Re: Third Amendment to Engagement as Special Counsel for Hidalgo County

Dear Judge Cortez,

This Third Amendment, once duly executed, amends the engagement agreement between this Firm and Hidalgo County, Texas (“County”) dated March 15, 2016, together with its Memorandum of Engagement and amendments (“Engagement Agreement”). The services provided under this Third Amendment will relate primarily to Phase II of the Hidalgo County New Courthouse Project.

This Firm will continue providing, as requested by the County, the services of David D. Peden ($375.00 per hour) and John R. Hawkins ($375.00 per hour) for services similar to those the Firm has been providing during this engagement. The charges to date and charges going forward shall be paid to the Firm.

All other terms of the Engagement Agreement and prior amendments, as applicable, remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

To accept this Third Amendment to the Engagement Agreement, please take the steps necessary to have it approved and sign below where indicated signifying the County’s agreement.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about this Third Amendment or any aspect of our services for the County. We appreciate the opportunity to continue being of service on this exciting project.

The Honorable Richard F. Cortez
