

The primary care safety net for
Williamson County

LSCC History

- Started as one clinic in 2002
- Secured FQHC status in December 2004
- Today, 9 clinic locations in Williamson County
 - Primary medical care for children, adults, and seniors
 - Adult and Child & Adolescent psychiatry and Behavioral Health
 - OB/GYN-prenatal, labor & delivery, post-partum
 - Dentistry

Integrated Behavioral Health Model

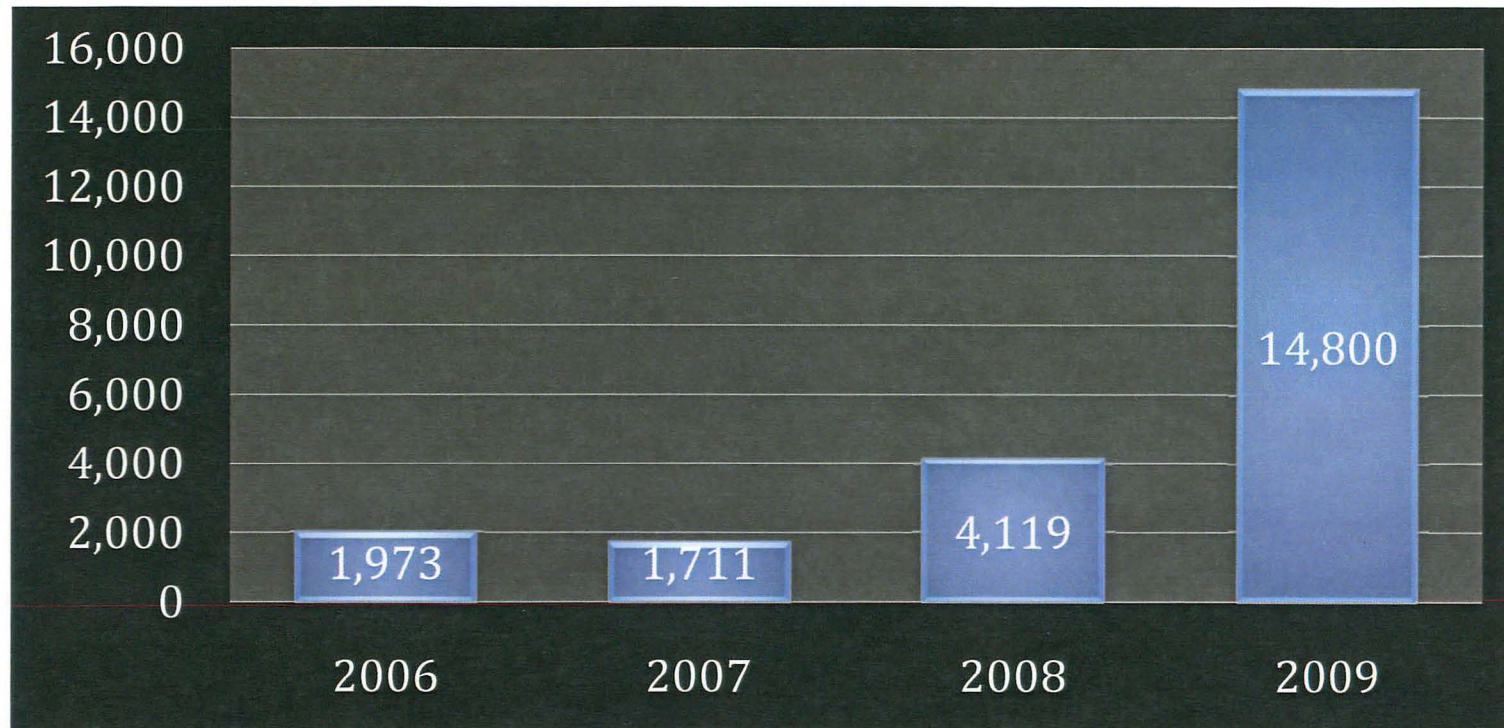

- Co-management of patient care between primary care providers and behavioral health providers ensures patient's physical and mental health needs are met
- Currently employees 8 behavioral health professionals
 - 4 Psychiatrists (2.6 clinical FTE)
 - 1 Child Psychologist (PhD)
 - 2 Licensed Social Workers (LCSW)
 - 1 Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC)
- 10% of our total projected patient visits in 2009 will be for mental health patients

