

RESOLUTION IN HONOR OF UIL STATE 5A BOYS GOLF CHAMPION JUN MIN "JIMMY" LEE

WHEREAS, Sharyland High School golfer Jun Min "Jimmy" Lee has been widely regarded as the best golfer in South Texas for the past two years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lee fired a 4-under-par 68 at White Wing Gold Course in Georgetown to finish 7-under over the two-day tournament to capture the UIL Class 5A state golf championship; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lee was named Most Valuable Player by the Rio Grande Valley Golf Coaches Association as well as being named All District MVP in his senior year; and

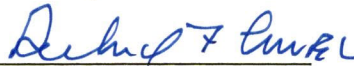

WHEREAS, he has placed first in numerous events, has been a regional qualifier all four years and a state qualifier all four years and is the first Valley golfer to win a UIL state title since San Isidro's Elijo Ramirez, Jr accomplished the feat in 1991; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lee was a sophomore when he committed to continue his golfing career at Texas A&M University. He is now ranked 27th in the nation in junior golf and is ranked 604th in the world as an amateur golfer; and

WHEREAS, he has a busy tournament schedule this year, including attempting to qualify for the United States Golf Association Junior Amateur Championship.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Hidalgo County Commissioners Court does hereby congratulate Jun Min "Jimmy" Lee for his accomplishments and wishes him the best in all his endeavors.

Approved this 6th day of June, 2019.
