

State of Texas
County of Williamson

Know all men by these presents:

The United States Congress officially recognized the end of World War I when it passed a concurrent resolution on June 4, 1926, with these words:

Whereas the 11th of November 1918, marked the cessation of the most destructive, sanguinary, and far reaching war in human annals and the resumption by the people of the United States of peaceful relations with other nations, which we hope may never again be severed, and

Whereas it is fitting that the recurring anniversary of this date should be commemorated with thanksgiving and prayer and exercises designed to perpetuate peace through good will and mutual understanding between nations; and

Whereas the legislatures of twenty-seven of our States have already declared November 11 to be a legal holiday; Therefore be it Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), that the President of the United States is requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the officials to display the flag of the United States on all Government buildings on November 11 and inviting the people of the United States to observe the day in schools and churches, or other suitable places, with appropriate ceremonies of friendly relations with all other peoples, AND

Whereas Williamson County has had a Veteran's Services office for many years and the following Veteran's Services Department employees

- Donna Harrell, Director
- Randy Marshall, Assistant County Service Officer
- Valerie Zimmerman, Assistant County Service Officer
- James "J.W." Bell, Administrative Assistant

Work diligently in assisting Veterans to obtain the benefits that they so richly deserve from the Federal and State government, and in finding help with other agencies for other needs, AND

Whereas Williamson County Veterans Services has been the recipient of many awards and recognitions, most recently the recognition of Valerie Zimmerman in October, 2010 by the Veteran County Service Officers Association of Texas with a Certificate of Honor as an Outstanding County Service Officer; and further that Mrs. Zimmerman has recently completed her accreditation training with the Department of Veterans Affairs, resulting in the full Accreditation of all Counselors within this Department; AND

Whereas Williamson County Commissioners Court hereby wishes to thank the Veteran's Services Department employees for their service to the Veterans' of Williamson County, and wishes to thank all veterans within the County for their service to this great Country,

BE IT NOW KNOWN, that the Williamson County Commissioner's Court hereby declares the week of November 7-13, 2010 as

Veteran Service Officer Recognition Week

And that all citizens to recognize these officers for their services and to thank each Veteran for their service.

Attest:

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge

Nancy E. Rister, County Clerk
