

State of Texas
County of Williamson
Know all men by these presents:

That on the 25th day of October 2022 the Commissioners Court of Williamson County, Texas met in duly called session at the Williamson County Courthouse, 710 Main Street, Georgetown, Texas, with the following members present:

Bill Gravell, Jr., County Judge
Terry Cook, Commissioner Precinct One
Cynthia P. Long, Commissioner Precinct Two Valerie Covey, Commissioner Precinct Three Russ Boles, Commissioner Precinct Four

And at said meeting, among other business, the Court considered the following:

WHEREAS, 2022 marks the Christi Center's 35th anniversary of providing hope and healing to central Texas mourning the loss of loved ones; and

WHEREAS, for those 35 years, the Christi Center has focused on its core values of providing ongoing grief support at no cost to individuals and families as long as needed, educating and increasing community awareness on issues affecting the bereaved, and building community partnerships to better support central Texans in grief; and

WHEREAS, Don and Susan Cox founded the Christi Center after the loss of their daughter, Christi Lanahan, and have provided selfless commitment, leadership, and support so others could find comfort, hope, and healing; and

WHEREAS, the Christi Center provides in-person and online group therapeutic sessions for adults, teens, and children that are and will always be free to those who need them; and

WHEREAS, the Christi Center is part of Williamson County and central Texas's solution to healing from the COVID-19 pandemic, providing support services to 13,275 individuals in 2021 and to over 100,000 since its inception in 1987, the Christi Center continues to work with over 150 community agencies in service to central Texans; and

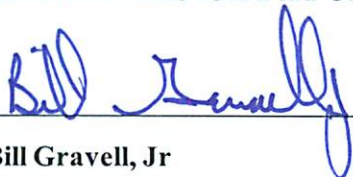

WHEREAS, on Wednesday, October 26, 2022 the Christi Center will honor its founders, Don and Susan Cox, and commemorate its 35th year of support; now, therefore be it

PROCLAIMED, that the Williamson County Commissioner's Court recognizes the October 26, 2022 as,

Christi Center Day

in Williamson County, Texas and recognizes 35 years of the Center's role in the hope and healing of our citizenry and honors and thanks the founders Don and Susan Cox for their selfless commitment and service to the citizens of Williamson County.

PROCLAIMED THIS 25th DAY OF OCTOBER 2022

Bill Gravell, Jr

Williamson County Judge
