

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

THAT ON THIS, the 30th day of June, 2009, the Commissioners' Court of Williamson County, Texas met in a duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, and at said meeting, among other business, the court approved the following:

A donation to the Williamson County Memorial Tree Program.

A living memorial has been donated in honor of:

Troy Bijou

and a Chinquapin Oak Tree will be planted this fall at the Juvenile Services Center in a memorial grove located at 1821 S.E. Inner Loop in Georgetown. In addition, Troy's name will be inscribed in the Williamson County Memorial Registry located in the office of the park's director.

With special thanks to:

The Juvenile Services Department

"He who plants a tree plants hope."

Lucy Larcom

The Commissioners' Court of Williamson County and its citizens hope that you find solace in the fact that this lovely tree, symbolic of strength and future, will grace the memorial grove at the Juvenile Services Center.

Judge Dan A. Gattis

ATTEST:

Nancy E. Rister
