

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Rocky is a beloved rescue dog that was a long-time resident of the Little Elm Animal Shelter; and

WHEREAS, after spending over a year at the shelter, Rocky was adopted by a family in Little Elm; and

WHEREAS, Rocky became beloved in the community, with many residents following his adventures through the Facebook page Rocky's Road; and

WHEREAS, recently, Rocky escaped his home and sustained injuries;

WHEREAS, the same community of volunteers who supported Rocky in the past stepped forward to help search for Rocky and provide him care;

NOW, THEREFORE, we declare September 3, 2024 as Rocky the Dog Day in the Town of Little Elm, Texas in recognition of those volunteers, members of staff, and the Little Elm community who seek to make the lives of rescue animals better.

Given under my hand and Seal of the Town of Little Elm, Texas, this 3rd day of September, 2024.

---

Curtis J. Cornelious, Mayor of Little Elm