PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the month of May 2019 is observed as Mental Health Awareness month this year's theme is "Strength in Community". Through collaboration, the Williamson County Behavioral Health Task Force, the Child and Youth Behavioral Health subcommittee, Alan's Hope and the Williamson County Wellness Alliance have identified the Top 5 Health Priorities for Williamson County.

WHEREAS, Behavioral Health, Stress, and Well-being—focus on decreasing poor mental health, stress, and substance abuse; and

WHEREAS, Chronic Disease Risk Factors—focus on increasing healthy food access and physical activity; and

WHEREAS, Social Determinants of Health—focus on increasing affordable and safe housing, access to transportation, and workforce development; and

WHEREAS, Access and Affordability of Healthcare—focus on increasing dental care and improving access to affordable health insurance for vulnerable populations; and

WHEREAS, Building a Resilient Williamson County—focus on increasing the community's ability to utilize available resources to respond to, withstand, and recover from adverse situations; and

WHEREAS, mental health is important to all and if left untreated, can lead to lost productivity, broken relationships, significant dysfunction and negative impacts on children.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT PROCLAIMED; that the Williamson County Commissioners Court observes the month of May as "Mental Health Awareness Month".

PROCLAIMED THIS 21ST DAY OF MAY 2019.

Bill Gravell Jr. – County Judge
