mail, the payment receipt date is the certified mail date. This also includes reputable third-party delivery services that provide proof of the actual mailing and delivery date to the insurer. Using this method can reduce the likelihood of a lapse and ensures the earliest receipt date possible. Payments mailed via USPS certified mail can be tracked by going to www.usps.com/shipping/trackandconfirm.htm.
4. If you have already submitted payment, please disregard this notice. If your mortgage lender pays your policy premium from an escrow account, we recommend that you confirm payment has been received. If the mortgagee listed is not the current lender, please forward this notice to the new financial institution and work with your insurance agent to correct the policy.
5. You are encouraged to insure your property for at least 80% of the structure's replacement cost to ensure adequate coverage in the event of a loss. Contact your insurance agent for details.
6. Carefully review the renewal offer being provided for accuracy. The renewal offer will expire 30 days from the effective date (i.e., expiration date +29 days) shown on this form at 12:01 a.m. Price and terms associated with this renewal offer are subject to underwriting review and may not be available after expiration of this renewal offer. Please refer to the policy for complete terms, conditions, and exclusions. Please refer to www.ambest.com for rating, financial size category and additional information on the company shown on this renewal offer.
7. Eligibility for all policy discounts are subject to rules and regulations set forth by the National Flood Insurance Program. For questions regarding your flood insurance policy rating, contact your agent.
8. Option B is the next-higher coverage combination available and generally increases the current coverage by an inflation factor of 10% for building coverage and 5% for contents coverage. The current deductible may be used. Increases in coverage above the Option B will be subject to 30-day waiting period.
