We received your Request for Release of Funds and Certification, form HUD-7015.15 on: 9/2/25

Your Request was for HUD/State Identification Number: B18-UC-48-0501, B-20-UC4

Program Activity/Project Description

The proposed project involves improvements to Lopezville Park, located in Hidalgo County, Texas. The scope of work includes the purchase and installation of outdoor exercise equipment and playground structures. Installation activities will involve minor ground disturbance, including excavation for concrete footings and the setting of equipment per manufacturer specifications. Additional project components include professional engineering services, geotechnical investigation, construction material testing, advertisements for public notices, and other related appurtenances to support compliance and quality assurance.

All activities will take place within the existing park boundaries. No property acquisition is required; the project site is publicly owned by Hidalgo County Precinct 2. There are no planned multi-phase developments associated with this proposal. The project is intended to enhance public recreational use and accessibility for area residents.

☑ All objections, if received, have been considered. And the minimum waiting period has transpired.
You are hereby authorized to use funds provided to you under the above HUD/State Identification Number.
