

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

THAT ON THIS, the 11th day of August, 2009, the Commissioners' Court of Williamson County, Texas met in a duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, and at said meeting, among other business, the court approved the following:

A donation to the Williamson County Memorial Tree Program.

A living memorial has been donated in memory of:

Rodney Shawn Morris, Jr.
"LONESTAR"

and a Pecan Tree will be planted in Berry Springs Park & Preserve
1801 CR 152, Georgetown, Texas

With special thanks to:

Employees of the Williamson County
Juvenile Services Department

"He who plants a tree plants hope."

Lucy Larcom

The Commissioners' Court of Williamson County and its citizens hope that you find solace in the fact that this lovely tree, symbolic of strength and future, will grace our Berry Springs Park and Preserve.

Dan A. Gaffis, County Judge

ATTEST:

Nancy E. Rister, County Clerk

