

The Ramsey Resident January/February 2022 newsletter publication advertised both Board & Commission appointments and the Charter Commission

Boards & Commissions Ad

- States the purpose of the Boards & Commissions
- States applicants should apply by February 18.

Charter Commission Ad

- Does not state the purpose of the commission.
- States seats are open until filled. However, that was factually incorrect. Residents only had until Jan. 21 to apply according to other advertisements.

Serve as an Advisor to the City Council

The City of Ramsey is accepting applications for its advisory commissions. City advisory commissions include the Economic Development Authority, Environmental Policy Board, Parks and Recreation Commission and the Planning Commission. The purpose of an advisory commission is to make specific recommendations to the City Council on current issues facing the City.

Online applications and additional information are available on the City's website at www.cityof-ramsey.com by clicking on "Boards and Commissions." You may also contact Deputy City Clerk Katie Schmidt at 763-433-9842 or kschmidt@cityoframsey.com for additional information.

Advisory commission seats are open until filled; however, the first review of applications is scheduled for February 18, 2022, followed by interviews and the start of new terms. To be considered for a seat on the board or commission of your choice, please submit an online application by February 18, 2022.

Charter Commission Vacancy

The City of Ramsey is looking for residents who are interested in serving on the Charter Commission. Appointments to the Charter Commission are made by the Chief Judge of the Tenth Judicial District. Seats are open until filled. Charter Commission members volunteer their time and do not receive a stipend.

To learn more or to apply for the Charter Commission, visit the City's website at www.cityoframsey.com by clicking on Government and then Boards and Commissions, or by contacting Colleen Lasher, Administrative Services Director at 763-433-9867 or clasher@cityoframsey.com.
