- a) The house we are building at 1316 E C St San Luis AZ, 85349 currently has some space on the east side of the house, but not enough space for a future pool.
- b) I am submitting this variance application form to request moving the house being built 2 feet into the west side setbacks.
- c) Moving the house 2 feet into the west side setback will only put the columns of the front of the house into the setback area. I have attached the site plan reflecting the 2 feet into the setback.
- d) I have spoken to the neighbors around and this request will not affect them in any way. Along with this application I have attached their signatures agreeing to this request.

Thank You
