Congratulations, you are now a licensed attorney in good standing with the State Bar of Texas. If you have been sworn in, you are now eligible to practice Texas. Within a few weeks an email will be sent containing instructions with a web address and a username/password to facilitate the online ordering of your pre-paid law license certificate and optional frame to display your law license certificate. Please be sure to monitor your emails, including your spam folder, for an email from noreply-sclicenses@txcourts.gov. Adding this email to your address book will help ensure receipt.

Before practicing law, you must take the oath (Tex. Gov't Code § 82.037). Click here to print a copy of the oath. Anyone authorized by law to administer an oath can swear in a new attorney. In Texas, an oath may be administered by a notary public, judge, retired judge, senior judge, clerk of a court of record, justice of the peace or clerk of a justice court, a legislator or retired legislator, the secretary of state, the attorney general, the lieutenant governor, or the governor(Tex. Gov't Code § 602.002). If you are in another state, the oath may be administered by the clerk of a court of record or a notary public (Tex. Gov't Code § 602.003). Once you have taken the oath, detach it and affix it to the back of your license, or if you have your license framed to the back of the frame. DO NOT RETURN THE OATH TO THE STATE BAR OR TO THE SUPREME COURT.

My Bar Page is a home base for attorneys on TexasBar.com. On this page Bar members can view and update their MCLE information, pay annual dues, join sections, and update their profiles. Other features include free online legal research and more. To log on to My Bar Page use your bar card number and password.
