

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

That on September 15, 2015 the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas met in a duly called session at the Williamson County Courthouse, 710 Main Street, Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge
Lisa Birkman, Commissioner Precinct One
Cynthia Long, Commissioner Precinct Two
Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct Three
Ron Morrison, Commissioner Precinct Four

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Williamson County Commissioners Court recognizes the Hutto Fire Rescue as a Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Fire Department.

WHEREAS, The Texas Fire Chiefs Association, an affiliate organization of the Texas Municipal League, developed a voluntary process known as the Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program. Through this program, fire departments in Texas prove their compliances with Texas fire service's best practices to meet their professional obligation to the citizens of Texas and their respective jurisdiction.

WHEREAS, The Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program provides a pathway for a fire department to push its level of service to a level of excellence that is validated by independent experts. Hutto Fire Rescue has been working on this program for almost two years.

WHEREAS,
The Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program graded 12 areas of Hutto Fire Rescue's operation.

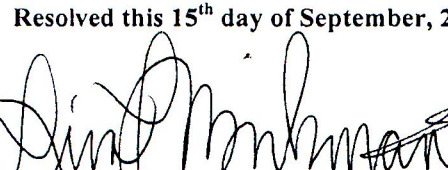

WHEREAS, The Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program is a comprehensive self-assessment and evaluation model that enables Hutto Fire Rescue to examine current levels and internal performance. It is a snap-shot of how we deliver our services to our customers today and what we can do better. Consequently, this process leads to improved service delivery.

WHEREAS, The Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program allows Hutto Fire Rescue to compare our performance to Texas industry best practices.

WHEREAS, The Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program establishes the needed criteria to assess professional performance and efficiency, and provides a well-defined, recognized benchmark system to measure the quality of fire and emergency services.

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED THAT the Williamson County Commissioners Court acknowledges that on September 2, 2015, the Hutto Fire Rescue received the award and designation of "Recognized Best Practices Fire Department" from the Texas Fire Chiefs Association Best Practices Recognition Program.

Resolved this 15th day of September, 2015.)

Lisa Birkman, Commissioner Precinct 1

Dan A. Gattis, County Judge

Cynthia Long, Commissioner Precinct 2

Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct 3

Ron Morrison, Commissioner Precinct 4
