The items listed in the preceding sentence are referred to in this Contract as the "Completion Evidence."

After the Completion Evidence is delivered by Purchaser to Seller, representatives of Seller and Purchaser shall inspect the Work at a mutually agreeable time. At such inspection, the representatives of Seller and Purchaser shall prepare a list of all items to be completed or corrected in order to complete the Work as required under this Contract (the "Deficiencies"). Thereafter, Purchaser shall promptly correct such Deficiencies and deliver new Completion Evidence to Purchaser for further inspection under the provisions set forth above. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, Purchaser shall remain responsible for (and shall remedy at Purchaser's sole expense in a timely manner) any defects in the Work (including any defects in design or construction), regardless of whether or not such defects were listed as Deficiencies in a notice given to Purchaser pursuant to the provisions set out above, but only to the extent of the requirements set out in this Section 2.03 and in the written warranty and maintenance bond referenced above in this Section 2.03.

If no Escrow Deposit has been made, then Seller shall receive the amount of $5,000.00 as liquidated damages for the failure by Purchaser to consummate the purchase of the Property under the terms and provisions of this Contract.
