

IDEA EDINBURG EAGLES BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

WHEREAS, the Idea Edinburg Eagles Boys' Cross Country team placed first at the TCSAAL State Championships on November 2, 2019 in Georgetown, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Jose Suarez, Hugo Chavarria, Fabian Garcia, Joel Solis, Isai Garcia, Uziel Vazquez, and Javier Pena were led to success by their coaches Tomas Martinez and Antonio De La Rosa. With countless hours of training and dedication they were able to come out victorious and bring home the trophy; and

WHEREAS, these young men competed locally, winning two out of eight meets, in addition to their regional meet. With their winning of regionals they were able to advance all seven teammates to compete at the state level. At state they were awarded the 2019 Texas Charter School Academic & Athletic League State Champions: and

WHEREAS, the Eagles have truly shown their excellence and commitment to the sport of Cross Country. The barriers and battles they have had to overcome to reach this point was definitely not an easy one, but their hard work paid off. This accomplishment has not only been an honor to their families, but to their school and community as well; and

WHEREAS, their achievements have been made possible with the assistance of great coaching. Through tremendous leadership and perseverance Coach Tomas Martinez motivated his students to reach their potential.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Hidalgo County Commissioners Court does hereby congratulate the Eagles Boys' Cross Country team for its state championship title.

Approved this 3rd day of December, 2019.
