My dad bought approximately 33 acres in Bexar county approximately 34 years ago. He built a house and barn on part of the property and the rest he sprigged coastal bermuda on. For years he raised and sold horse quality coastal hay. Dad passed away in 2021 and my sister and I inherited the place. We sold the field shortly after we received ownership. I had lived with dad in his house since 2003 so I decided to buy out my sister so that I can continue living here. The reason I'm asking for the rezoning is because of the way my property is zoned now I cannot add or build anything on it. The only thing I can do is make repairs. Like my dad said when he built this place he was never going to move and would die here. I feel the same way, I do not plan on moving. I would very much appreciate y'all changing my zoning to R&A and I appreciate y'all's consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
Michael T Burnette
