

Agenda Item 40 12-18-2018

Anna Lan

Anna Lan is a certified planner with more than 8 years of experience in transportation and strategic planning. She has an undergraduate degree in International Relations from University of Southern California (USC) and a Master's degree in Urban Planning from Columbia University. After working abroad as a consultant, she has returned to her native Texas as a planner for the county.