

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

That on the 1st day of September 2020 the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas met in duly called session at the Williamson County Courthouse, 710 Main Street, Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

Bill Gravell, Jr., County Judge
Terry Cook, Commissioner Precinct One
Cynthia P. Long, Commissioner Precinct Two
Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct Three
Russ Boles, Commissioner Precinct Four

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following:

WHEREAS, Williamson County proudly supports each of the cities within its boundaries; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic has created economic hardships for many local restaurants and businesses; and

WHEREAS, in an effort to help with a much-needed recovery, the City of Georgetown is allowing businesses to apply for the temporary expansion of outdoor seating and retail service within the city's right of way and parking spaces in downtown; and

WHEREAS, downtown business owners who apply for the program and are approved can use portions of the sidewalks and streets in front of their storefronts during specified days and times for restaurant dining and the display of retail goods; and

WHEREAS, for the upcoming Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4-6, residents and visitors will have the opportunity to shop at sidewalk sales and dine downtown during the kick-off for extended outdoor seating and retail service areas; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Williamson County Commissioners Court supports the City of Georgetown's efforts to facilitate the physical distancing of patrons to comply with the current health orders and draw people to its downtown to support establishments by shopping and eating locally.

Bill Gravell, Jr. – County Judge
