Safely Reopening California

California has phased out the “Blueprint for a Safer Economy” and color-coded tier system for counties

As of June 15, 2021, California has ended restrictions on physical distancing, capacity limits on businesses, and the county tier system. Some local public health rules and guidance may remain in effect.

Visit the State of California’s COVID-19 website at www.covid19.ca.gov to learn more.

Common Do’s and Don’ts For Daily Life

Do	Don’t
Wear a mask if you’re not vaccinated	Expect others to be ready to shake hands or hug
Wear a mask on public transit, even if you’re vaccinated	Lose your proof of vaccination
Honor mask and distancing rules in private businesses	Think you can’t get the virus or pass it on because you feel well
Wear a mask when you travel and check local rules that may be in effect	Assume everyone you meet is vaccinated
Get tested if you’re sick	Expect all COVID-19 rules everywhere to be lifted
Get tested if required by your employer	Travel into the U.S. without proof of vaccination or negative COVID-19 test
Consider getting vaccinated	Travel if you’re sick
