

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

THAT ON the 23rd day of July, 2008, at Industry Appreciation Night, the following members of the Williamson County Commissioners Court:

Lisa L. Birkman, Commissioner Precinct One

Ron Morrison, Commissioner Precinct Four

recognized and acknowledged the following:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Williamson County Commissioners Court recognizes the importance of industry to our overall county's vitality and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, existing industries contribute significantly to the local quality of life through corporate and employee community service; and

WHEREAS, existing industries support community charitable, social civic, and cultural organizations to further improve the quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the high quality of the education system, the diversified educational opportunities through Texas State University, and the future home of the Texas A & M Health Science Center College of Medicine enhance job growth and economic development; and

WHEREAS, the strong and diversified economic base, low cost of living, rising incomes and job growth have resulted in Round Rock being chosen #7 in Money Magazine's top 100 cities in the United States to live;

NOW THEREFORE, the Williamson County Commissioners Court duly recognizes and extends appreciation to our local industries for their tireless effort and their contributions that make Williamson County a great place to live and work,

RESOLVED THIS 5th DAY OF AUGUST, 2008.

County Judge, Dan Gattis

Commissioner Lisa Birkman - Precinct One

Commissioner Ron Morrison - Precinct Four

ATTEST:

Nancy Rister, County Clerk
