

38-847.01. Membership in retirement plan; eligibility

A. Each employee of an eligible group shall participate in the plan on proper determination of eligibility for membership by the local board pursuant to section 38-847, subsection D.

B. The employer shall provide to the local board all necessary information to render a decision on the employee's eligibility for membership. The information shall include:

1. The date the employee was hired or appointed to the position.
2. The employee's position title.
3. A description of the essential functions for the position.

C. An employee receiving a pension from the plan is not subject to this section, but is subject to section 38-849.