

WHEREAS, Williamson County takes great pride in recognizing the centennial anniversary of Jarrell, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Jarrell, Texas was founded by O.D. Jarrell and E.C. Haeber in 1909 on the old stagecoach road and the proposed right-of-way of the Bartlett and Western Railway; and

WHEREAS, The citizens of Jarrell, Texas, both past and present, have shown perseverance and courage to rebound the rise and fall of the cotton industry, The Great Depression, the closing of the Bartlett and Western Railway and the tornado of 1997; and

WHEREAS, The City of Jarrell has become one of the fastest growing communities in Williamson County but Jarrell citizens continue to value and promote a community based on their love of God, and their love, support and friendship for their neighbors; now therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, that Williamson County Commissioners Court will hereby declare April 11, 2009 as

Jarrell, Texas Day

In Williamson County Precinct 3 and urge all to join us in wish them a prosperous road to their next century of growth.