

Early in his career Bill Lawson served as a volunteer fire fighter for eight years and held an EMT certification. He helped work on the budget while there. Bill was elected to the Cedar Park City Council for eight years and served as Mayor pro tem during his tenure. Most of his career has been spent in water/wastewater facility operations where he has also managed employees and worked on multi-million-dollar budgets. He served as Public Works Director of Jarrell for ten years and holds multiple TCEQ licenses for wastewater and inspection services. Bill started his own company, Lawson Water/Wastewater Solutions, Inc. in early 2014 and operates water and wastewater facilities for municipalities. Bill enjoys volunteering on his church safety team and as a church greeter. He has also enjoyed volunteering within the Jarrell parks community with landscaping.
