

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

That on this, the 10th day of February, 2009, the Commissioner's Court of Williamson County, Texas, met in a duly called session at the Williamson County Courthouse with the following members present:

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge
Lisa Birkman, Commissioner Precinct One
Cynthia Long, Commissioner Precinct Two
Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct Three
Ron Morrison, Commission Precinct Four

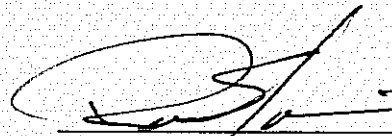

And at said meeting among other business, the Court considered the following:

RESOLUTION

- Whereas, Stony Point High School, the newest high school in the Round Rock Independent School District, in its short existence, has positioned itself as a reflector of what a strong work ethic, training and sportsmanship can produce, and
- Whereas, The 2008 Stony Point High School football team is a true testament of what determination, dedication and a passion to win can accomplish,
- Whereas, The players on the Stony Point High School football team are shining examples of the school's commitment to success in all aspects of life, and
- Whereas, These fine young athletes put tremendous effort into the development of their offensive and defensive skills and their precision and coordination as a team, and
- Whereas, The achievement of this level of excellence in the game of football requires an outstanding spirit of dedication, enthusiasm, determination and heart by all persons involved in the team's success; and
- Whereas, The Round Rock community and Williamson County are extremely proud of the accomplishments of the Stony Point football team, Coach Craig Chessher and his entire coaching staff; and
- Whereas, That on December 6th, 2008, in Floyd Casey Stadium in Waco, Texas, the Stony Point Tigers defeated Dallas Skyline 28—14, claiming a quarter final victory, the highest victory ever received by a Round Rock team
- Therefore, Be it Resolved that the Williamson County Commissioners Court is proud to proclaim February 5, 2009 as Stony Point High School Day.

RESOLVED THIS 10th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 2009.

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge

Ron E. Morrison,
Commissioner, Pct. 4

Nancy E. Ruster, County Clerk
