

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

THAT ON THIS, the 22nd day of September 2026, the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas, met in duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, with the following members present;

Steve Snell, County Judge
Terry Cook, Commissioner, Precinct One
Cynthia Long, Commissioner, Precinct Two
Valerie Covey, Commissioner, Precinct Three
Russ Boles, Commissioner, Precinct Four

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, childhood cancer is a devastating disease that effects children, families, and communities, and raising awareness is essential to increasing understanding, supporting affected families, and advancing efforts to find better treatments and cures, and

WHEREAS, September is recognized as Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, providing an opportunity to honor children and families affected by cancer, remember those who have lost their lives, and recognize the strength and courage of childhood cancer survivors; and

WHEREAS, Childhood cancer impacts not only young patients, but also parents, siblings, caregivers, educators, healthcare professionals, and communities who come together to provide emotional, financial, and practical support throughout a child's cancer journey; and

WHEREAS, Greater awareness of childhood cancer helps promote early recognition of symptoms, encourages support for pediatric cancer research, and highlights the importance of access to compassionate, specialized healthcare and resources for every child and family facing a cancer diagnosis; and

WHEREAS, Our community can make a difference by supporting childhood cancer organizations, research initiatives, affected families, and survivors, while creating hope and reminding children battling cancer that they are not alone; and

WHEREAS, Childhood Cancer Awareness Month serves as an opportunity for our community to unite in raising awareness, honoring the courage of young cancer patients and survivors, supporting their families, remembering those we have lost, and working toward a future where every child diagnosed with cancer has the opportunity to live a healthy and fulfilling life:

NOW THEREFORE Be It Resolved that the Williamson County Commissioners Court declares the month of September 2026, as

National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month

RESOLVED THIS 22nd DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 2026
