

POLICY FOR THE RECRUITMENT, APPLICATION, AND INTERVIEW PROCESS OF APPOINTING
CITY BOARD AND COMMISSION MEMBERS AND CHAIR MEMBER TERM ROTATIONS

Purpose: The Mayor and City Council of the City of Ramsey have the authority to establish volunteer boards and commissions to advise them on matters affecting the City, as detailed in Chapter 2, Article V, Section 2-155 of the City Code. The purpose of this policy is to outline a process for the recruitment, application, and interview process of appointing City board and commission members, as well as to limit Chair terms to two terms in a row.

Scope: This policy applies to the following advisory commissions established by the City of Ramsey: Economic Development Authority, Environmental Policy Board, Park and Recreation Commission and the Planning Commission. This policy excludes the Charter Commission application process. For information on the Charter Commission please visit: Charter Commission | Ramsey, MN does not include the Charter Commission; Charter Commission appointments are not made by the City Council but rather by the Chief Judge of the Tenth Judicial District.

Process: The intent of this policy is to ensure that openings on City boards and commissions are publicized to the community at large, that applicants are evaluated objectively and treated fairly and courteously, and that members of boards and commissions are selected on the basis of their qualifications and suitability for the position.

4. Incumbent reapplication process for odd number term reappointment requests

Incumbents seeking reappointment for the third, fifth, seventh, etc. term, the following policy applies: Annually, the Human Resources Manager staff will notify commission members by December 1st reminding them of their upcoming term expiration and inviting invite them to attend a voluntary interactive feedback session with the City Council to complete and submit a brief letter of intent indicating their desire to continue serving, along with the option for highlighting additional information such as accomplishments, personal contributions to the commission, and ideas for improving the effectiveness of the board or commission, for review by the City Council. This will also be an opportunity for the City Council to ask additional questions of the incumbent.

The chair of each board or commission for which appointments are being considered will be invited to submit written comments to the City Council, making a recommendation regarding reappointment. If the chair is the incumbent, the vice-chair will be contacted; if both are incumbents, the most senior member of the board or commission will be contacted. The form for written comments will be provided by the city. The final decision regarding appointments will rest with the City Council.

Incumbent reapplication process for even number term reappointment requests

Incumbents seeking reappointment for the second, fourth, sixth, etc. term, the following policy applies: Annually, staff will notify commission members by December 1st reminding them of the upcoming term expiration. If the incumbent wishes to be reappointed, a brief letter of intent January 24, 2023 Draft Policy for Recruitment, Application, and Interview Process of Appointing City Board and Commission Members.

will not be required; however the chair of each board or commission for which appointments are being considered will be invited to submit written comments to the City Council, making a recommendation regarding reappointment. If the chair is the incumbent, the vice-chair will be contacted; if both are incumbents, the most senior member of the board or commission will be contacted. The form for written comments will be provided by the city. The final decision regarding appointments will rest with the City Council.

The general policy for all incumbents will include the following process:

In one collective process, concurrent with new applicants, the City Council will meet, discuss, and determine whether or not a recommendation for reappointment will be made.

If it is determined that the City Council does not wish to reappoint the incumbent, the incumbent will be notified, and that individual's seat will be advertised. If it is determined that the incumbent will be reappointed, the incumbent will be notified, and the seat will not be advertised.

Regardless of the incumbent reapplication status, all board and commissions will be advertised to the public. This is important in order to secure as many applicants as possible for unexpected or unforeseen mid-recruitment vacancies.

In the event that a commissioner does not wish to be reappointed, staff will be offer them an opportunity to contact member(s) of the City Council to discuss any concerns that they may have.

2. New member application process

Annually, prior to the normal ending date of boards and commissions terms, the Human Resources Manager staff will prepare a detailed notice of position availability for publication in the City's January/February newsletter and in the City's official newspaper, as required by the Charter. The notice will publicize that applications are being accepted for boards and commissions, including the Economic Development Authority, Environmental Policy Board, Park and Recreation Commission and Planning Commission. The notice will provide language stating that applications will be considered by the City Council for current openings and future vacancies occurring in the next annual recruitment cycle. The notice will provide an application closing date of the last Friday in February.

The application materials will remain open on the City's website year-round. When an application is received, staff will make contact with the applicant to confirm the receipt of the application and advise the applicant of what to expect going forward based on the current recruiting needs of the City.

Unexpected Vacancy Process

Periodically, when an unexpected vacancy on a board or commission occurs, the staff board or commission staff liaison to the commission will notify the Human Resources Manager head of Human Resources, who will take one of the following two three actions:

Refer to new applicants' applications that have been received through the continuous posting period, but not yet interviewed by the City Council and schedule mid-year interviews for the current vacancy.

4) If options 1 and 2 above are not viable, prepare a detailed notice of position availability for publication once in the City newsletter with an application deadline date of the last day of the month of the first month of the newsletter edition and in the City's official newspaper, as required by the Charter. The City Administrator will provide the head of human resources with direction as to if this step should occur or to wait until the next annual recruitment process.

Formatted: Normal, No bullets or numbering

The application deadline will be no less than two weeks after the date of publication or posting in the City's official newspaper.

3. INTERVIEWS

Formatted: All caps

~~Staff The Human Resources Manager~~ will arrange interview times and notify applicants and the City Council of the arrangements.

Formatted: No bullets or numbering

If there are more than five applicants per the total number of vacancies to be filled for a vacancy, the City Council will evaluate the applications and select five applicants to be interviewed.

Interview questions will be determined before the interview based on qualifications identified as necessary, as well as to accurately identify each applicant's knowledge, skills, and abilities, and the benefits that the applicant, if appointed, what they may bring to the board or commission in the future.

All applicants will be asked the same questions. Depending on responses, some follow-up questions will differ from candidate to candidate for purposes of clarification.

The City Council will evaluate applicants by comparing responses to interview questions, information contained in the letter of interest/application, and potential contribution to the existing diversity of expertise, experience and geographic representation on the applicable board or commission.

Interviews will not be televised but will be held in an open meeting.

4. Selection

Formatted: No bullets or numbering

Recommendations from the City Council regarding appointments will be forwarded to the next regular meeting of the City Council for consideration.

When vacancies occur on the Economic Development Authority ~~DA~~, the Mayor will make a recommendation for appointment to the City Council.

Except where a vacancy unexpectedly occurs, creating a vacant seat mid-term, all new appointments or reappointments to regular terms on a City board or commission will be effective on April 1. This is to allow the current members of the City Council the opportunity to review and select individuals for seats on boards and commissions.

Chair and vice-chair selections are generally decided by each board or commission in April. The City Council desires to offer members the opportunity to grow their experience on the commission; therefore, following a maximum of two consecutive terms as Chair of the respective commission, a new Chair will be selected. The outgoing Chair may be appointed to the Vice-chair role

5. NOTIFICATION TO APPLICANTS

After the appointments have been approved, the Human Resources Manager staff will notify all applicants of the results of the process and take the necessary steps to on-board new members.
