

Riley A. Armstrong

Biography

Riley was born and raised in Roswell and the Hondo Valley. After graduating from high school at NMMI, he graduated from Lubbock Christian College with a degree in business administration. Following graduation from college, Riley spent several years in the ready mixed concrete industry, construction materials business along with farming and ranching businesses.

In August of 2012, Riley began a new career in the real estate business. He has been a Top Producer of the Roswell Association of Realtors every year since 2013. He was awarded the 2017 Realtor of the Year by the Roswell Association of Realtors.

Riley is currently an Associate Broker with Keller Williams in Roswell. Prior to being licensed with Keller Williams, he was the owner of Century 21 Home Planning in Roswell from 2015 to 2025.

Riley has served on numerous local community and state boards, including as president of the NM Concrete, Sand and Gravel Association, the Roswell Girls Club, the Roswell Rotary Club and as a member of the Historical Foundation for Southeast New Mexico. He currently serves as a board member of the Roswell Assurance Home and as a past director of the Roswell Association of Realtors. He also served as a member of the Roswell Planning & Zoning Commission for 10 years and as Chairman for the last two years of his second term. Riley also served as the Vice Chairman of the City of Roswell Airport Commission for a period of 3 years. In addition, Riley is a past President and an Honorary Rotarian of the Roswell Rotary Club and a recipient of the Paul Harris Fellow award.

Riley and his wife, Patricia Greenwade attend Grace Community Church.