LSCC – Psychiatry and Behavioral Medicine

- Texas A&M
 - Psychiatry – 3rd Year Medical Students
 - Psychiatric Resident education and supervision
- Dual Diagnosis
 - Co-morbid Psychiatric and Substance Use Disorders (SUD)
 - In-office Opiate addiction treatment and other specific SUD treatments
- Psychotherapy
 - Group, couples/family
 - Round Rock ISD
 - Psychological testing
- Case Management Services
- Patient Assistance Program for Psychiatric Medications

LSCC Mental Health Visits

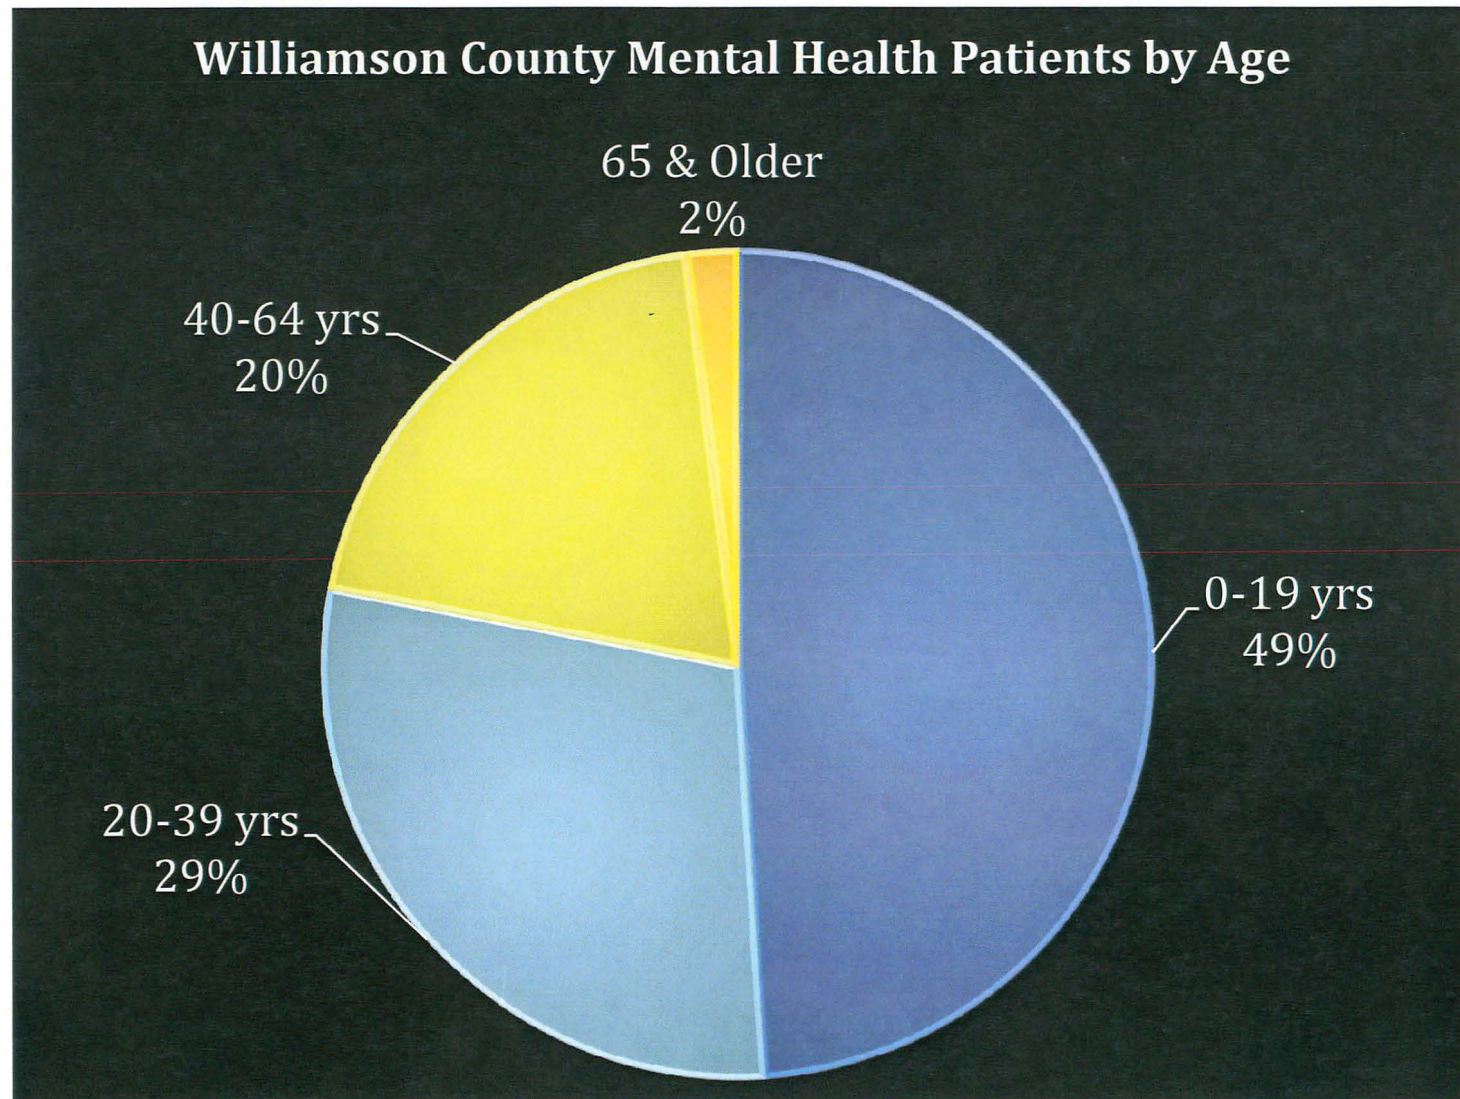

- 2006: Dr. Ripley (psychiatrist) hired in May; joined 1 LPC who resigned due to illness, which explains the decrease from 2006 to 2007
- 2007: Dr. Engel (child psychologist) hired in August; Sandra Grisales (LMSW) hired in October
- 2008: Joan Maus (LMSW) hired in April; Dr. Asamoah (part-time child psychiatrist) hired in May; Roxane Royalty (adult LPC) hired August; Dr. Prenzlauer (psychiatrist) hired in September; Dr. Scott (part-time child psychiatrist) hired in December

