

Volunteer Impact Report

Introduction

Texas A & M's AgriLife Extension Agency is proud to partner with Williamson County to better the lives of its citizens. Our four county Extension Agents rely on vetted, trained volunteers to further their reach in their work with Wilco residents. From better nutrition to leadership growth in students, from improved home horticulture to increased environmental awareness, we are making a difference!

Key Impact Metrics

Total Donated Monetary Value:	Total Number of Volunteers:	Total Hours Donated:
$1,427,158.35	535	42,615

Impact by Agent

Williamson County 4-H Youth Development Brittany Allen - 4-H CEA

Volunteers: 122
 Hours Donated: 3,601
 Monetary Value*: $120,579.49

Williamson County Master Naturalists Shelley Franklin - NR CEA

Volunteers: 239
 Hours Donated: 18,917
 Monetary Value*: $633,530.33

Williamson County Master Gardeners Gary Pastushok - Horticulture CEA

Volunteers: 117
 Hours Donated: 12,701
 Monetary Value*: $425,356.49

Williamson County Master Wellness & TEEA Jennifer Powell - FCH CEA

Volunteers: 57
 Hours Donated: 7,396
 Monetary Value*: $247,692.04

*Monetary Value based on the national standard of $33.49 per volunteer hour.