

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

THAT ON THIS, the 26th day of April, 2011, the Commissioners' Court of Williamson County, Texas met in a duly called session at the Courthouse in Georgetown, and at said meeting, among other business, the court approved the following:

A donation to the Williamson County Memorial Tree Program and a living memorial has been donated in memory of

CHERYL ELAINE KELLOUGH

and a Red Crepe Myrtle will be planted on the grounds of the Williamson County Adult Probation Offices
301 S.E. Inner Loop Road
Georgetown, TX

With special thanks to:

CO-WORKERS & FRIENDS OF WILLIAMSON COUNTY
ADULT PROBATION

"He who plants a tree plants hope."

Lucy Larcom

The Commissioners' Court of Williamson County and its citizens hope that you find solace in the fact that this lovely tree, symbolic of strength and future, will grace the grounds of the Adult Probation Offices in Georgetown.

Dan A. Gattis
County Judge

ATTEST:

Nancy E. Rister
County Clerk