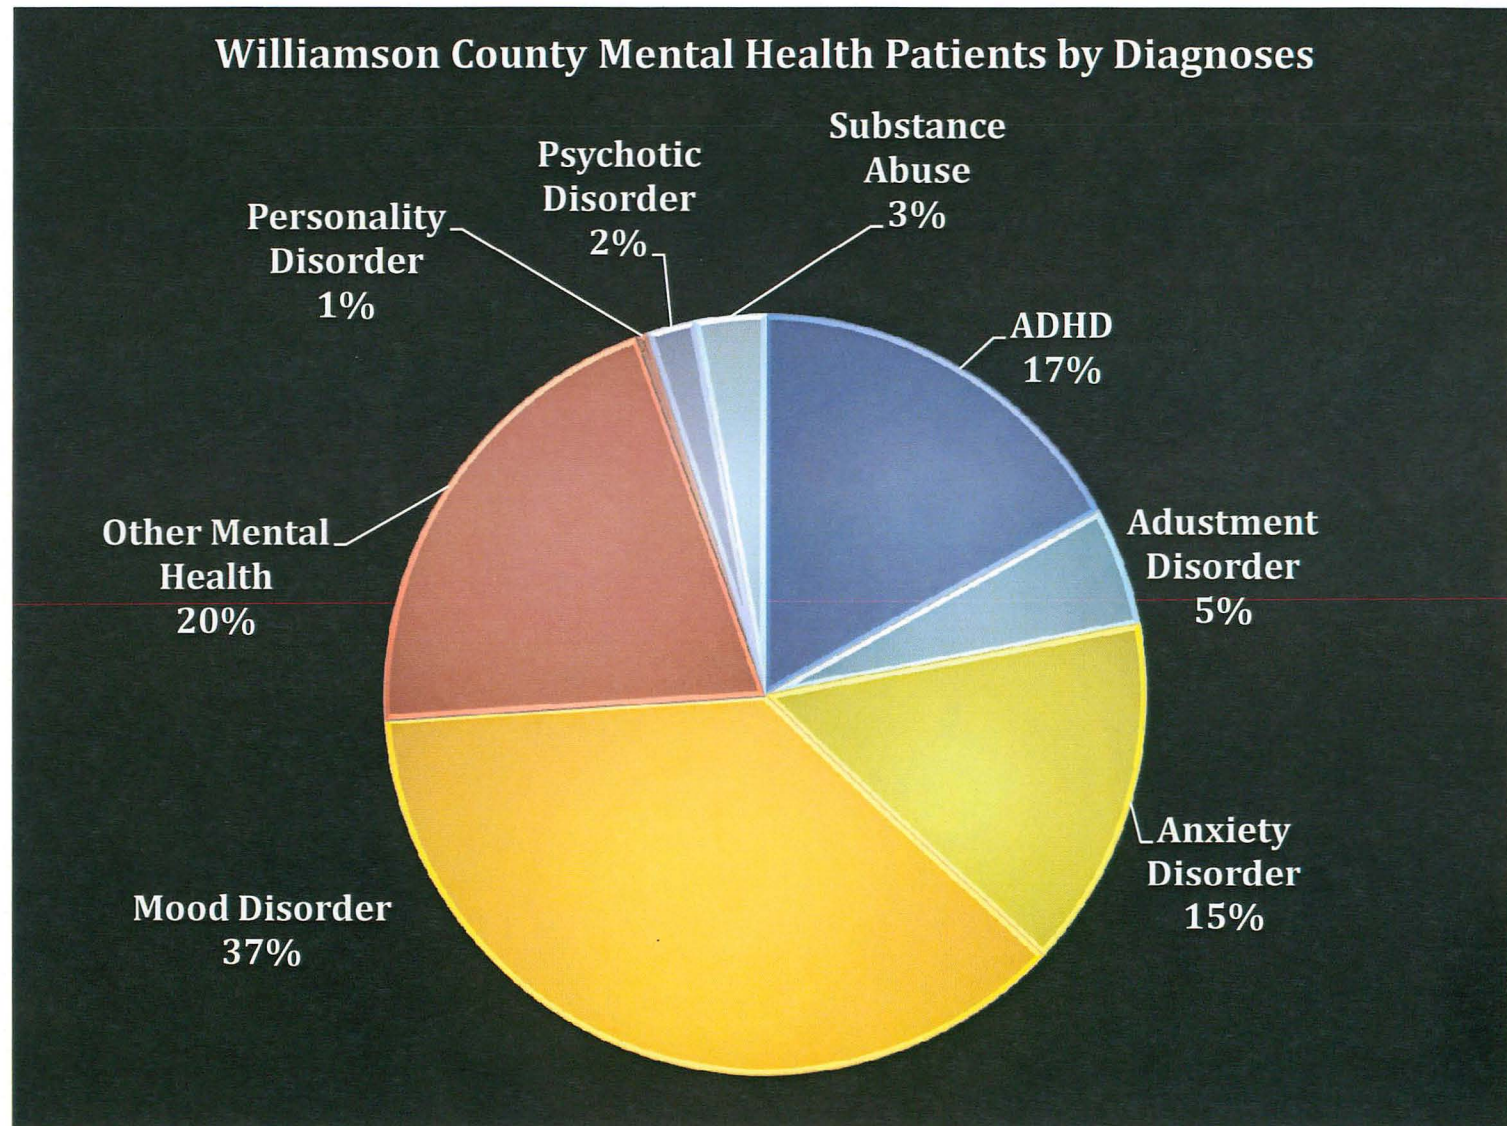

Williamson County Mental Health Demographics

- 77% of all LSCC behavioral health patients live in Williamson County
- From October to December 2008, LSCC has facilitated 1,332 mental health patient visits for 513 Williamson County residents
 - LSCC has expended $225,108 of our $320,000 grant from Williamson County
 - By the end of FY 2009 period (10/1/08 through 9/30/09) LSCC will provide more than $1M of qualified mental health encounters to Williamson County residents
- 57% of patients are female, and 43% are male

Williamson County Mental Health Demographics

Williamson County Mental Health Demographics

LSCC Future Initiatives

- Texas A&M Health Center College of Medicine
- Collaborative Care with BBT
- Georgetown hub at Lake Aire
- Starry