

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

That on the 18th day of November 2014 the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas met in duly called session at the Williamson County Courthouse, 710 Main Street, Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge
Lisa L. Birkman, Commissioner Precinct One
Cynthia P. Long, Commissioner Precinct Two
Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct Three
Ron Morrison, Commissioner Precinct Four

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Bride Roberts began employment with the Williamson County and Cities Health District (WCCHD) as an Environmental Health Technician on March 3, 1986 and by October 1988, moved into the Indigent Health Care Program and began a close working relationship with the Williamson County Commissioners Court; and

WHEREAS, in January 1992, Bride became a licensed caseworker and became the Assistant Director for Integrated Eligibility Services in 1993, now known as Community Health Education and Social Services; and

WHEREAS, Bride Roberts diligently worked with the Commissioners Court to establish a Third Party Administrator (TPA) policies and a selection process, which is currently the Williamson County Clinical Services (WCCS); and

WHEREAS, in October 2004, Bride began serving on the steering committee that organized and formed the Texas Indigent Health Care Association (TIHCA) which became operational in April 2005, serving as a charter board member representing Williamson County on indigent healthcare matters in the statewide association; and

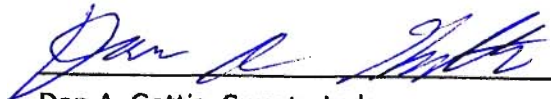

WHEREAS, Bride actively served in the TICHA organization, playing an instrumental role in developing draft language for legislative consideration and rising into leadership positions on the Board of Directors, serving as the Chair of the Board of Directors from 2009 to 2012, Immediate Past Chair from 2012 to 2014, before retiring from the Board in October 2014 when her term of office expired; and

WHEREAS, Bride has also embraced leadership positions within the WCCHD administrative team, acting as lead and coordinator for WCCHD Accreditation, the Continuous Quality Improvement Process and the agency-wide transition to Policy Tech, an electronic document management system; and

WHEREAS, Bride Roberts will officially retire on November 30th, 2014 from the WCCHD, after a long and successful public health career in service to the people of Williamson County.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED; that the Williamson County Commissioners Court would like to honor and recognize the accomplishments of Bride Roberts, thanking her for her passion, commitment and dedication to the people of Williamson County and wish her well as she begins retirement.

RESOLVED THIS 18th DAY OF NOVEMBER 2014.

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge